PAINT! PAINT! PAINT! Having recently opened a Carriage, repair and paint shop in Rexton, I am now prepared to do all kinds of carriage work at the shortest notice and the lowest prices.

NOTICE.—On and after July 1st next, all summonses, capias, executions, warrants, and all acknowledgments in the capacity of Justice of the Peace, a commissioner for taking affidavits, or notary public, must be paid for when the work is done; and in suits when tried my costs must be paid when judgment is entered.

H. M. FERGUSON. Dated 24 June, A. D., 1901. Rexton, Kent Co., N. B.

HUMPTY DUMPTY CO.—The Ravel New Humpty Dumpty Company made their appearance on the stage of the Public Hall at Rexton, on Friday night, and was greeted by a crowded house, it being impossible to get a seat ten minutes after the door was opened.

INTERESTING WEDDING IN WESTMORLAND COUNTY.—A very pleasant event took place at the Father Crendall Memorial church, Salisbury, West. Co., on June 4th, when Miss Minnie, youngest daughter of Mr. Sampson Thomas, of Boston, formerly of St. Nicholas River, Kent County, was united in marriage to Mr. Nelson E. Bleakney, youngest son of Deacon Alex. Bleakney of that place.

WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lawson, Main River, Kent Co., was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday, 19th inst, when Lizzie, their youngest daughter, was united in marriage to Isaac Atkinson, of St. Nicholas River.

Wood's Phosphodine is sold in Richibucto by Estate W. W. Short. An extraordinary feat was performed the other day at Naples by M. Arlini, a professor of rhetoric, in presence of a large audience, which were mainly composed of actors, authors and journalists.

McLEAN SETTLEMENT ITEMS. JUNE 24.—Not having seen any notes from here for sometime I thought I would endeavor to write a few to let the people know we are still living. The farmers are all through with their farming and now they are in for a rest. We are pleased to have Miss M. Homlden with us a few days.

We had quite a number of friends to spend Sunday with us from Pine Ridge, Cotesville, McLaughlin Road and Canaan. We were pleased to see them all. We are going to have a basket social on the 10th July, the proceeds of which will be used to build a hall. We would be pleased to see as many as possible present.

APPLE BLOSSOM. HARCOURT NOTES. June 24.—We are pleased to see that all our correspondents are not dead, and hope to live for some time yet. I am sorry to hear that two of our young ladies get the blame of writing the notes in last week's paper, but just wait and find out for sure.

Mr. A. Ferguson, who has been on a business trip to Chipman, returned home Thursday. Mr. H. Wathen has resumed his duties as agent at Campbellton. Mr. Bert Keswick paid a flying visit to Buctouche last week.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey is away on a short vacation. The Presbyterian church, of this place is undergoing a coat of paint, also the residence and store of A. Dunn, which add much to the appearance of the little town.

Miss McLatchy of Moncton is visiting at the Eureka. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey are away to Marysville attending conference. While absent his place will be filled by J. F. R. McMichael.

A. H. Ingram, of the I. C. R. department Campbellton, spent Wednesday at his home. Miss Powell, who has been visiting at her sister's for the last six months, returned to Boston, Monday.

B. S. Bailey, J. P., who has been seriously ill for some time past, is improving. Rev. James A. Wheeler, who has been visiting at his home for the last three weeks, returned Saturday evening.

Without hesitation and with hardly a pause he repeated from memory the 15-350 lines that are in the Divine Comedy of Dante. It was 8 o'clock in the evening when he began to recite, and he did not stop until 2.16 in the following afternoon. The task therefore occupied him 1,095 minutes, which was at the rate of 830 lines an hour.

Gray? "My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color." —Mrs. E. Z. Benomme, Cohoes, N. Y. It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair!

GAINED 9 1/2 LBS. BY USING MILBURN'S PILLS.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 8, 1901. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs,—Some time ago my daughter, aged 19 years, was troubled with bad headaches and loss of appetite. She was tired and listless most of the time, and was losing flesh. Her system got badly run down, so hearing your Heart and Nerve Pills highly spoken of I procured a box, and by the time she had used them she had gained 9 1/2 lbs. in weight and is now in perfect health.

Yours truly, Mrs. P. H. CURTIS.
