FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale a choice lot of cut wood, by the cord, delivered. G. W. ROBERTSON.

WANTED.—Two good girls. Would like one who can cook, one for general house work. Good wages. Apply to M. Van Buskirk, Eureka Hotel, Harcourt.

NOTICE.—The subscriber has opened at Rexton a dress-making shop in the house lately occupied by Mrs. A. McNairn and is prepared to attend to all orders promptly. My prices are very moderate and I would be pleased to secure an equal share of the patronage of the people of Rexton and vicinity.—MISS MARGARET CARRUTHERS.

PAINT! PAINT! PAINT!—Having recently opened a Carriage, repair and paint shop in Rexton, I am now prepared to do all kinds of carriage work at the shortest notice and the lowest prices. I also intend to do house painting in any part of the county. Any person wishing good first class painting at prices to suit the times would do well to call on or write I. W. MITCHELL, Rexton, Kent Co., N. B.

"HAZEL KIRKE."—The Richibucto Amateur Dramatic Club produced in the Public Hall at Rexton on Monday night the famous drama "Hazel Kirke," and although the weather was very disagreeable, having rained the greater part of the evening, quite a large audience were in attendance. The play throughout was well carried out and the best of order prevailed. The characters were well represented and each and every one played his or her part as though they were professionals and not amateurs. The receipts, although not nearly as large as at Richibucto, were quite satisfactory and we trust that if ever the opportunity arises again to visit Rexton the club may be greeted with a full house. The club wishes through these columns to thank all those who in any way assisted them during the evening, and also those who were kind enough to loan furniture or other articles which they desired. We hope that in the near future we may have the opportunity of listening to them.

DEATH AT KOUCHIBOUQUAC.—The death of Mr. Archibald Patterson occurred at Kouchibouguac April 25th. He had previously been in the employ of Mr. George Jardine, until May, 1900, when he was taken sick and for some time was confined to his room. He improved a little toward the latter part of the summer, but was never able to work. The first of March he took La grippe, from which he never rallied, growing continually weaker until the 25th of April, when he passed away quietly without a struggle. Mr. Patterson was 61 years of age and was a son of James and Jennet Patterson who came to this country from Dumfriesshire, Scotland, in the year 1832. His mother, who survives him, is 100 years old and quite well at present. He leaves a wife, two sons, and two daughters. His daughters being married in Boston, U. S. A., were unable to be present at the funeral, which was very largely attended. The services both at the house and grave, were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Fraser, of Rexton. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing wife and family.

Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe on his gentle breast;
Sweetly when work is over,
There can the weary rest,
We mourn not for thee our loved one,
As those who are sore oppressed,
We trust in the Blessed Promise,
"He giveth the weary rest."

DEATH AT COCAGNE.

MRS. HUGH DYSART PASSES AWAY.

COCAGNE, N. B., May 6, 1901.—On Saturday, the 4th inst., Mrs. Marcella Dysart, relict of Hugh Dysart of this place passed away at the home of her son, Albert J. For years past she was a victim of asthma, but until a short time ago she enjoyed a degree of health that enabled her to attend to such light duties as fall pleasantly to the care of all those who are come into the deep autumn of life.

Deceased was born at Grand Digue sixty four years ago. Her maiden name was Marcella Connors. There were six children in the family,—five daughters, deceased, Mrs. Mary A. McInnes, Mrs. Margaret McDonald, Mrs. Kathrine Dagle, and Mrs. George Burke, and one son the late John Connors. Her parents were married in Ireland and with their first child John, a baby of two years, they came to New Brunswick near the close of the first quarter of the last century.

