MARITIME PROVINCE NOTES.

The Amherst Daily Press has been purchased by the sons of Rev. Mr. Nicolson, Methodist minister at Amherst. The paper will continue Conservative in politics, but will be independent in civic matters.

One of St. John's most respected and prominent citizens, Hon. Thomas R. Jones, died last Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock at his residence, Elliott Row, and his death will be learned with deep regret by his many friends. Mr. Elliott had been ill only eight days and not until a few days ago was it feared that his illness would result fatally. Mr. Jones leaves a wife, two daughters and five sons. The daughters are Mrs. W. C. Thompson, of Montreal, whose husband is the second engineer of the Dominion Bridge Company, and Mrs. A. G. Cowie, of this city, while the sons are Mr. F. A. Jones, Mr. C. D. Jones, of this city, Mr. T. R. Jones, jr., of Port Gamble, N. S.; Mr. E. A. Jones, of Ottawa, and Mr. J. Gillis Jones, who resides in South Africa where he conducts a business.

William D. Ballock, high sheriff of Carleton county, died at 1 o'clock last Wednesday at his home in Centreville. The sheriff had been ailing for nearly a year. Last summer he was ill with an affliction resembling whooping cough, and he had been failing in health ever since. He was in Woodstock three weeks ago. His last illness kept him in the house 10 days, the last four days of which he was confined to his bed. The deceased was a son of the late John Ballock and was born in Woodstock about 65 years ago. His brothers living are R. W., of Centreville; A. R., of Fredericton, and Alfred of Boston. One sister survives—Mrs. Dr. Main, of Edmundston. The funeral took place on Friday at 3 o'clock. Mr. Ballock was appointed high sheriff in the spring of 1894, succeeding David Irvine, and was a very popular officer, being true and impartial in his dealings. He was a sympathetic nature and the poor and unfortunate were always dealt leniently with by Sheriff Ballock.

The examination of candidates and probationers for the ministry, in connection with the Methodist conference of New Brunswick and P. E. Island, will be held in Charlottetown on the second Tuesday in May.

It is stated in a Charlottetown paper that Bishop Courtney has requested the rector of St. Peter's church, of that city, to discontinue certain ritualistic practices and that the request has not been complied with. The candlesticks have been removed from the altars in St. Stephen's and the Garrison chapel, this city.—Halifax Echo.

The body of Stephen German was found on the flats in Killam's dock, Yarmouth, N. S., about 7 o'clock Thursday morning. There was a slight abrasion on the right temple, but the man had evi-

Recently been drowned. An inquest was commenced and adjourned till the afternoon and the evidence showed that the man was in his usual condition when last seen. He had been drinking heavily for some months. He leaves a widow and one child, was a native of Digby, 55 years of age and has carried on a stove business there for many years.

Last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. R. Milledge Brown, Telegraph street, there was a happy occasion. The marriage of Mr. Milledge R. Brown to Miss Lydia P. Lutes was performed by the Rev. D. Hutchinson, pastor of the First Baptist church. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate friends of the young couple. After the ceremony the company sat down to tastefully served tables.

An interesting event took place last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Milledge Crossman, Bridge street. The marriage ceremony was performed between Mr. Wilfrid H. Crossman and Miss Victoria Plume. Only the friends of the contracting parties were present. The Rev. D. Hutchinson, of the First Baptist church, was the officiating clergyman.—Moncton Transcript.

Charles Oakley, aged 42, of Cambridge, Queens county, a patient at the Provincial Lunatic Asylum, committed suicide Thursday morning by jumping from the suspension bridge into the falls. He was a quiet, easy going patient, who never showed any symptoms of suicide, and who was allowed considerable liberty. All last summer he worked with the farmers and Thursday morning about 9 o'clock was engaged in some work about the barn. The attendant who was near saw him go around behind the barns, and started immediately to see what he was about, but Oakley had taken advantage of the opportunity to get over as much ground as possible, and was running rapidly toward the fence, which he reached and scaled before the guard could get near. Then, rushing out a short distance on the bridge, he crawled through one of the openings and leaped into the seething waters below, and soon disappeared from view. Of course the body has not been recovered and perhaps never will be. Mr. Oakley's wife is understood to be living in the city.—St. John Globe.

Capt. J. L. Guptill is busily engaged at Point du Chene in preparing for the herring fishing season, and his arrangements made for curing and exporting large quantities of these fish to the West Indies.

