WAS AN OLD RESIDENT OF OSHKOSH.—James Raleigh, an old and respected resident of this city, died suddenly Wednesday morning, Mar. 27th, at the family residence, 88 East Lincoln avenue. Deceased was in his 61st year and death was due to heart trouble. He had been a resident of Oshkosh since 1867. He was born in New Brunswick in 1840. A wife, three daughters and two sons survive. The oldest son, John, is a corporal in the Third United States infantry, now on duty in the Philippine islands, and his term of enlistment will not expire until next fall. Deceased leaves a brother, Richard, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Wm. Roach, of North Stratford, N. H. The funeral will occur to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Peter's church on High street.—Oshkosh Paper, Mar. 28th. [Deceased was a brother of the late Mrs. Patrick Burke, of Kingston, Kent Co.]

DEATH AT MILL CREEK.—There passed away from earth at Mill Creek on Saturday evening, 23rd ult., just as the sun went down, Jennie B., beloved and eldest daughter of James and Mary Lawson, aged 22 years. Consumption, that fatal disease, that spares not youth nor beauty, hastened the end, and although her disease was a lingering one, the last few weeks were passed in great suffering, but she bore it all with great patience and without a murmur. She was beloved by all who knew her, and her fair form will be much missed in the community. Interment was made in St. Andrew's burying ground, Kingston. Services were conducted by Rev. D. Fraser, assisted by Rev. Mr. McLeod. The pallbearers were, Roy Mundie, Robert Glenross, Bruce Clark, William McDonald, Henry James and John Dixon.

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at this solemn moment
Calmly say, "Thy will be done."
By Thy hands the boon was given,
Thou hast taken but Thine own;
Lord of earth, and God of heaven,
Evermore Thy will be done.

A KENT CO. BOY WEDDED IN BOSTON.—A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday evening, March 19th, in First Presbyterian Church, corner of Columbus Ave. and Berkly street, Boston when Wm. E. Johnston, of the firm of Rhodes Bros. Co., was united in marriage to Miss Mary Eliza, daughter of Roderick McGregor, of Belle River, P. E. I. The bride was attired in white crepe prettily arranged with Cluney lace, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Katie McGregor, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Charles H. Beattie, of Glasgow, Scotland, supported the groom. The ushers, Messrs. E. Baird, E. R. Norton, Geo. Hutchinson, F. McLaughlin, R. H. McKinnon, D. H. Johnston, R. S. McLelland and R. J. Dysart, the last three being cousins of the groom, escorted the bridal party to the altar where they formed into a half circle, when the nuptials were tied by Rev. Scott F. Hershey, Ph. D., LL. D., in a very impressive service, after which the couple left for New York on a wedding trip. Mr. Johnston is a son of Wm. Johnston of Notre Dame, Kent Co., N. B. He went to Boston about eight years ago, where he secured a position as clerk with Rhodes Bros., meat and provision dealers, on Tremont street. About four years ago the firm decided to open up a be sold. The rule or regulation of the Order was that every gentleman had to escort the lady owner of the basket of which he became the purchaser, to her place of destination. One of our unmarried men rather than be the first to violate this rule, spent nearly all "Knight" in doing so, and probably would not have had returned home by morning had he not met another young man who had been on the same mission in the same direction, and who was more familiar with the way, who carefully accompanied him back to his home in the upper part of the Village. Both felt a little tired, but nevertheless enjoyed the trip.

The walking on the hill is at present very bad, and many complaints have been made by those who meander in that direction. In winter time when the snow was deep, snow-shoes could be used; now when the mud is deep perhaps a path could be made through the fields behind Dave's house and through Uncle Jim's yard.

Rev. A. E. LePage visited Richibucto last week.

Rev. F. X. Jos. Michaud, V. G., was in St. John last week attending the funeral of the late Bishop Sweeney.

Mr. Isaac Trenholm, of Moncton, was again in our Village last week.

Mr. Robert Barker, representing T. B. Barker & Sons, of St. John is registered at the Bay View Hotel.

Suffocating With Croup

Croup is the terror of every mother and the cause of frequent deaths among small children. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brings prompt relief to the loud, ringing cough, makes breathing easy and prevents suffocation. It is mothers' favorite remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough and asthma.

