IN THE CANADIAN COMMONS.

EXCELLENT PROGRESS BEING MADE IN THE FORWARDING OF PUBLIC BUSINESS.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—The house of commons so far, has been in a business mood, and very good progress has been made with public business. To-day was no exception to this.

Mr. Emmerson introduced a bill respecting the Supreme Court of the Order of Foresters and to change its name to the Order of Foresters, which was read a first time.

Mr. Henderson (Halton) introduced a bill to amend the dominion elections act. His aim is to remove the white space at the top and bottom of the ballot so as to prevent the impossibility of improper marking. He also desires to prevent the misuse of the provision by which the party may secure a ballot on swearing as to a mistake in lists, etc., by which his name has been omitted from the voter's list.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, replying to a question said that William Hutcheson, Fireman McClure, M. F. Stinson and J. M. Durley ex-M. P.'s were appointed to positions since 15th March, 1900. In addition to those A. B. Wallace, Halifax; R. L. Drury, Victoria, B. C., defeated candidates at the last election, were appointed to office.

The minister of railways and canals, in reply to Mr. Bennett, stating that the largest cargo of grain received at the port of Montreal last year consisted of 51,000 bushels of wheat and came via the Canadian Atlantic from Parry Sound to Cocteau, and thence to Montreal by boat. The second largest consisted of 45,000 bushels and came from Kingston via the canals.

In reply to Mr. Clark the minister of the interior stated that the number of immigrants who arrived in Canada last year was 62,515. Of these, 21,016 were ticketed through to the United States and 41,499 settled in Canada. Among these 14,215 were from the United States and 7,162 from England and Wales.

In answer to Mr. Kempt, who put a question as to whether there was a 14-foot channel of navigation in the St. Lawrence canals, Hon. A. G. Blair said:

"The form of this question implies that it is doubtful whether we have thorough channel of 14 feet of water in the St. Lawrence canal and lake and river reaches. This would not be and is not a correct statement of the situation. There is and was during the past season of navigation, a channel of 14 feet throughout the entire length of the canal system from Lake Ontario to Montreal that is to say, there is 14 feet of water on the mitre sills of all the locks in the St. Lawrence canals and more than the fourteen feet channel through the intervening river and lake stretches.

On orders of the day, Mr. MacLean (East York) read a statement from Sir William Van Horne, in which the latter took exception to words which Mr. MacLean attributed to him.

Mr. Bennett moved a motion calling for the imposition of an export duty on saw logs. He spoke very briefly and argued not so much for the imposition of an export duty at present as for a regulation requiring that logs cut on Indian reserves in Ontario should be manufactured in Ontario. He pointed out that some years ago 300,000,000 feet of logs cut on Ontario crown lands were annually taken to Michigan mills and manufactured there.

After a few general remarks in which he intimated explanations of the charges against the government would be forthcoming, the premier moved the adjournment of the debate. The debate on the subject will probably be resumed next week.

The house adjourned at 6 o'clock. The postmaster general has given notice of a resolution providing Canada's share in the increased cost of the Pacific cable. The act of 1899 authorized a contribution of 5-18th of an estimated cost of £1,700,000. Tenders called since then bring the cost up to £2,000,000. This sum the British government is willing to advance and parliament will be asked to authorize the government to pay four per cent. per year on Canada's share of 5-18th of the £2,000,000. The additional interest charge is about $16,600 a year on Canada's liability.

The Conservative caucus lasted until after 11 o'clock to-night. The discussion was on the sessional programme and the attitude the party was to take on preferential tariff. It is said that the meeting was not very harmonious. After it was over the whips had nothing to say.

The premier stated to-day that all government legislation would be introduced next week.

FOR THE BOYS. WHICH SHALL IT BE?

Which shall it be, lads? which shall it be? God, or the devil, bond or free? Will you boldly and cheerfully take your stand

With the chosen few, with the noble band Who are steadfast doing all they can For God and the right and fallen man? Or will you sink, debased and blind To herd with the ruck of humankind? God, or the devil, bond or free— Which shall it be, lads? which shall it be?

Which shall it be? The home-life sweet, Gay with the patter of tiny feet; Or the squalid tap room, grimy and grim? The drunkard's curse, or the children's hymn?

Wrecked lives, or the strength that never flags, Peace and plenty, or ruin and rags? Which shall it be, lads? which shall it be?

Which shall it be? Two paths lie here— The right leads upward, the left, ah! where? Others may give you counsel true, But the choice, dear lads, is for you, for you!

And remember now in your boyhood's prime Is the turning-point and the seeding time; The sot's bent back, or the saint's bent knee— Which shall it be, lads? which shall it be?

A PRISONER'S LETTER.

