MONTREAL, June 6. - The Star's London cable says: Much surprise is expressed among Anglo-Canadians at the announcement of the war office that the imperial government declined with thanks the offer from the dominion government to furnish another cavalry corps for service in South Africa, holding that, at the present stage of the war and with the large number of troops now in the field, it was hardly necessary to ask Canada to furnish another contingent. Only last night, Hon. Mr. Broderick, secretary of war, said Lord Kitchener had asked last January that, if possible, the colonies should be induced to supply more contingents, because the colonists had done such excellent service. #### Cases of Queer Revenge.

In England, where men have more time for everything, including revenge, some queer methods of playing even have come into the courts.

Albert Bewdley of Leeds had a dog that howled at night. A naturalist next door did not like it, but had no legal recourse.

One day ants of the minute red variety began to overrun Bewdley's house. Nothing that could be done headed them off. They grew worse and worse. He had made up his mind to break his lease and move when one night he heard a noise in his dining room. Slipping down, he found the naturalist emptying a bag of ants on the floor.

In court the naturalist paid damages, but he did it smilingly.

> After one or two assault cases in court Brant moved. Rowley bought out the next door neighbor and followed with piano and cornet. Brant went to law, but found he could do nothing. Failing, he took a detached house. Then Rowley hired brass bands and organs and assailed him. This was actionable, and Rowley paid £1,000 for his revenge.

The Golfer's Pun.

At a recent auction sale one of the paintings had for a subject a gayly attired golf girl making a long drive. The bidding on this opened very brisk-$60, $65, $70 and finally $72.

"Fore!" shouted some one in the With the exception of the golfer in the front row, who immediately "ducked," the joke passed unnoticed.

"Four," repeated the auctioneer. "Do I hear five?"

He did not hear "five," and a cold sweat broke out on the brow of the last bidder as now, for the first time, the possibility of having to buy that picture occurred to him. Seventy-four dollars for making a pun! He made a solemn vow then and there that he would never attempt another as with a sickly grin he thought of unpaid bills. The attendant was standing at his elbow; the auctioneer had raised his hammer. "One-two-th"-"Five!"

The ordeal was past. The auction proceeded, with the crowd unaware that the punster had received proper punishment.

For the benefit of those who do not play golf a diagram of the pun is furby the player when about to drive.

Babies In Greenland.

The bed of the baby Eskimo is not always one of eider down. There are times of famine now and then when the condition of the ice makes hunting impossible, and old and young starve to death. Cases have been known on both shores of Baffin bay where ba bies have been eaten by starving adults, but infanticide in Greenland is unknown because of a belief that the spirit of a murdered infant turns into an evil spirit called Angiak that forever haunts the entire village and brings endless misery and distress.

SKULL CUT OPEN.

ATTEMPT TO RESTORE INTELLIGENCE TO A CONGENITAL IDIOT SEEMS LIKELY TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

NEW YORK, June 6.—An operation of lineal craniotomy, said to be only the tenth of its kind, was performed yesterday by Dr. Gottlieb Sternberg on thirteen-year-old Isidor Levine, of 13 St Mark's Place, who since his birth has been simple minded, because of congential microcephalis, or abnormal smallness of the skull.

The left side of the boys skull was so small that it pressed on his brain. Dr Sternberg said last night that he cut out : piece of the skull nearly six inches long and about an inch wide, and then he and the physicians helping him sewed the scalp over the gap.

"The skin over the skull will grow hard enough to keep the brain in at tha point," said Dr. Sternberg, and I think that the operation will be perfectly successful, although it will be some time be fore that can be determined. So far as can find out, only nine similar operation. for this particular disease have ever been performed. Two were successful. The boy's brain is perfectly normal, and he ought to get along well now."

'The operation is what is known in urgery as Lannelogue's operation, as s so designated from the name of th French physician who first practiced it.

Several hours after the conclusion the operation upon the boy the patient' condition was prounced most hopeful, at he lad's physicians even thought the nad seen evidence of a decided awakening f his semi-dormant intelligence.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS. (Chicago News.)

The late husband catches the early morning lecture.

When ignorance wins, intelbigence drops away below par.

Deeds show what a man is; words show what he should be.

The unsuccessful dramatest finds his task all work and no play.

In case of fire if the burning articles are at once splashed with a solution of salt and nitrate of ammonia an incombustible coating is formed. This is a preparation which can be made at home at a trifling cost and should be kept on hand. Dissolve 20 pounds of common salt and 10 pounds of nitrate of ammonia in 7 gallons of water. Pour this into quart bottles of thin glass, and fire grenades are at hand ready for use. These bottles must be tightly corked and sealed to prevent evaporation, and in case of fire they must be thrown near the flames so as to break and liberate the gas contained. At least two dozen of these bottles should be ready for an emergency. In this connection it is well to remember that water on burning oil scatters the flame, but that flour will extinguish it. Salt thrown upon a fire if the chimney is burning will help to deaden the blaze.

If a fire once gets under headway, a covering becomes a necessity. A silk handkerchief moistened and wrapped about the mouth and nostrils prevents suffocation from smoke. Failing this, a piece of wet flannel will answer.