Capt. Guptill has erected a salt shed, 40x100, with a capacity of 1500 barrels and has also put up two smoke houses 40x80, and if the quantity of herring to be had warrants, will erect a third smoke house. It is proposed to utilize all the herring that can be caught, so that the quantity put up for the West Indies market will depend entirely upon the run of fish. Capt. Guptill will be in a position to handle about 700 barrels of fish a day. The firm represented by Capt. Guptill have factories in P. E. Island, but this is the first attempt to utilize the Shediac herring for export in large quantities. In the past herring have been caught there in such large quantities as to be worth little or nothing as an article of food, but have been used chiefly as lobster bait, and sometimes, it is said, by farmers along the shore as a fertilizer. Mr. Thomas, of Grand Manan, also visited Shediac recently, and in case Capt. Guptill cannot handle all the herring that offer, he proposes to ship them in carload lots to Grand Manan, where they will be smoked and put up for export. It will be seen, therefore, that the hitherto somewhat despised Shediac herring is likely to be in demand in future.—Moncton Times.

The str. Bratsberg, that has been plying between Hillsbyro and Philadelphia during the last two seasons, reached the Hillsboro wharf on Friday, being the first of the season. This boat carries 1600 tons and intends, as heretofore, to make two trips each month.

There is now living in the parish of Upham, Kings Co., three persons of one birth, whose ages when totaled make 228 years. The three persons are triplets born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeBow in the year 1825. The two sons are James and Richard DeBow, while the daughter is Mrs. McDonald, who is a cripple from an accident some years ago of breaking her hip. She uses a crutch, but otherwise is strong and healthy.

His friends will learn with regret that Walter H. Golding, who left the staff of the Star to enter, with excellent prospects, upon newspaper work in Worcester, Mass., has been compelled by ill-health to give it up. He was not feeling well when he left St. John, and the strain of night work on a newspaper in a strange city, where he had necessarily to work much harder, was too much for him. Mr. Golding has been spending a week with friends in Boston, and probably will return to St. John in a few days. While sympathizing with him that he was not able to carry out his plans, his friends in St. John will be very glad to see him home again.—St. John Star.

A Sussex despatch to the Moncton Transcript says:—The deer killing case against Dennis O'Regan of White's Mountain, which occupied the attention of the stipendiary magistrate for four days, had a rather peculiar ending. After the magistrate had convicted the accused and imposed a fine of fifty dollars or one month's jail, J. M. McIntyre, counsel for the accused drew the attention of the court to the fact that no evidence had been given by the complainant that the game law was in force as required by the act. The magistrate thereupon refused to issue a warrant of commitment, and the accused joyfully departed for his home. L. B. Knight, chief game commissioner, watched the case one day. O. P. King conducted the case for the crown.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Representatives of the newspaper publishing interest waited on the government to-day. The government members present were Messrs. Fielding, Paterson and Sutherland. The delegation represented the burdensome character of the newspaper postage and the government was asked to introduce a bill reducing the amount to a flat rate, not exceeding one-quarter of a cent per pound. The delegates also asked for an exchange of newspapers' mail between Great Britain and Canada at domestic rates. Mr. Sutherland said that Mr. Mulock had given this matter some attention before he left for Australia and the matter was engaging the attention of the department and would be disposed of as soon as possible. As to the duty on news print, Mr. Cooper presented the following resolution, which was adopted by the Canadian Press Association: "That the executive of the Canadian Press Association believe that a combine now exists among Canadian paper manufacturers, the effect of which is to unduly increase the price of news and printing paper, contrary to section 18 of the customs tariff of 1897; that this executive is prepared to submit witnesses and evidence in support of the statement. "We therefore respectfully ask that the government order an investigation, under section 18, and subscription of the customs tariff of 1897, with a view to ameliorating existing conditions." Several members of the delegation spoke in support of this resolution. Mr. Fielding said there were to be no changes in the tariff at present. The inquiry asked for would, of necessity, be slow, as it would have to be of a judicial character. However, he assured the delegation that the matter would be laid before his colleagues and would receive consideration.

ALMOST CONSUMPTION

Mr. J. J. Dodds, of Pleasant Ave, Deer Park, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered in my head and throat and all over my body since last summer from a very heavy cold, which I could not get rid of. I have tried several of what are considered good remedies, but none seemed to be of any avail. I began to think that my cold was developing into consumption, as very many have to my knowledge. I am thankful now to say that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has worked a complete cure, as I am now entirely free of the cold."

MONTREAL, April 13.—Joshua A. Bell is suing the Royal bank of Canada for $1,005. He asks that a promissory note and the mortgage given by him to the bank to secure the payment of the first instalment on the Stanley mine be declared void. The advance was made by Thomas J. Chisholm, who is a fugitive from justice.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

LORD METHUEN INVALIDED IN THE HOSPITAL.

LONDON, April 12.—No further news had been received regarding the reported resumption of peace negotiations in South Africa, but the fact that the censor allowed the report to pass and the fact that the government has not issued a denial are held to prove that negotiations of some sort are in progress.

The casualty list issued yesterday revealed the fact that Lord Methuen was discharged from the hospital last week, this being the first notification that he had been ill.