In her twenty-eighth year she married Hugh Dysart. In December 1894 she was left a widow by the sudden death of her husband. During the long interval between her marriage and her widowhood, a period of over thirty-two years, she was widely known throughout Kent and the adjoining counties in her capacity as land lady of the Dysart Hotel, a capacity for which her qualities of patience and hospitality nicely fitted her, and which have secured her a warm place in the hearts of her large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The passing away of a personage of ripe age and of wide acquaintance naturally tends to bring to mind facts of local interest that in the ordinary tenor of events are forgotten. In the earlier days, when railroads were a luxury, and before Kent County had received its quota of branch lines, the only public conveyance between Miramichi and Shediac, a distance of eighty or ninety miles, was the mail-stage coach. Later a tri-weekly coach ran between Richibucto and Shediac. These great lumbering vehicles were always crowded, and the weary horses and tired travellers never failed to rest at the Dysart House, where strength was regathered and cheerfulness restored.

In these days also as far as the North Shore merchants and mill owners were concerned, the terminal of the I. C. R. from Saint John was Shediac. From this point a pretty considerable bulk of the necessary supplies of food and machinery was portaged to the numerous sites of the different industries that flourished along the coast. Each concern made its periodical trips and the teams, often numbering as many as fifteen or twenty, travelled in company. It is not exaggeration to say that the traffic over the "post road" in those days was one unbroken stream.

And the great "mid way station" on this busy route was the Dysart House. It was so conveniently situated that every teamster made it a "resting and feeding place." It was open day and night to rich and poor alike, and many a weary man, drenched with rain or benumbed with cold, has blessed the late landlord and his lady who administered to their needs and comfort.

But over all these scenes time has wrought a change. The "Portage horse" has given place to the "iron horse," but there are not a few persons living to-day throughout the county, who witnessed these early methods of transportation, and there are not a few who will learn with deep regret of the death of this woman who was held in high esteem by all. Her life was truly christian both in word and example, and her death robs the community of one of the oldest and in some ways most remarkable inhabitants, and bereaves her family of a loved and loving mother.

BUFFALO, May 11.—The carpenters who struck at the exposition grounds yesterday, refusing to work on "unfair" lumber, which was being used in the construction of a booth in the manufacturers and liberal arts building for an exhibitor, and those who went out in sympathy, returned to work this morning, the objectionable lumber having been removed from the grounds.

As a Food For the Skin

Powders may cover up the disfiguring eruptions, but the feet never cure them, and are positively injurious, because they clog up the pores of the skin. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a food for the skin. It is readily absorbed, and thoroughly cures each and every skin disease, making the skin smooth, soft and clear. No woman's toilet is complete without Dr. Chase's Ointment, for, besides being the most perfect skin beautifier obtainable, it can be used in a score of different ways. It absolutely cures eczema, salt rheum and the itching to which women are especially subject. When the feet are sore and chafed with walking an application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the smarting and allays the inflammation in a surprisingly short time. Then for burns, scalds and every sort of chafing, irritation or eruption of the skin, Dr. Chase's Ointment affords a safe and certain cure. It has come to be indispensable in scores of thousands of homes; 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

—Lobsters have struck the coast and some very good hauls have been taken. They are a fair size and are sold for 8 and 10cts each on the streets.

—We would remind our correspondents that any items of news from any part of the county will be gladly accepted, and will be published as soon as received.

—The by-road Commissioner of District No. 3, Richibucto, having removed from the Parish, the Councillors have appointed Mr. Thomas Dickinson to fill the position.

—The tug Calluna towed three schooners into port Tuesday evening, among them being Mr. D. McAlmon's new schooner the A. E. Brown, with a cargo of coal for Mr. G. W. Robertson.

—We have in stock a full line of mixed paints, white lead, paint oils, turpentine, varnishes, shellac, japan, kalsomine, whitening, putty, glass, sheet lead, zinc, and sheathing paper.—J. & W. BRAIT.

—The R. A. D. Club wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. McLeamy, of the Commercial Hotel, Rexton, for their kindness and hospitality on Monday evening, and also for the excellent supper provided.

—Mr. A. E. O'Leary returned home on Saturday with one of P. E. Islands fine horses. Mr. O'Leary went to the Island with the intention of purchasing a farm horse, and we think he has succeeded if one can judge by appearances.