The following letter appeared in The Temperance Breeze. It was written in a Michigan gaol:

"Will you kindly give me a little space to give the 'boy readers' a sermon from life? I was born of honest, respectable parentage, in the mountains of New Jersey. At an early age we removed to a Western city, and at this time laid foundation to what I have become—an inmate of a county gaol, awaiting trial on a charge liable to send me to State prison for fifteen years, by acquiring a taste for pernicious books and papers. Dime novels were my especial delight. As I grew older I acquired the friendship of vicious boys and men, and was familiar with all kinds of vice; though I did not partake of it, I countenanced it until I became so familiar with it that it lost all its hideousness to me. This familiarity led me on step by step, until now I see the felon's cell and the felon's garb at the expiration of a few short weeks. Boys, ponder over this gray-haired father, a delicate, praying mother brought to the verge of an untimely grave by the misdoings of their only and well-beloved son.

"Boys, I implore you, read not the accursed, vicious literature of the day. It will steal away your manhood, your truthfulness, your self-control, and leave you a floating wreck upon the sea of life, like a ship without a rudder or sail, until you will commit some crime and repent when it is too late, as I am doing now, I beg you, boys, by your fathers, your praying mothers and your loving sisters, never let one drop of liquor pass your lips. Think over what I have said and take warning by an example. Take this for a motto: Let cards and liquor alone; be in bed by 9 p. m., and up by 6 a. m., eat regularly, sleep soundly, exercise moderately, pray constantly, and you will never be behind the grates. Respectfully yours,

"Prisoner."

A GOOD TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

Two small boys stopped in front of a saloon, and an old man standing near listened to what they said.

"Let's go in and take a drink," said one of them.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—The steamer Montford, of the Elder-Dempster line, has been chartered by the dominion government to convey the men being enlisted for South African police. The force will sail on March 15 from Halifax. All enlisted in Quebec and Maritime provinces will mobilize at Halifax and all west of that as far as the coast will come to Ottawa. The first detachment is expected here on Tuesday.

"I—I don't think we'd better," said his companion, "my father's terribly opposed to saloons. I don't know what he'd say if he knew I'd been in one, and drank liquor there."

"Just for the fun of the thing, you know," urged his friend; "of course we'd stop with one drink. There couldn't be any harm in that."

"My boys," said the old man, coming up to them, "you don't know what you're talking about. If you go in there and take one drink, you're not sure of stopping there. The chances are you won't for I tell you—and I know what I'm talking about by a bitter experience—there's a fascination about liquor that it takes a strong will to resist after the first taste of it, sometimes. Take the first drink, and the way of the drunkard is open before you. Only those who let liquor entirely alone are safe. I know, for I've been a drunkard a good many years. I expect to be one till I die. I began by taking a drink just as you propose to—for fun—but I didn't stop there, you see. Take the advice of a poor old wreck—and that is, never take the first drink."

"You're right," said the boy who had proposed to visit the saloon. "I thank you for your good advice, sir. I say, Tom, let's promise each other never to take the first drink."

"All right," said Tom, and the boys clasped hands on their pledge.

"That's a good temperance society to belong to," said the old man. "I wish I'd joined one like it when I was a boy."

MADE BLIND BY CIGARETTES.

Here is a news item we clipped from the Chicago Times-Herald of December 19. The awful punishment which has overtaken this foolish boy is no worse than the many other evil effects that followed the vice of cigarette smoking. Nature is a severe judge, and retribution always follows the breaking of her laws. Don't touch the cigarette, boys!

"Middletown, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Fred Norton, a youth of Unadilla, N. Y., is believed to have permanently lost the sight of both eyes as a result of excessive smoking of cigarettes. Eminent specialists who examined the boy when he was suddenly stricken with blindness, and who have since watched his case closely, are firmly convinced that the cigarette habit is responsible for his condition, and have no hope that his sight can be restored. His lungs are also said to be affected. Several of young Norton's companions, alarmed by his plight, have pledged themselves to abstain from cigarettes."

A Pocket Physician

Is something unique. To be had in a Catarrh Inhaler. This wonderful, convenient little instrument is very versatile, it actually kills those nasty colids in the head in half an hour, and relieves sore throat in about five minutes. Patients recovering from pneumonia find Catarrh a valuable aid, as it strengthens and improves the lungs. For the voice nothing is half so good, and great singers, public speakers use Catarrh and say they would not be without it because it prevents hoarseness and renders the voice capable of greater endurance. As for Catarrh, Asthma and Bronchitis, Catarrh alone is the only positive cure for these diseases. Ladies affirm that for sick headache and tired feeling across the eyes nothing is so helpful as Catarrh, which also restores impaired hearing that is caused by Catarrh. Catarrh prevents and is guaranteed to cure all diseases of the respiratory organs, and you can get it from any druggist, large size, $1.00; small size, 25c. A trial sent for 10c. by N. C. THE WORLD OVER.

TOPEKA, Kan. Feb. 21.—A decision favoring the defendant was rendered to-day by Judge McCabe in the court in the case against Mrs. Carrie Nation for smashing the Senate saloon, 476 Kansas Avenue, two week ago. Judge McCabe in dismissing the case, held that, since Mrs. Nation had had no malice toward the proprietors of the place, and had destroyed in abating a public nuisance, she was not guilty of malicious destruction of property. This decision does not affect the cases pending against Mrs. Nation for the Sunday raid for which she is now in the county jail.
