MARITIME PROVINCE NOTES.

Henry Legere's barber shop at Moncton was burglarized last Wednesday night and a lot of barber's materials stolen. Entrance was effected by unlocking the front door, which was found unlocked Thursday morning when Mr Legere's assistant arrived.

Capt. G. C. Morrison, of Economy, has purchased the schooner Nellie Carter from Mark Phinney, of West Bay, and will employ her in the lumber trade between Bay ports and the United States. She is 77 tons register and was built at Lower Mac can in 1894.—Parrsboro Record.

The store and warehouse of J. F. Norton, at Cardigan, N. S., were destroyed by fire about one o'clock Thursday morning. When discovered the fire had obtained such headway that it was impossible to save anything. The building was valued at $3,000; stock, $9,000; total insurance, $7,000. There were four thousand bushels of oats in the warehouse.

Andrew Lottimer, boot and shoe dealer, of Fredericton, is in financial difficulties and endeavoring to effect a compromise with his creditors. He places his liabilities at about $7,500, and assets at $5,700. His creditors include John Kilburn, John Palmer and the Hartt Boot and Shoe Company, of that city; the Shediac Boot and Shoe Company; L. Higgins & Co., of Moncton; J. M. Humphrey & Co., St. John, and a number of Upper Canadian boot and shoe manufacturers. Mr. Lottimer is offering twenty-five cents on the dollar.

William Cadwell, a fireman on the steamship Manchester City, at St. John, took a fit Thursday morning about ten o'clock while standing on the deck of the vessel and fell into the hold. He was badly bruised, besides receiving a severe scalp wound. The ambulance was summoned and took him to the General Public Hospital, where several stitches were put in the wound. Cadwell had just been released from the hospital a day or two. He had been undergoing treatment for fits.

Fire at Broad Cove, N. S., Friday evening destroyed William Post's dwelling. The owner was in town at the time. Everything upstairs was consumed. A defective flue was the cause. No insurance.

Thomas Cochrane, drug clerk at Halifax, and Mrs. Robb, of Amherst, whose husband was drowned at Pugwash two or three years ago, were married at Halifax, Thursday very quietly and have gone on a wedding trip. She is reported to be worth $75,000.

John Teed, the well-known contractor, died at his home at Dorchester, Saturday morning from acute indigestion. He had been ill for some time past. Mr. Teed was in his seventy-second year. He was the youngest son of Mariner and Mrs. Teed, of Westmorland Point, where deceased was born. He was survivor of four brothers; one sister, Mrs. Amasa Dixon, of Oxford, N. S., yet remaining of his father's family. Mr. Teed, when quite young, married Miss Booner, of Sackville, who survives him. Deceased was father of five children, Rev. Mr. Teed, English church clergyman, Southampton, N. B.; Mariner G., barrister, Dorchester; J. Frank, physician, Dorchester; Bedford B., barrister, Sackville, and Mrs. Lucy McGraith, who resides with her parents.

James Mitchell, of Newcastle, Northumberland Co., died Friday, aged 75 years. He was a brother of the late Hon. Peter Mitchell, and was born the year after the great Miramichi fire. Mr. Mitchell was formerly sheriff of Northumberland and one of the best known and most highly respected men on the North Shore. He also held some appointments under the federal government. His funeral took place on Sunday.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS

Mr. Andrew Duffin, Aultsville, Ont. writes:—"I was troubled with Bright's disease of the kidneys for five years. I tried a number of doctors and preparation, but got no relief. My son advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills. I got a box, and, to my surprise, I got relief at once, and am now thoroughly cured." One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

OTTAWA, March 2.—The major general commanding, in his annual report, which has been presented to parliament, suggests that the pay of the private militia may be varied according to his service. For instance, the first year the pay should be 50 cents per day, the second 60 cents and the third 75 cents. He also says that men of good conduct and especially non-commissioned officers, should be encouraged to continue in the service on annual attestations not exceeding six years, in all receiving a gratuity on each extended year's training.

WHEELER'S BOTANIC BITTERS

A reliable and effective medicine for cleansing the blood, stomach and liver. Keeps the eye bright and skin clear. Cures headache, dizziness, constipation, etc. Purely Vegetable, large bottles, only 25 CENTS.

THE VERDICT.

The Oregon was built under too lucky a star to become a permanent ornament to a Chinese reef.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Advices from Indiana are to the effect that the Wabash got tired of hearing about its banks and left them.—New York Mail and Express.

Property valued at $150,000,000 in the United States was destroyed by fire in 1899, and during the present year, if the proportion keeps up, the sum will reach $175,000,000.

Facilities to escape fire on board ship should be as accessible and practicable as the iron ladders and stairways on tenement houses. The laws of all nations should make sea doors compulsory.—New York Journal.

