THE WORLD OVER.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 14.—The headless body of a man was found in a vault in the rear of Charles Henson's saloon early yesterday. The body had been badly hacked by a knife, the head having been cleanly severed. There was no clue to the identity of the dead man.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—A special to the Tribune from Milwaukee says: Over 200 people in this city, who supposed themselves divorced and married. This discovery was made yesterday when it was found that in over 100 cases where the divorce had been granted they had not been docketed. The lawyers blame their clients for not paying to have their decrees entered. The judges blame the lawyers.

HINTON, W. Va., Feb. 14.—Frank Craxford, aged 16 years, was shot and instantly killed by his brother Charley, aged 14 years, at Ballingee yesterday. Frank objected to Charley going hunting and to prevent him held the dog. This enraged the younger boy, who discharged the contents of the shotgun at his brother, and killed him. Charley has been jailed.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 14.—Judge Hollister to day granted a permanent injunction against the Jeffries-Ruhlin boxing contest planned to be held in Saengerfest hall tomorrow night. The case will be carried to the circuit and the supreme courts and the contest will be postponed until a final decision shall be reached in the higher courts.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily News says: "The Crown Prince of Denmark opposes the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States. He favors the plan of the syndicate which desires to invest capital in the island and to develop them. At a meeting of the representatives of the budget committee and the syndicate a compromise was agreed upon to the effect that if the matter had not been settled with the United States before March 4 the budget committee is to reject the sale and to support the schemes of the syndicate."

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Lawrence Ural, a jockey well known in the early '90s, was found dead in a barn at Sheephead Bay. Ural was a contemporary of Hayward, Donohue, McLaughlin, Barbee and other old-time jockeys. He rode Reveler, winner of the Juvenile, in 1883, and Greenland, winner of the Great Metropolitan, in 1881, both from the stable of Geo. Lorillard. He will be buried by the Jockey Club.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—High price records for the payment of a stock exchange seat were broken again when Charles I. Gates, a son of John W. Gates, of American steel and wire fame, paid $51,000 for a membership. To this price must be added the initial fee of $1,000, making a total cost of the seat $52,000. The old high record was $51,000. The seat bought by Gates was sold by L. W. Bickley, of the firm Bickley and Hopkins.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Michael McQuaid, a young man from Bangor, Maine, made a brave rescue of a woman and her two children from a tenement house fire to-day at 1,988 Second avenue. McQuaid, who was employed in the building, started to arouse all the people in it when the fire was discovered. He found Charles Bossi's printing shop locked, but knowing that the printer's family lived in the rear, he broke in the glass door. He found Mrs. Bossi hysterical from fright, and with her night dress in flames. McQuaid carried her to the open air, where she cried that her children would perish. McQuaid tore off his coat, wrapped it around his head and plunged into the flames and smoke. He returned in a few moments. His coat was not over his head this time, but around the two infants held in his arms. His face and hair had been exposed to the fire and he came out minus his eyebrows, his hair singed and his cheeks blistered by the heat. He staggered to the sidewalk, put the babies down at their mother's feet and fell in a dead faint.

DOMINION ARTILLERY ASSOCIATION MEETING.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Artillery Association took place here to-day, Lieut. Col. Irwin presiding. In the report of the executive committee, presented by Lieut. Col. Cotton, allusion was made to the successful work at Deseronto and it was recommended that the time of training should be extended to 16 days. Considerable difficulty, it was stated, was experienced in arranging a programme of competitions for the garrison artillery corps.

The executive called attention to the strong desire to send a representative team to the National Artillery Association meeting at Shobergness and submitted the suggestion for the consideration of the association.

Lieut.-Col. Cole, of Montreal, moved a vote of thanks to the governor general for his active interest in the work of the D. A. A.

His excellency, in replying, said he had always taken an interest in military subjects, but as he was not an artilleryman he could not enter into a technical discussion on the subjects before the meeting. He did not think it advisable to wholly abolish the comparative efficiency returns as effecting artillery even though it might be necessary to do so as regards infantry corps. His excellency said he was in receipt of a private letter from Lord Roberts in which he expressed his highest appreciation of the work of the Canadian batteries in South Africa. He hoped for a successful future for the work of the association.

