McKEE'S MILLS AND VICINITY. ber. Aug. 5.—The farmers of this vicinity are nearly through with their hay. Some are complaining of a small crop, but in general it is better than last year. The grain needs rain very badly.

The Baptists held their annual convention here last Sunday and was very largely attended. The sessions were led by Rev. Messrs. Byron and Hurst. The programme was well rendered, the members of the Buctouche Methodist choir giving some excellent music and singing. All agreed that it was the best convention ever held here.

Rev. Mr. Hurst who was visiting friends here left on Thursday to spend a few days with some of his church people at the shore and post road. He is trying to make arrangements to join circuits.

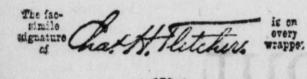

We have quite a number of visitors here just now. Most all the young people have returned from the U.S. The past week we had several visitors from Buctouche, among them being Miss Alva Wry, Miss Janie Ward and Mr. George

Mr. Charles Hicks has a contract at the Post road near John Ward's. He has not completed it yet.

NEW BRUNSWICK BOYS SUCCESS-FUL IN NEW YORK.

The St. John Freeman says:- "A prominent New York journalist, Mr. H. A. O'Leary, and his mother, of New York, were in St. John a few days last week, en route to their old home at Buctouche, to spend their summer vacation.

Mr. O'Leary, as news editor of the New York "Press" enjoys a very important and lucrative position. He is a trained journalist and was for many years connected with the Moncton Transcript. To many of our New Brunswick boys the journalistic field in New York city has proved a strong attraction, and that they are preminently able to cope with its tremendous possibilities, is evidenced in the large number of them who figure in the most advanced stage of journalism in that vast

"Among the number who are well known in St. John are: John Boden, Sr., managing éditor New York Press; John Boden jr., sporting editor of same paper and who is said to be doing the best work in the country; Oscar Watson, assistant sporting editor of the Press who is visiting his home at present; Ernest McCready, editoral staff of New York Telegraph; Mr. McInerney, on the Evening World; James Dever, New York Sun; T. Dieuade, New York Evening Sun; and John Mahony, Associated Press.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

St. Johns N. F., August 5. - The Norwegian steamer Vera, which struck on the rocks near Renews Friday night last, broke apart last night forward of her engines. Her hull is now in two pieces and her bottom destroyed by the rocks. The vessel is lifted considerably, the decks being on a level with the water. All her moveable gear has been loaded into two schooners which were despatched from here. The weather continues fine

Salvage operations on the stemship Asize, which went on the rock nine miles west of Cape Race, about the same time was resumed at day-break this morning. A large four masted liner came near running ashore Saturday.

-Mr. David Clark, of Bass River, was in town last week. Mr. Clark has just returned from Florida, where he has been for the past sixteen years. In conversation with a REVIEW representative Mr. Clark said he was glad to get back to his native country for a rest, as it is not very pleasant working all the year around with the thermometer registering as high as 80 and 85 in the shade. Mr. Clark says that there is plenty of work and good wages in that part of the country but it costs considerable to live. He says he has seen potatoes as high as $1.20 per bushel, and other vegetables accordingly. He says there are several Richibucto people in that country who are doing well, among them being William and Bert Frecker, sons of the late Thomas Frecker, and others. Mr. Clark intends returning about Nov-
