LIFE A CENTURY AGO.

(Memphis Commercial Appeal.)

One hundred years ago a man could not take a ride on a steamboat. He could not go from Washington to New York in a few hours. He had never seen an electric light or dreamed of an electric car. He could not send a telegram. He couldn't talk through the telephone, and he had never heard of the hello girl. He could not ride a bicycle. He could not call in a stenographer and dictate a letter. He had never received a typewritten communication. He had never heard of the germ theory or worried over bacilli and bacteria. He never looked pleasant before a photographer or had his picture taken. He never heard a phonograph talk or saw a kinetoscope turn out a prize fight. He never saw through a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary with the aid of a Roentgen ray. He had never taken a ride in an elevator. He had never imagined such a thing as a typesetting machine or a typewriter. He had never used anything but a wooden plough. He had never seen his wife using a sewing machine. He had never struck a match on his pants or anything else. He couldn't take an anaesthetic and have his leg cut off without feeling it. He had never purchased a ten cent magazine which would have been regarded as a miracle of art.

He could not buy a paper and learn everything that had happened the day before all over the world.

He had never seen a McCormack reaper or a self-binding harvester.

He had never crossed an iron bridge.

In short, there were several things that he could not do, and several things he did not know.

What We Eat

Is intended to nourish and sustain us, but it must be digested and assimilated before it can do this. In other words, the nourishment contained in food must be separated by the digestive organs from the waste materials and must be carried by the blood to all parts of the body. We believe the reason for the great benefit which so many people derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla lies in the fact that this medicine gives good digestion and makes pure, rich blood. It restores the functions of those organs which convert food into nourishment that gives strength to nerves and muscles. It also cures dyspepsia, scrofula, salt rheum, boils, sores, pimples and eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism and all diseases that have their origin in impure blood.

OUR DUTY.

"What is our duty in this Chinese crisis?" demanded the observant boarder.

"To mind our p's and queue," replied the cross eyed boarder.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Business Men's Backs.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Too much rush and bustle, work and worry fall to the lot of the average business man. Kidneys can't stand it; they fail to filter the poisons from the blood properly. Urinary trouble, general languor and pain in the back are the natural results. A man can't attend to business properly if his back aches—no use trying. Only one sure remedy that never fails—

Take a hint from business men who have used them: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at the Medical Hall here, for rheumatism and pains in the small of my back, with which I have been afflicted for the past six years. They did me so much good that I heartily recommend them as an excellent medicine for rheumatic troubles and backache." CHARLES C. PILKETT, dealer in agricultural implements, Orillia, Ont.

OTTAWA, Jan. 3.—In view of the absence of terminal facilities and the impossibility of supplying them this season combined with the epidemic of small pox in the neighborhood of Cape Tormentine, which prevents the Stanley carrying mails and passengers and freight to any appreciable extent to and from Summerside, the minister of marine has determined to transfer the Stanley to the Pictou route for the remainder of the season, and orders have been issued accordingly. The Stanley will be run in conjunction with the steamer Minto between Pictou and Georgetown, and an effort will be made to provide a daily service from each point.

TORONTO, Jan. 3.—Nail manufacturers and hardware dealers from all over Canada are in the city to-day attending the quarterly meeting of the several associations connected with the nail industry. E. Perkins, R. C. Elkin and James Pender are present from St. John. The meeting to-day represented wire nail interests. Although the nail duty was reduced forty per cent by the present government, the manufacturers seemed unanimous in stating they found no difficulty whatever in competing with their cousins across the border. "Last year was very prosperous; we can undersell them yet," was the remark of more than one.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 3.—Walter Avery, eight years of age, of Golden, B. C., on Tuesday night, rescued his one-year-old sister from their burning house. His father and mother had gone out. The boy was awakened by the crackling of flames. The cot on which the baby lay was on fire. When Walter awoke the clothing on his bed was also in flames, but he rushed to the aid of his half-smothered infant sister. In carrying her out he was badly burned about the arms and body. He dropped exhausted half way between the house and barn. A few minutes later both children were picked up by a neighbor. The house was destroyed.

MONTREAL, Jan. 3.—Official information has been received here that the St. Lawrence River Navigation Company, Ltd (of Canada), has been organized in London with a capital of $500,000, to operate a line of ice breaking steamships to run on the St. Lawrence between Quebec and Montreal. Prominent English and Canadian capitalists are interested. John Kennedy, chief engineer of the harbor commissioners, has given his opinion that the physical obstacles can easily be overcome, but the commercial advantages to accrue are yet to be demonstrated. It is stated to be the purpose to start one ship from each of the two ports at the same hour, so that each boat will only have to break the ice half the distance.

CALGARY, N. W. T., Jan. 3.—Two ranchers, Gordon McConnell and John McNichol, of Pekisko, lost their lives in the prairies as a result of too much New Year's celebration. When they started to drive home they lost their bearings and their horses bolted, throwing them out of the carriage. McConnell was dead when found in the morning, and McNichol's hands and feet were so badly frozen that he died in the Holy Cross hospital.

The coal lands will supply the middle west when fully developed, and the Great Northern Railway will be extended about thirty-five miles to reach them.

The first of the new bills of the Royal Bank of Canada were issued at Ottawa Wednesday to the employes of the American Bank Note Company, who manufactured the bank notes. They are very handsome in design and are tinted in four colors by a new process which prints four colors at the one time. These are the first bank notes on which this process has been applied in Canada. The bills have been issued in five denominations—$5, $10, $20, $50 and $100. On the back of each note, in the centre, is the royal coat of arms. At each end of the bill on this side is printed the denominations in large figures. On the front of the note at one end is an artistic vignette, and at the other end is printed the denomination of the bill. The notes bear the date January, 1901.

The widows and descendants of Canadian soldiers who died through the war are eligible for grants from the Royal patriotic fund."

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—MacKerzie and Mann propose to construct, it is said, a line from Winnipeg to Quebec city to the north of the country traversed by the Canadian Pacific railway, instead of relying on the Canada Atlantic or any other road to give their western lines connection with the Atlantic seaboard. Preliminary surveys have been made. The Ontario government have been approached for aid and the dominion government will be asked for a charter. On leaving Winnipeg the proposed road will parallel the C. P. R. to Lake of the Woods then run eastward through new Ontario to Abitibi River and ascend the river valley to Lake Abitibi, turning south through Temiscamingue district, then to Quebec. This is reported to be a fertile belt suitable for grazing and vegetable growth with chances of mineral development.