Lieut.-Col. MacRae, of Guelph, proposed the usual vote of thanks to the government through the minister of militia.

In acknowledging the vote Hon. Dr. Borden said that, in whatever action he had taken, regarding the association, he had largely been guided by his military advisers. He promised careful consideration of the recommendations in the reports. Regarding improved guns, the minister said he had been assured that they would be forwarded as soon as possible.

Dr. Borden spoke in the most complimentary terms of the work of the Canadian artillerymen in South Africa. Every unit had done well—in infantry, mounted rifles and artillery—and he congratulated them on the laurels they had won.

Major General O'Grady-Haly was elected a life member of the association. In acknowledging the honor the major general spoke of the work of the Canadian artillerymen.

The election of officers resulted as follows.

Lieut.-Col. Irwin, president.
Lieut.-Col. George West Jones, St. John; Frank King, St. Catharines; Longworth, Charlottetown, and Coutlee, Ottawa, vice-presidents.
The old council was re-elected.

YOU MAKE THE TEST

You can find out if the kidneys are clogged, deranged and diseased. Have you backache or a weak, lame back? Do you have pain or difficulty in urinating or a too frequent desire to urinate? Are there deposits like brick dust in the urine after it has stood 24 hours? If you have any of these symptoms not a moment should be lost in obtaining Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the world's greatest kidney cure. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

THE SERVANTS WE DO NOT KEEP.

Dr. Grace Peckam Murray, a well-known and authoritative writer in regard to Children's Diseases, begins in the March Delineator a series of four valuable chapters dealing with "The Child." The first article speaks of "The Child at Home." Every mother should read these articles as they appear.

Wherever the retaining of a servant is a difficult matter—and in what home is it not?—interest should be felt in the article in the March Delineator by Professor Ellen H. Richards of The Massachusetts College of Technology, entitled "The Servants We Do Not Keep." Of course the final word on the servant question will never be uttered, but every woman with servant troubles, at least wants to know the troubles of others and how, in some measure, they overcome them.

There are two points on which Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands and her husband are not in unison. The Duke is passionately fond of music, and has himself a fine tenor voice, which has been highly cultivated. The Queen does not care in the least for music—she even dislikes it. Her Majesty occasionally accompanies her mother to a concert as a duty, but she is very much relieved when the duty is accomplished. The second point is that Queen Wilhelmina, who has a very great love for animals, has always had a distaste for shooting and hunting, and Duke Heinrich is a great sportsman.

CONTROL OF CANADIAN RAILWAYS THE SUBJECT IN PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—Although the commons adjourned before 6 o'clock yesterday, the order paper was gone through and a good deal of business disposed of.

On the orders of the day being called, Mr. McLean, of East York, moved that the house adjourn to give him an opportunity of discussing the railway problem.

The speaker objected to this course of procedure, which ought to be discouraged. He pointed out that between confederation and 1896 there were only 25 instances of such motions on record, and last year alone there were either 34 or 37.

Mr. MacLean, in proceeding, said that all the railways of the United States were now practically under the control of six men and he feared that Canadians would wake up some day and discover that the same men had secured control of the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk railways. He said these men in a few days would control all the American lines. They also controlled the Standard Oil Company, the banking of New York, American Coal areas and American iron products. They were in a position to capture the Canadian railways at any time. In fact he believed that steps had been taken with that object in view, if it was deemed necessary.

Less than $50,000,000 would secure control of the C. P. R. He wanted to know whether Canada had built up the C. P. R. in order to hand it over to American control. He considered two great Canadian lines were a menace to Canada. The Grand Trunk Railway was antagonizing Montreal and the Canadian Pacific railway St. John and he did not take favorably to Canadian railways building up American cities at the expense of Canadian cities. Though he considered the situation bad, bad as it was he thought it would be worse if Canada's railway passed under American control.

