DIARY OF A BOARDER.

MONDAY.
Roast beef to-night for dinner!
I ate to beat the Dutch,
A treat like that's unusual;
We don't get many such.

TUESDAY.
The aftermath we've garnered
Of yesterday's delight,
From that fine roast they gave
Some nice cold cuts to night.

WEDNESDAY.
That lucious roast of Monday
Is lingering with us yet;
'Twas served to us this evening
Disguised as beef croquette.

THURSDAY.
It seems Miss Skimp's investment
In roast was not so rash
As we supposed. This evening
'Twas served again—as hash.

FRIDAY.
To-day we all were grateful
To get a little fish,
No beef, we hope, remaining
To make another dish.

SATURDAY.
Ah me! Tonight we greeted
Once more our dear old friend—
The beef bones boiled for "potage!"
Well this must be the end.

SUNDAY.
Gee whiz! This beats the record!
Last Thursday's hash—oh, my!—
With crust and raisins added,
Is served as mince meat pie.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, May 23.—In the house yesterday R. L. Borden, leader of the opposition, moved the following resolution: "That this house is of the opinion that the expenditure for the year ending July 30, 1901, and the proposed expenditure for the year ending June, 1902, are excessive and extravagant and regret that the government, with an exceptionally large revenue at its command, has not only failed to reduce, but has largely increased the public debt and has not shown appreciation of the extreme difficulty, if not impossibility, of reducing in future years the very high expenditure fixed in the years of prosperity.

When the house resumed at 3 o'clock, the minister of finance replied to the leader of the opposition, who spoke under the financial administration of the government. In opening he said he sympathized with, and welcomed any warning against excessive expenditure whatever the source. He said there was always a tendency to a large expenditure in times of prosperity and it was always well that a cool head should point this out. So strongly had he himself been impressed with the need of keeping this in view that he had always urged it in his budget speech. However, he had not advised that the country should be so cautious as to stand still. He felt that every business man in Canada was doing a larger business than some years ago, and it would not be fair to say that that was to be taken as extravagance. He contended the country had been advancing on sound lines and that, when a period of depression arrived, this would be demonstrated. The increased expenditure had been for enlargement of business. The tariff was now lower than it was a year ago and the financial statement was very satisfactory. The same was true of the trade statement.

With regard to the national debt, Mr. Fielding said the annual average increase during 18 years of the Conservatives' administration was $6,500,000, while the annual average increase under the Liberals had been $1,750,000. He made a similar argument with respect to surpluses.

A. & R. LOGGIE

The house divided on Borden's resolution, which was lost by 51 voting for amendment and 100 against, a government majority of 49.

OTTAWA, May 23.—The fifth session of the ninth parliament of Canada is closed.

The premier presented to the house this morning the papers in connection with the claim of Messrs. MacKenzie for the contract for the Yukon railway. He said that when the claim was first received it amounted to $510,000. This amount was reduced from time to time until it is now $210,000. In addition to the reduction made by the audit of the department the contractors also made reductions on account of sales made of materials purchased for the road. There was on the claim a charge of 15 per cent. on account of profits. This should not be allowed on the grounds of equity, therefore it was decided by the government that if the claim was paid at all it should be done after a judicial audit, in other words that it would be carried to the courts.

The supply was put through its different stages.

WHAT AN OBSERVANT MEMBER TOLD.

Mr. MacLaren, of Huntingdon, indulged in a jolly of the opposition with respect to the amount of talking that had been done by them. He said that during the session 55 of the opposition spoke and 59 Liberals exclusive of the cabinet. The opposition made 525 speeches, an average of 10, while the government side made 226 speeches, an average of four. He said that one day when the house sat from 3 to 6 and from 8 to 12 one member of the opposition was on his feet 94 times and the same evening another member of the opposition was on his feet 57 times. Counting as speeches only remarks that extended over five minutes, MacLaren said that seven members of the opposition made the following records during the session:

1st, 45 speeches; 2nd, 42; 3rd, 40; 4th, 39; 5th, 31; 6th, 30; 7th, 28.