Mrs. F. W. Bond, 20 Macdonald street, Barrie, Ont., says:—"Having tried your medicine, my faith is very high in its powers of curing cough and croup. My little girl has been subject to the croup for a long time, and I found nothing to cure it until I gave Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. I cannot speak too highly of it."

25 cents a bottle, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

—The Globe says Mr. Geo. V. McInerney, of Richibucto, will remove to St. John about May 1st.

—The several churches are busy practising special music for Easter. Some good singing is expected.

—Rumor says there is to be a wedding in town soon. Who are the principals? Can any one answer the question.

—Posters are out calling for tenders for a bridge over the Little North West river. The plan and specifications may be seen at the post office here.

—For sale at Dr. I. W. Doherty's, Kingston, Barred Plymouth Rock Eggs, $1.00 per setting of 13 eggs. Hens are bred from America's best strains.

—The weather for the past week has been cold and disagreeable. A cold easterly wind has been blowing and it has been raining the greater part of the week.

—Several of our sports went on a shooting trip to New Gully last week but did not meet with much success. They report fowl quite plentiful but hard to get a shot at.

—The roads throughout the country are almost impassable. Rev. H. A. Meek was five hours driving to Buctouche, a distance of 18 miles, on Saturday. He says the road is in a terrible state.

—Mr. James Flanagan got his horse in the ice on Saturday while attempting to cross. He had not much difficulty in getting it out, however, as it was near the shore and the water was not very deep.

—The ice is now unsafe for crossing with horses. People are still crossing on foot, but if the weather continues the way it is at present crossing on foot will also be unsafe. Horses crossed on Tuesday, the last no doubt this season.

—The Richibucto Amateur Dramatic Club have decided to postpone the play which they have been rehearsing, until a later date. They think it advisable to do so on account of the bad roads. The date will be announced later, through these columns and also by poster.

—The side walks around town have almost all been shovelled off, and are now quite dry. Road Commissioner Irving had men at work on Saturday cleaning them off. There are several yet however, which should be looked after, and no doubt will be in a day or two.

—The wharf track of the K. N. R. was opened up last week and several carloads of stone for the breakwater have been brought down from the quarry and landed on the wharf where they have been discharged. The stone will be taken to the beach in scows when the river opens.

—Every packet of UNION BLEND contains exactly one pound of tea; every packet of each grade is exactly alike; the quality never varies; the four grades of UNION BLEND are the best teas ever sold in this or any other market at their prices, which are 25, 30, 35 and 40 cents a pound. The brand, UNION BLEND, is a guarantee of excellence.

—We intend in a few days to render accounts to all subscribers in arrears to THE REVIEW in Richibucto and Kingston, and unless the accounts are paid within one week from the time they are rendered legal proceedings will be taken to recover the same. It is impossible to run a newspaper if the subscribers allow their subscriptions to go behind as some have done.

—Chatham Ladies are making great preparations for Easter—not for its celebration as a holy day, but for coming out in new clothes and spring bonnets. Every seamstress in town has been working all day and half the night for weeks, and there is much feverish anxiety in many homes for fear the last stitch will not be in the new clothes in time.—Chatham World.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, Richibucto, intend holding their annual Easter service in the Methodist church, on Tuesday evening, April 9th, at half-past seven. A programme, consisting of anthems, solos, readings, recitations, addresses, etc., will be given. A silver collection will be taken up during the evening in aid of the missionary work.

—The Sackville Post heard a man asking $12 per ton for hay one day last week. It is selling readily for $10 and this is a big price for Sackville. Here in Moncton as high as $13 a ton has been paid within the last few weeks though with the prospects of early pasture the price should fall soon.—Moncton Times. Richibucto can beat that. $15.00 per ton has been the price paid here for the past month and $14.50 per ton was realized at an auction sale in St. Louis a short time ago.

I have handled, I believe, about all the different makes of harness oil, from the United States and of domestic manufacture, on this market, and I have found your Imperial Leather Oil superior to all others. In addition to the quality of the oil the appearance of the cans is in its favor, and makes it a good seller.