He thought the remedy was to take the bull by the horns and for Canada to go on the stock market and buy control of these railways. He considered they would be complement of the Intercolonial railway, and our canal system and expressed a hopeful view of the outcome. He believed the way to get the fact Atlantic service was to acquire this national system of transportation, which would direct traffic to Canadian ports. The railway problem was to cause a revolution in the United States.

Premier Laurier said that the question was an important one and deserved being discussed fairly. If Mr. MacLean had taken such a view he would have brought it up in the regular way.

Clarke Wallace attacked the Grand Trunk for making Portland its winter and summer ocean port instead of Montreal.

Mr. Charlton said that the whole subject was one which should be seriously considered. In the United States people were plundered by trusts and railway corporations, and Canadians ought to draw a lesson from that country. Mr. Charlton concluded by returning an open verdict in regard to railway ownership. He was not sure that the government could not go further in regard to control of transportation, but he expressed the belief that the government might well take over the telegraph service at once.

Mr. Monk, Jacques Cartier, asked if the government had taken any steps to ascertain the truth of the report that the Dominion Steamship Line and the Grand Trunk railway, both subsidized, were about to divert traffic from Montreal to Portland.

The premier asked that formal notice of question be given.

MEN OF MARK.

Governor Nash of Ohio will probably make a visit to the Paris exposition in the early fall.

Joseph Flory, the Republican candidate for governor of Missouri, was a conductor on the Wabash railroad for 20 years.

Congressman Littlefield of Maine is one of the strongest men in the house physically. He exercises with 16 pound dumbbells every morning.

William S. Jennings, Democratic nominee for governor of Florida, is a cousin of William Jennings Bryan and, like him, is a native of Illinois.

William Jennings Bryan is fond of books and has a good sized general library, but he cares little for art and rarely visits a picture gallery.

Frederick Winklemann, who was recently selected by the New York board of education as lecturer on music for the public schools of that city, has been blind all his life.

Henry Graves, the Chicago millionaire, says he has lived in Chicago longer than any other man. He went there 39 years ago and for 50 years has lived in the same house.

William A. Clark, the copper king of Montana, is an enthusiastic member of the Butte Press club, at the meeting of which he is always called upon for a song, having an excellent voice.

The late Admiral Philip, while always a good, religious and conscientious man, was as a boy not much of a student and at the Naval academy generally just managed to pass his examinations.

Major Esterhazy has returned to Paris and is again appearing in public. He seems to be well to do, yet he is not engaged in any business, so rumor says that he gets a government pension.

Lord Grimthorpe, the most pugnacious of English churchmen in spite of his 84 years, has resigned the position of chancellor and vicar general of the diocese of York, which he has held for 23 years.

Samuel W. Twombly, dean of the Massachusetts house of representatives, is 78 years of age. It is said he has a record of attendance at every session of the legislature since he has been a member.

Admiral Farragut went to sea as a midshipman when 10 years old, was given command of a prize when 11 and at 12 had been a combatant in one of the sharpest sea fights in our second war with England.

Judge William A. Holt of Kentucky, who has been appointed chief justice of Porto Rico, is one of the best known lawyers in his state. Ex-Secretary John G. Carlisle once said of him, "He has the perfect legal mind."

A number of years ago, before he was famous, Theodore Roosevelt was asked how he pronounced his name when it was introduced in this country and what it meant. Here is his answer: "My name is pronounced Ros-a-velt, the s with almost a z sound; introduced about 1629; Dutch; means field of roses."

A Woman's Impulsiveness.