On the government side two members made 12 speeches, one 10, two 8.

Mr. Belcourt said Mr. MacLaren had given an interesting statement with respect to the quantity of the speeches, but it would be interesting to hear something as to the quality.

Mr. MacLean—"You can judge that best by the number of those who remain in the house while the speeches are going on."

At 3 o'clock Lord Minto prorogued parliament. Finer weather for the function could not be desired. As many believed that the business could not be disposed of before Saturday, there was a very large number of members and senators on hand to witness the prologation ceremonies in the senate. There was also a good attendance of spectators.

There was of course the usual display peculiar to the closing of parliament.

PIANO RECITAL AT SACKVILLE.

SACKVILLE, N. B., May 11.—The third recital of the Mount Allison Conservatory piano graduates, was given Friday evening in Beethoven hall, the player being Miss Kathleen Coates. There was a large audience, and a popular programme. Applause was frequent and warm, but no encores received response.

A much admired number was the Beethoven Sonata for piano and violin, which was enriched by Dr. Archibald's exquisite playing. Miss Coates showed no little precision in harmonizing with the elusive string instrument.

Miss Coates has good control of her fingers, and her runs were excellent.

In the Heungarian Rhapsodie, Pro. Vincent played second piano, and in the Beethoven concerto the orchestral accompaniment is fine technique adding much to the performance. Miss Coates' rendering throughout the evening reflects credit on both master and pupil.

Three songs were given by Miss Estabrooks, whose voice is much admired. The accompaniments were played by Miss Borden, who is well up in this difficult art. The young ladies were all charmingly gowned and appeared to advantage on the flower decked platform.

[Miss Coates is a Kent Co. girl, daughter of the late Thomas Coates, Esq., of Buctouche.]

IF YOU CATCH COLD.

Many things may happen when you catch cold, but the thing that usually happens first is a cough. An inflammation starts up in the bronchial tubes or in the throat, and the discharge of mucus from the head constantly poisons this. Then the very contraction of the throat muscles in the act of coughing helps to irritate so that the more you cough the more you have to cough. It is, of course, beyond question that in many cases the irritation started in this way results in lung troubles that are called by serious names. It is in this irritated bronchial tube that the germ of consumption finds lodgment and breeds. Great numbers of people disregard cough at first, and pay the penalty of neglect. Cough never did any one any good. It should be dispensed with promptly. Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is a well known remedy, and it is the surest and quickest cough cure known to-day. It does not deceive by drugging the throat. It soothes the irritated parts and heals them, then the cough stops of its own accord. The action of this medicine is so simple that it seems like nature's own provision for curing a cough. Every druggist has it. 25 cents. Be sure to get the genuine, which has "F. W. Kinsman & Co." blown in the bottle.

A MEAN MAN.

"That man Deabete is the meanest fellow I know."

"Why?"

"To-day he paid me back a loan I've been trying to get for two years, and he had the nerve to ask me how much I proposed to throw off for cash."—Ohio State Journal.

NOTES FROM BOSTON, MASS.

MAY 18, 1901.—I trust you may have space in your valuable paper for a few notes about the doings of our country boys and girls in this great city.

The month of April was one of almost continual rain, and everybody is glad to welcome May with its sunshine. And indeed it reminds us of our school days when we were able to gather great bunches of those sweetest of all flowers, the Mayflower. Only the other day the writer heard one of the fair sex expressing a desire for the pleasure of gathering a bouquet of those lovely pink ones that grow so abundant near by the Brown's Yard school house.

The Boston public garden is most beautiful to behold, with its many coloured tulips. And the little ones have already had a pleasure trip on the swan boats on the garden pond.

The Elevated Street Railroad has commenced operating the car trains on the elevated track.

Mr. W. W. Pride, formerly of Harcourt, N. B., has opened a meat and provision store near the entrance of the subway on Shanmatt Ave. and is doing a hustling business. His daughter, Miss Laura, is her father's bookkeeper.