The system of hiring out convicts has been abandoned by Texas, Mississippi and Georgia, and the experiment has been made of employing them on farms owned by the state and devoted exclusively to cotton culture.—San Francisco Chronicle.

French generals have begun to resign. What is the world coming to? General Jamont has quit merely because the secretary of war interfered with his staff. Let Minister Andre keep it up. By doing this he may prove himself a friend of France.

As usual, the American marines were among the first of the "white devils" to be slain when the fighting began near Tien-tsin. The reckless bravery with which the American marine goes forward to be killed is only paralleled by the effectiveness of the work he does and the amount of damage he inflicts upon the enemy.

It is announced that the American silk exhibit at the Paris exposition is to be awarded the gold medal, even over the French display. This is a triumph indeed for American manufacturers and will prove an eye opener to the French, who ridiculed the idea of Americans coming into competition with them, especially in silk.

THE DRESS MODEL.

Next to plaits, tucking and insertion bands, cording is perhaps the most fashionable feature of dress trimming for this summer gowns.

Pretty and novel effects are produced this season with the colored wash braids on suits for country wear, made of linen, pique, drill and duck.

The newest traveling costumes of summer weight cloth are trimmed with lines appliques, edged with a very narrow finish of cluny, or are merely corded.

Toile d'acier, the new open meshed veiling, made up over liberty silk or peau de soie, forms one of the smartest, most attractive and at the same time comfortable of the demidress toiles of the summer.

Cluny laces decorate both summer gowns and fine sheer lingerie. English court modistes and Parisian ateliers have used them prodigally on garments designed for garden parties, fetes, receptions and fashionable water place wear.

Mohair, gypsy cloth, colienne and the English serge that retains its fine color and silky finish, through storm and strongest beach or mountain sunshine, have been the favorite fabrics this season in preparing utility costumes for vacation wear.

Beautiful transparent wool toiles in cream or lily white (especially those with a craped surface) are much used for afternoon teas and garden parties. Velvet or satin ribbon, silk lace or black and white striped or dotted silks are used variously for accessories.

Transparent materials continue to hold a very prominent place among summer "dress" toiles. Costly and beautiful gowns of india muslin, Italian crepe, mousseline brillante, barege, grenadine, etamine, silk, mull, crepe royal, crepe de chine and water-gauze are all greatly in evidence.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Italian blankets are very popular for portieres, couch covers and mantels.

The inexpensive organdies make dainty bedspreads, but must be lined with grass of a solid color.

For a cunning match scratch cut a piece from sandpaper and fasten it to a piece of cardboard and write underneath the legend "Scratch My Back."

The various shades of denim, ornamented with white braid and medallions applied with white silk in fancy stitches, are very popular for sofa pillows.

Corduroy and denim make excellent draperies. The former is durable and fades less than most goods, and the latter comes in excellent shades and is inexpensive.

Huge green melons, oval shaped, in natural sizes and also of tinted velvet are prepared in pairs for uncommon head rests, tied together at the top with ribbons.

Black, embroidered in varying shades of coarse yellow silk with a lavish use of gold thread, makes a royally gorgeous pillow. Wide black ribbon, on which have been sewed rows of narrow yellow ribbon, forms the ruffle that finishes the edge.

IMPERTINENT PERSONALS.

Sir Henry Irving says Shakespeare is a bond between England and America. And Sir Henry is clipping the coupons.—Minneapolis Times.

Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews gets the LL. D. from Brown. A couple of years ago he received the G. B. from the same institution.

If it turns out to be true that Alfred Austin's Making poem was translated into Chinese, there will be a sympathetic reaction in favor of the Boxers.—Boston Globe.

"Bathhouse" Coughlin at Kansas City is quoted as saying he is ready for everything "from soup to finger bowls." This shows the influence of the slanderer's visit to the effete east.

SIBERIA.

The czar of Russia has abolished banishment to Siberia, with all its attendant train of horrors. By the time the world is a century or two older there may be quite a complete system of civilization reigning upon earth.—Baltimore American.

Siberia is no longer to be a penal colony, the synonym of exile and despair. The imperial decree abolishing the former status is not so much a witness to the czar's humanity as it is a tribute to the railroad and the pioneer.—New York Post.

In the Clutch of Consumption.

Don't neglect that persistent hacking cough till you find yourself in the clutch of Consumption. It's an easy matter to stop it now by taking

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

This pleasant remedy heals and soothes the lungs and bronchial tubes, and cures lingering and chronic coughs when other remedies fail.

Mr. W. P. Cann, writing from Morpeth, Ont., says: "I honestly believe I would have died of consumption only for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I have used it for years and consider it has no equal for severe colds and throat troubles."

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

"And let us not be weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."—Galatians 6: 9.