If a thoughtful woman were asked, "What is the greatest curse of your sex?" she might well answer, "Impulse." It is responsible for almost all the mistakes made by the good hearted among us. May it not safely be said that a few minutes' thought before speech or action would prevent most fatal blunders? Many of us are in positive bondage, quickness to feel, to show our feelings, to retort as to respond. If we are hurt, we must immediately "give ourselves away," as the phrase runs, if not by bitter speech at least by look and manner, yet reflection frequently brings the keenest regret for lost dignity, the betrayed secret. Many a one has wrecked her own happiness for the want of the patient stoicism which would have led her to stand aside for awhile watching events until they brought with them her opportunity. Even when we are happy it is not always well to let the bright stream bear us away rudderless. The impulsive manifestation of affection, the hasty proposal of marriage, the hastier acceptance, have they never proved the beginnings of misery? Or has a rash word never sundered true lovers, true friends? If these things are true, it is likewise true that the fault in the commencement has been that of feminine impulsiveness. The defect is a generous one and therefore commoner with us than with men, so that it handicaps us unfairly in the struggle of life. And, truly, it is a weary task to be always "with a host of petty maxims preaching down" one's heart. But we must do it. Either we must rule feeling, or feeling will rule us. It is a good servant, but a bad master. Our loving women's hearts are like the fire of the domestic hearth—the light of the home when duly controlled, warming the whole house, but if the fire be not kept in its subordinate place what a conflagration ensues!—Philadelphia Times.

Admonishing Children.

"The universal frailty of our human nature which dislikes to be told of faults must be taken into consideration when we converse with our grown up children," writes Kate Upson Clark in Woman's Home Companion. "After they pass the age of 14 or 15 they usually betray a greater sensitiveness than before to even reasonable fault finding. By the time they reach 18 or 20 this tenderness has become a marked trait. They have then become substantially like the rest of us. Even from the lips of loving fathers or mothers and in strict privacy they want nothing but the same sort of honey on which our own souls love to feed. They wish no allusion made to the facts that they are acquiring nasal tones; that their gait is awkward; that their taste in dress is unformed and even bad; that they have not good judgment in choosing associates, and so on. Private discourses upon the wiles of the world and the weakness of youth and its proneness to wander they wish none of. Whatever medicine of that sort is to be given must be administered in small doses, interjected with skill into conversations upon ordinary matters, and sugar coated, if possible, with artful compliment. Even the best and dearest of our carefully brought up young people are likely to have their year of more or less obstinacy and pique, or their permanent streaks of unreasonableness and contumacy. Therefore they would better receive most of the telling strokes that mold into shape before they reach the age of 14. From that time up to the age of what is called 'discretion,' which does not arrive with most of us before 25 (if then), the youth, in judgment and sense, is really not much superior to what he was at from 7 to 15, but he has no suspicion of this fact."

MRS. NATION'S MOVEMENTS.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Nation left for Topeka to-night. She is under bonds to appear in the Kansas capital to-morrow for trial in connection with her operations in that city. Before leaving Chicago she announced that as soon as she had "cleaned up things" at home she would come back there. If things were not properly taken care of by the authorities she and her friends would take matters in their own hands, and to use her own expression, "we will make souvenirs." Her meeting in Willard Hall to-night was attended by 300 people and her talk was not long. In closing she declared she did not want any hatchets used. She believed in peaceable means of closing the saloons as far as possible. All means of that kind, she said, should be exhausted before more violent methods are employed.

WITCHKA, Kansas, Feb. 13.—A crowd of men, women and boys smashed a "joint" at Winfield, Kansas, to-day. The boys were mostly students from the Methodist college at Winfield. The saloon was completely wrecked. Charles Schmidt, proprietor, was cut on the head with a hatchet, and severely injured. It is said one of the women was seriously hurt with flying glass.

Last evening Earnest Hahn, a temperance advocate, was attacked by a "joint" keeper. The prohibition element was greatly angered and to-day's raid resulted.

DISEASES OF CHILDREN

Measles, Scarlet Fever and the many exhausting diseases of childhood, frequently leave the little sufferers in a weakened and debilitated condition of health from which it is difficult to rescue them except by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This preparation is admirably suited to equipments of children, and has such an invigorating and restorative influences on the system as to make weak, pany children healthy, plump and active.

"A man must have his eyes open all the time to succeed in politics," remarked the young man.

"He must," answered Senator Sorghum. "If he doesn't keep his eyes open on his own account, some one is pretty sure to open them for him."—Washington Star.