Mr. Glenn spent a pleasant afternoon and evening last week with friends in Jamaica Plains.

Messrs. Alfred and Melbourne Betts, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. L. S. Taylor, of Syracuse, New York, have arrived in Boston and are now the guests of their sister, Mrs. W. H. Hughes. Alf intends going on to Lewiston, Maine, and Melbourne will make his abode for the summer at the Wawinnet Farm, West Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Atkinson and little Miss Warman spent a pleasant Sunday a few weeks ago with their cousin, Mr. Harry Hughes, Jamaica Plains.

The Misses Annie and Maggie McNeill have returned from Port Rico, where they have been spending the winter. Their friends of Buctouche will be pleased to learn they arrived here in safety.

Mr. John Howell formerly of Bass River, Kent Co., is the guest of Mr. Duncan Campbell also of Bass River. Mr. Campbell is a kind host and endeavors to have Mr. Howell see all that is worth seeing of this great city.

The friends of Duncan Steward, of Ipswich, Mass., formerly of Bass River, Kent Co., will be sorry to learn of the death of his wife who died a few days ago. His mother, Mrs. Daniel Steward, is with him to comfort him in his sad bereavement.

Mr. Albert Fearon and Mr. Chipman Cail have paid Boston a flying visit, called on Miss Mary Fearon, of Jamaica Plains, and then went to visit friends in Lynn, Mass.

Mr. Fred Hughes, of Salem, is rejoicing over the little fellow that has come to his house to stay and call him papa.

One of our girls has recently taken a situation in Boston, and when the egg man called she almost cried out: "Why, Hello Dave! when did you come to Boston? But the second glance made the glad look disappear from her countenance for it was not Dave at all, only some one that looked very much like him. The Smith Corner boys will say, I wonder if he had on a straw hat.

One young man purchased a bicycle, but it rained every day after the purchase so he departed to a dryer town.

Miss Geddis, formerly of Harcourt, is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. Joe Currie, formerly of Molus River, thinks he with his family will take up their abode in Jamaica Plains.

Miss M. Fearon and Miss Annie Warman are making plans to spend the summer with their country friends in Moulis and Main Rivers.

Miss Jennie Betts intends spending the summer months at Windermere beach.

JIM CROW.

NOTES FROM THE CLYDE.

The exhibition was opened on May 2nd by Princess Louise, Duchess of Fife, and the Duke of Fife. There was a good deal of disappointment that the King was unable to come, but he could not on account of the court mourning. The day was gloriously fine and the King's eldest daughter had every reason to be gratified with the hearty reception given her by the cheering multitudes. Everything passed off well without any accident worth speaking of, and the great show was inaugurated in brilliant sunshine. Since the opening the weather has been very fine with the exception of one day.

On the first day from 3 p. m. until closing over 100,000 people passed the turnstiles, the first Saturday over 108,000 entered and on the 2nd over 135,000. The attendance is over double that of the last exhibition, so that success is assured. Over 100,000 season tickets have been sold.

A general glance through the buildings and grounds shows that in most cases the work was well finished for the opening. The Russian section is still far behind. Their buildings are up but so far they are not occupied. The Canadian section in a building by itself was in fine order. The display of fruits, grain woods, agricultural machinery, &c., claims a great deal of attention. The Canadian Court in the main building is also in good order. There is a large display of gold from Klondyke.

Taken as a whole the exhibition is undoubtedly the finest ever held in the United Kingdom. The art collection, which is housed in the new art galleries is specially noteworthy and many an hour may be profitably spent examining the treasures there.

The machinery section is on the opposite side of the Dumbarton Road but is reached by a covered bridge. It is needless to say that there is a great display of all sorts of wonderful engines, &c. Models of all the most recently built ships are ranged along the long corridor leading from the main building to the machinery hall.