—The lamps which were ordered some time ago for the town have arrived and were placed on the posts on Tuesday. They give a fine bright light and will be a great benefit to the town. There should be three or four more to have the town properly lighted.

—Chatham World, Saturday: Rev. James Wheeler is to be inducted by the Presbytery of Miramichi into the pastoral charge of Harcourt on Tuesday; Rev. D. Henderson, Rev. J. M. McLean, Rev. D. Fraser and Rev. W. W. Townsend to conduct the services.

—Attention is again called to those in arrears to THE REVIEW that more stringent means than heretofore will have to be adopted if their accounts are not settled. As we have said before we do not wish to incur any expense, but we find that we cannot do otherwise.

—Messrs. J. & T. Jardine's bark Sagona, Capt. Thompson, arrived outside the harbor on Tuesday and it is expected will be towed into port as soon as the tides will permit. She has a cargo of salt, and will discharge some of it at Richibucto. This is the first square-rigged vessel to arrive.

—The subscriber will in future run the business formerly carried on by the late John Taylor and has in stock a full line of groceries and confectionery of all kinds. He has just put a handsome soda fountain in the store where cool refreshing drinks can be had at any time. He has a splendid assortment of Candies and also a fine stock of cigars.—DAVID TAYLOR, Rexton.

—Two runaways occurred this week. On Sunday afternoon while Mrs. Murray, wife of Conductor Murray, and her little daughter Maggie were driving to St. Louis their horse took fright and ran away, but was caught before it got very far. No damage was done and luckily no one was hurt. On Monday morning Mr. A. E. O'Leary's new horse while standing on the road hitched to a box cart near his farm about two miles from town started and ran for home. The wheels of the box cart came off and it was slightly damaged. The horse which was captured near town escaped unhurt.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY FROM RICHIBUCTO DIVISION.

Richibucto, N. B. May 13th, 1901.

MR. JOHN P. BELL AND FAMILY,
Dear Friends:—The knowledge that the grim reaper, Death, has visited your home during the past week, cast a feeling of sadness over the community, and especially among the brethren and sisters of Richibucto Division of which the deceased was a faithful member.

By this death a parent has lost a beloved daughter, a loving sister has been laid to rest, a Christian temperance worker is lost to our division, and a very highly esteemed young lady is lost to the town. "Not our will but thine oh Lord, be done." "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform." Why such a useful person should be taken in the midst of her usefulness is only known to the All-wise Ruler.

She has gone to swell the ranks of the redeemed of the Lord, her warfare is over, she has entered into her reward, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Those who are left to mourn should not grieve as those without hope, therefore, dear friends, sorrow not for her who has gone, but rather rejoice in the knowledge that she has been called to share in the glories of our Saviour, in the perfect home of eternal love; rejoice in her gain even while grieving over your own loss. "Lean gently on Jesus," let your sorrow find vent on the bosom of the Lamb, look continually to Him for help and for sympathy and comfort will come down.

We have been delegated a committee to express to you the heartfelt sympathy of the division collectively, but believe us, that collective sympathy is only an outward expression of an inward individual sympathy that is going out from your friends to each member of your bereaved family.

Accept our sympathy, and our best message is, in your grief and sorrow look to the gentle, loving, sympathetic Saviour, and let your hearts be at peace.

Yours in mutual sorrow,
REV. A. D. McLEOD, Chap.,
A. E. PEARSON, W. P.,

A Montreal Grocer in Trouble

With his Back and Kidneys, but at last found relief in Doan's Pills.

Mr. P. Guillemette, under date of Jan. 28th, 1901, writes:

Dear Sirs,—For ten years I suffered from pains across my back, both sides and between my shoulders. In fact at times I was doubled up with pain, and my urine was highly colored. I saw Doan's Pills advertised, so procured four boxes and must say they have effected a complete cure. I owe my present good health to Doan's Pills and cannot recommend them too highly to any and all suffering from backache and kidney troubles.