There is no information from South Africa beyond the fact that the British have evacuated Hoopstad which, the Daily Mail observes, "seems to show that Lord Kitchener's force is still none too strong."

It is announced from Brussels that the Dutch Transvaal committee has handed to Mr. Kruger a check for 1,000,000 florins collected in Holland for the assistance of the Boers.

It appears that Mr. Kruger's entourage assert that the route from Leydsdorf to Zoutpansberg is heavily fortified and able to resist the British for a long time.

The war office has issued a statement showing the colonial contingents sent to South Africa up to March 12 last, and their present strength there:

	Sent.	Still There.
Canada.....	3,059	117
New South Wales.....	2,640	788
Victoria.....	1,429	625
Queensland.....	1,127	530
South Australia.....	574	306
West Australia.....	74	310
Tasmania.....	302	206
New Zealand.....	1,787	1,352

This does not include the Bushmen and a composite regiment which cannot be shown separately against the colonies to which the men belong.

THE BRITISH MAKE AN IMPORTANT CAPTURE.

LONDON, April 12.—A despatch from Kitchener from Pretoria dated Thursday, says Colman's mounted infantry after two hours hard fighting captured eighty prisoners, including Commandant Bresla, at Liefdeindyne near Dewetsdorp.

BOTHA TIRED OF FIGHTING.

LONDON, April 11.—The report that General Botha has renewed the negotiations with Lord Kitchener is not yet officially credited, and is received with satisfaction, except by the ultra jingoists, who fear that the government will renew the terms recently rejected.

Regarding General De Wet's mental condition reports have been very conflicting for some time in the rumors which allege that long continued hardships, under the harassing British pursuit have unhinged his mind.

On the other hand, a correspondent of the Times quite recently acknowledged the wonderful foresight and fertility of resource which characterized General De Wet's retreat from Cape Colony.

As during the previous abortive negotiations the British press again loudly insist on "unconditional surrender" but with the budgetary necessities staring the country in the face, if negotiations are reopened, the Boers, as the Daily Chronicle remarked editorially, "may reckon on fair treatment" at the hands of the British.

"It is semi-officially asserted here," says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, "that General Botha has had another interview with Lord Kitchener, in which he informed him that he had seen De Wet, who still refuses to entertain the idea of surrender on any terms. General Botha, however, regards De Wet as no longer responsible for his actions, and seeks a modus vivendi on behalf of all the burghers' forces."

NEGOTIATIONS RE-OPENED.

CAPE TOWN, April 10.—General Botha has re-opened negotiations with the British for peace.

As explained here this action was determined in part by General Botha's discovery at a recent meeting, that General De Wet's intellect had weakened, and that his influence with his followers was diminishing and that a continuance of the campaign, in view of General De Wet's irresponsibility, rested with General Botha alone.

It is understood here that although General De Wet at his recent interview with General Botha refused to surrender, General Botha regarding him as irresponsible, undertakes to negotiate in behalf of the free Boer forces. The British authorities here consider that if General Botha surrenders De Wet's followers can be easily taken.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, April 12.—In the house yesterday, at the request of Mr. Bickerdike, Montreal, the premier agreed that, on next Wednesday, an opportunity should be given for a discussion upon the transportation question.

The house went into committee upon a bill to amend the franchise act.

There was a long discussion upon the first clause of the bill which adopts provincial voters' lists for Dominion purposes and is as follows: "The voters' lists shall be those prepared for the several polling divisions so established and which on the day of the date of the writ for such Dominion election were in force under the laws of that province for the purposes for provincial elections." The law as it now stands provides the lists shall be those in force 60 days before the election. It has been found that this made it necessary to use in the last election many lists a year old. In fact it was stated that in the last election fully 90 per cent. of the lists were old ones. The bill is designed to overcome this.

Much opposition was offered to this clause by Ontario Conservatives on the ground that it would, in many cases, not permit of the lists being printed in time for use in the election. Under such circumstances it was pointed out that candidates would have to go to the expense of getting written lists from the clerk of the peace. Moreover the fact that lists were written and not printed would leave the door open for frauds in the form of additions to or removals from the lists.

The solicitor general said the question seemed to be whether candidates should possibly have to face the expense of getting lists copied or should as up to date lists as possible be secured.

The clause was finally allowed to stand over.

Some progress was made with the Dominion elections act, after which the balance of the evening was spent in supply on the agriculture estimates.

A Warning.

To feel tired after exertion is one thing; to feel tired before is another.

Don't say the latter is laziness—it isn't; but it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, is running down, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It's a warning, too—and sufferers should begin taking Hood's at once. Buy a bottle to-day.

"I will give you my daughter," said the aged millionaire, "on one condition."

"Name it!" cried the delighted youth.

"That you support her." And the youth went away exceedingly sorrowful.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