In the way of amusements the chief attractions are the switch back railway and the water-chute. There is also a toy railway. The tiny engine is of the American type with a cow catcher on front. So far considerable amusement has been afforded by the mule-like antics of the engine. It seems to have a mind of its own and at times refuses to budge while at other times it forgets to obey orders when requested to stop.

An Indian theatre will shortly be opened and it will undoubtedly prove a great attraction. Music by the most famous bands at home and abroad will be dispensed daily. In the evening when the grounds are brilliantly lighted the scene is really magnificent and one can hardly realize that one is in the centre of grimy Glasgow, and not in an Oriental city.

In July the University will celebrate its 9th Jubilee, and for a week or so Gilmore Hill which overlooks the exhibition will be gay. Representatives from Universities all over the world will be present. In September the British Association also meets and various other associations will hold their meetings here so that Glasgow will be a great centre of attraction to many during the next few months.

In connection with the exhibition there will be a series of yacht races on the Clyde. The two Shamrocks are to race so we shall have an opportunity of judging of the paces of the new cup challenger. So far she seems to be a faster boat than the old one, but she has been unfortunate in carrying away some of her gear in each race, so that it is impossible to say much about her yet. Sir Thos. Lipton is sparing no expense and he deserves to succeed.

DOMINION NEWS.

MONTREAL, May 24.—Eugene Gagnier, a well-dressed young man, yesterday confessed to having taken part in from 20 to 25 daylight robberies recently which netted him and his companion about $2,000. Gagnier was arrested some months ago with a companion, the latter pleading guilty and Gagnier not guilty. Yesterday Gagnier changed his plea and made a confession.

OTTAWA, May 24.—Jules Siegfried, of Paris, arrived here yesterday morning. He is here to meet the premier and other members of the government and talk over with them the question of improving the trade relations between France and Canada. Mr. Siegfried, although not directly representing the French government, has their approval. It is expected that the new line of steamers between Canada and France will give an opportunity for greatly increasing the trade between both countries.

MONTREAL, May 24.—Alphonse Malboeuf attempted to pass a forged cheque on J. E. H. Quipp, druggist, and was recognized as the man who had been successful at the same thing once before. A policeman was called and the man was arrested. A well-known physician's name was forged to the cheque.

MONTREAL, May 24.—W. H. Rosevar, general accountant of the Grand Trunk, while crossing the tracks at Point Charles to the general offices yesterday, was struck by a shunting engine and badly injured. The locomotive threw him clear of the tracks. His escape from death was miraculous.

OTTAWA, May 25.—Mr. Kaulback, who sometime ago called attention to the action of the British Consul at Brazil, compelled the captain of a Dominion vessel to haul down the Canadian ensign and put up the Union Jack, said he had made enquiries and found that Canadian vessels had the right to fly the Canadian flag. He said the regulations on the subject was passed by the Lords of Admiralty on February 2, 1892, authorizing the red ensign of Her Majesty's fleet with the Canadian coat of arms in the fly to be used on board vessels registered in the Dominion. On June 18th, 1893, the Department of Marine and Fisheries made the following regulations: "The area of the shield shall in no case exceed one-fourth the area of the Union Jack of the particular ensign. The shield shall be placed centrally in that part of the flag which is beyond the Jack."

Catarrh Easily and Quickly Cured.

Poor remedies have given catarrh the reputation of being incurable. But it is curable, easily and quickly, if the right method is employed. Snuffing an irritating powder or ointment up the nose won't cure Catarrh, neither will tablets, douching or stomach medicines cure. These treatments fail because they are not far reaching enough. They only affect local conditions, but do not remove the cause, which is germ life established deep down in the lungs, bronchial tubes and nasal passages. Ordinary remedies do not reach these remote parts, but Catarrhzone does, for it is breathed through the inhaler into every air cell in the lungs, into every air passage in the head and throat. No matter where the Catarrh is, Catarrhzone will reach it. It kills the germs, heals sore spots, clears the nose and throat instantly. Universally used; pleasant and clean; guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Try Catarrhzone, 25 cents and $1.00. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.