THE SLANDERER.

The man who breaks into my dwelling, or meets me on the public road, and robs me of my property does me injury. He stops me on the way to wealth, strips me of my hard-earned savings, involves me in difficulties, and brings my family to penury and want. But he does me an injury which can be repaired. Industry and economy may again bring me into circumstances of ease and affluence; and the smiles of gratitude may yet play upon the cheeks of my offspring, as they receive the small tokens of parental love.

The man who comes at the midnight hour and fires my dwelling, does me an injury. He burns my roof, my pillow, my raiment, my every shelter from the storm and the tempest. But he does me an injury which can be repaired. The storm may indeed beat upon me, and chilling blasts assail me; but Charity will receive me into her dwelling—give me food to eat and raiment to put on—will kindly assist me in raising a new roof over the ashes of the old; and I shall again sit by my own fireside, and taste the sweets of friendship and of home.

But the man who circulates false reports concerning my character, who exposes every act of my life to disadvantage—who goes first to this, and then to that neighbor, tells them he is very tender of my reputation, enjoins upon them the strictest secrecy, and then fills their ears with hearsays and rumors, and what is worse, leaves them to dwell upon the hints and suggestions of his own busy imagination—the man who in this way "filches from me my good name," does me an injury which neither industry, nor charity, nor time itself can repair. He has told his tale of slander to an uncharitable world. Some receive it as truth that the half was not told them; and others dress what they have heard in the highest coloring, add to it the foul calumny of their own invention, and proclaim it in the corners of the streets and upon the house tops. Should I prove myself innocent and attempt to meet the scandal with contradiction, the story of my disgrace outstrips me, or my solicitude to contradict it excites suspicion of guilt. Should the slanderer confess his crime, the blot is made, and his tears of repentance cannot wash it out. I might as well recall the winds or quench the stars, as recall the tale of infamy, or wipe the foul stain from my character.

I attach a high value to the esteem and confidence of my fellow men. I cannot but wish that, while I live among them, I may hold a place in their affections, and be treated with the respect which is due to my station. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches," or than "precious ointment." 'Tis the immediate jewel of the soul, The purest treasure mortal times afford. Give me this, and I can face the frowns of fortune—can be pointed at the child of poverty, and still know what it is to be happy. Take this away, and you strike a dagger into my soul—you render life itself a burden. The frowns of a world, the finger of scorn, and the hiss of contempt, are more than man can endure.

Yet, dear as reputation is, "and in my soul's just estimation prized above all price," it is not too dear, it is not too sacred, for the slanderer to tarnish and destroy. He can take from me the confidence of my employers, the respect of my friends—can blast my reputation with his pestilential breath, and feel not a pang of remorse. He glories in nothing so much as in the slaughter of character. He would blight the fairest flower in the garden.

McLEAN SETTLEMENT ITEMS.

As I believe our correspondent has deserted us for some time, I will try and take her place at present.

An epidemic of la grippe has given us a call. I am glad to say we are all recovering again.

A number of our friends had a very pleasant time at Mrs. J. McLeans party. A very large number attended. Among some of the young ladies were Miss E. Coates, of Coatesville, Miss Jones, of Moncton, Miss Mamie, and a number of others.

Mr. Chas. McLean has gone to the U. S. to seek his fortune.

Mrs. Flora McLean is fairly well this winter. Miss Maudie is still with us, and they say she will spend her future life just where she is.

Mr. E. Sherwood passed through our town last week.

Miss Jones is visiting friends here.

Miss Laura and Mr. Fred McLean are much missed by all our young folks. Hope summer will bring them back to us again.

den of innocence, demolish the loftiest temple of human purity, and place his broad stamp of infamy on the holiest servant of the living God.

The slanderer has not a single pretext or excuse to palliate his offence. A desire of gain may urge some to the commission of crime. The incendiary and the assassin may be excited by this base passion to perpetrate their deeds of darkness and of death. But the man who attacks me with slander has no hope of personal good, and if he robs me of character, he "Robs me of that which not enriches him, But makes me poor indeed." He gratifies the malice of his heart, adds one more to the family of wretchedness and woe, and enjoys a secret pleasure—yea, even triumphs, as he reflects on the infamous achievement.

How base, how contemptible, is the character of the slanderer! However various their motives, or diversified the means which they take to accomplish their object, they are all the enemies of men. "Some may perpetrate this iniquity with designs directly malicious; some, from a busy, meddling disposition, always unsatisfied unless when interfering with the concerns of others; and some, from a wish to be thought extensively acquainted with private history. But they are all characterized in scripture by the significant names of evil-speakers, busy-bodies and tale-bearers, and are considered there, and everywhere else, as the disturbers and pests of society."

What mischief may not be occasioned by the tongue of slander? What character is proof against its poison? How are individuals, families and neighborhoods affected by its malignity! Better dwell amid the infections of an hospital, than move in an atmosphere contaminated by the breath of slander. Better meet an enemy in the field of battle, or fall into the hands of the ruthless savage, than be overtaken by this "pestilence which walketh in darkness."

What does the slanderer think of himself? Does he hope to be respected by men or approved of God? Let him ask his conscience; and if that is not already "seared as with a hot iron," it will tell him that the smiles, the flattery and the politeness which he put on in the presence of those he slanders, are thinner than gauze. His real character is discerned by men, and his whole heart is naked to the eye of Omniscience. Does he think that his is a small crime, and that he shall go unpunished? If there is a God in Heaven—if he has said, "speak not evil one of another," "thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor," most assuredly the slanderer will not go unpunished—verily he will have his reward. If there is a God in heaven—if he has said, that "for every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment," may I, and may you, dear reader, be saved from the sentence which awaits that man, whose tongue is the tongue of Slander.

What Dyes give grand results each time, Whenever used in any climate? The Diamond Dyes!

What Dyes bring profit, pleasure, peace, And by their work a great increase? The Diamond Dyes!

What Dyes should all Canadians try? Hark! listen to that mighty cry— The Diamond Dyes!

A WIDESPREAD TROUBLE IN SPRING TIME.

Paine's Celery Compound The Only Remedy That Cures and Saves Life.

One of the most prevalent and fatal of troubles at this season is Kidney disease. It comes on as silently as a cat steals upon its prey, and too often wrecks life before the victims are fully aware of their danger.

Do not disregard the early symptoms of Kidney disease, some of which are backache, constipation, indigestion with headache, and a constant call to make water which has abundant sediment of a brickly color.

The prompt and honest use of Paine's Celery Compound will quickly banish every symptom of disordered Kidneys. The great medicine has cured and given a new life to thousands in the past; it will do the same good work for all sufferers to-day.

Mr. M. Maher, Hairdresser, St. John's, Nfld., says:

"I suffered terribly for two years from Kidney trouble and Dyspepsia. I was completely rundown and could not eat or sleep. One of the ablest city doctors attended me, but no good results followed his work. Happily, a friend advised me to use Paine's Celery Compound. I procured a supply, and the first dose relieved me. I have used eight bottles, and now sleep well, appetite is good, and I am as strong as ever before. I recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all."

DOMINION NEWS.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Feb. 28.—Thos. H. Young, chief of the Ontario police force at Niagara Falls, died early this morning after two years' illness. He was identified with many important cases. He was the man who gathered the evidence which convicted Birchell, who was hanged for the murder of Benwell some years ago.

PETERBORO, Ont., Feb. 28.—William McPherson appeared before the magistrate's court yesterday to answer the charge of "offering indignity to a dead body" and of "grave robbing." The crown, however, withdrew the latter charge, and after hearing witnesses and lengthy argument by counsel Magistrate Dumble reserved judgment. The evidence of Caretaker Brown of the Catholic cemetery showed that on re-opening the grave of the late Mrs. Dennis Sheehan on Wednesday the coffin was found to contain only the clothes she had been buried in.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—The Dominion government, it is understood, will take no action in regard to the Victorian memorial fund organized in London. A minister of the crown stated to-day that no doubt Canada would follow London's lead in regard to a memorial, but the form the movement would take would likely be that of public subscriptions through newspapers, etc. It is understood the purpose of the organization effected in London is to prevent unauthorized collections. It is not considered there is danger of fraud in collections in Canada, these being made by newspapers and reputable organizations. It is presumed a central organization for receiving funds may be organized in Canada, but it will not be at the instance of the government.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—J. T. Flett, Hamilton, organizer of the American Federated Trades and Labor Councils, is in the city in connection with the arrangement for the labor deputation which is to wait on the government on Monday to urge an amendment to the criminal code provision which has the effect of prohibiting picketing by striking unionists.

MONTREAL, Feb. 28.—E. G. Russell, of the Intercolonial, was in the city to-day on his return from Ottawa, where he had a conference with Hon. Mr. Blair in company with Mr. Pottinger. Mr. Russell states that he has not decided on any particular line of action yet and will first make a tour of inspection through the Maritime Provinces, commencing on Saturday.

GREENWOOD, B. C., March 2.—The associated boards of trade of Eastern British Columbia met in convention here yesterday. C. S. Gilloway, of Greenwood, was elected president. The chief discussion took place over a strong resolution in favor of the open door policy as to railways, insisting on the right of southern British Columbia to an improved railway communication and advocating the granting of charters of lines proposing to build from the United States boundary, with this end in view. The resolution was very warmly debated, but finally carried with only four dissenting votes.