Should smoke fill the room, remember that it goes first to the top of the room and then to the floor. Wrap a blanket or woolen garment about you, with the wet cloth over your face, drop on your hands and knees and crawl to the window.

Bear in mind that there is no more danger in getting down from a three story window than from the first floor if you keep a firm hold of the rope or ladder. Do not slide, but go hand over hand.

One of Sothern's Jokes.

That inveterate joker, Sothern the actor, had made an appointment with Toole, the comedian, to dine at a well known London restaurant. The hour of meeting was fixed and Sothern arfived some few minutes before the appointed time. An elderly gentleman was dining at a table at some little distance from that prepared for the two actors. He was reading a newspaper which he had comfortably arranged before him as he was eating his dinner. Sothern walked up to him and striking him a smart blow between the shoulders said:

"Hello, old fellow! Who would have thought of seeing you here? I thought you never"- The assaulted diner turned around angrily, when Sothern exclaimed: "I beg you a thousand pardons, sir. I thought you were an old friend of mine-a family man whom I never expected to see here. I hope you will pardon me."

The old gentleman growled a reply, and Sothern returned to his table, where he was presently joined by Toole, to whom he said:

"See that old boy? I'll bet you half a crown you daren't go and give him a slap on the back and pretend you have mistaken him for a friend." "Done!" said Toole, and done it was

be imagined.

"Have you ever noticed," asked a Germantown veterinarian the other day, "that every horse left standing by a curbstone for any length of time invariably turns around so as to place his fore feet on the sidewalk? He always does it if the road on which he is standing slopes the least bit in either direction. This shows that the horse has a great deal of plain, common sense. He will not allow himself to be worn out where it is not necessary. If people only had his wisdom, there would be a great deal less sickness in the world than there is at present. When a thoughtless driver leaves his horse standing on a slope or at an angle of the street, all the animal's weight is thrown upon one side, causing strain, and if left long enough painful exhaustion. Twenty minutes of such an ordeal will fatigue a horse more than a whole day's travel. But when he is able to plan, his fore feet on the curbstone it gives him a better plant and adjusts his weight more equably. Many of the muscular ailments from which horses suffer are brought upon them by being continually obliged to stand by the gutter side on streets which slope decidedly. A good driver will always seek to rest his horse on a level when

Arizona Forests. Arizona is supposed to be almost an unbroken desert, but in reality it has the largest unbroken pine forest in the United States, covering an area of over 8,000 square miles. This timber is usually found at an altitude of between 5,500 and 7,500 feet. The total quantity of pine timber fit for sawing purposes within the boundaries of the territory amounts to 10,000,000,000 feet, which can supply the needs of a populous state for more than a century.

Highest Cross In the World. The highest cross in the world is said to be that which caps the loftiest peak of the Harz mountains. The cross is in reality a tower, and it commands a magnificent view of the country around. The height of the tower is 120 feet, and it stands on a mountain 1,731 feet above the sea level. A stair of 200 steps leads to the top of the cross, but there is an elevator of which people may avail themselves who for any reason wish to avoid the long climb.

PITIFUL CASE OF A LITTLE GIRL.

Child at the Age of Two a Crippled Victim of Disease.

Edna Rathburn. of Hampstead, N. B., fell and broke two ribs-Injured the Kidneys and Diabetes developed-Dodd's Kidney Pills in caring Kidneys straightened injured Spine.

HAMPSTEAD, N. B., June 10, (Special). Little Edna Rathburn of this place has had a sad experience for a child so young. She is now nearly eleven years old. Eight of her few short years have been passed under the saddest cloud possible in

At the age of two the child met with an accident which left her with two ribs broken, split off at the backbone. Though they were set and healed her little body did not straighten. For eight years she could hardly walk, being almost doubled up. The accident affected her Kidneys and Diabetes set in. Diabetes is a particularly dangerous form of Kidney trouble, in this case particularly severe by nature of the injuries to the spine.

The family doctor was, of course, consulted. He diagnosed her case correctly but couldn't cure it. She was sent to the Public Hospital at St John, in the hopes that the greater skill and facilities there would avail. They could do nothing for her. The authorities advised the mother to take the child home to nurse her and give her good care while she lived, which would not be very long.

The suffering of the little one was heartrending to the mother and friends She cried with pain night and day. The mother grew desperate and determined she would find a cure for her child if it took every cent she possessed.

She saw Dodd's Kidney Pills advertised. and immediately purchased some. From the first they were beneficial. The little girl commenced to get better. Every day saw an improvement. Dodd's Kidney Pills were doing the work. Six boxes in all were used and once more Diabetes was Not only that but with the return of health the spine commenced to straighten. The little girl is now almost physically perfect. Says the grateful mother in her own words:

"There is nothing to be compared to Dedd's Kidney Pills. We thank God we ver heard of them. Edna is now full of color, runs and plays about as smart as a whip, where once she was a puny little thing as pale as a ghost."

COUGHING ALL NIGHT.

It's this night coughing that breaks us down, keeping us awake most of the time, and annoying everybody in the house. Lots of people don't begin to cough until they go to bed. It gets to be so that retiring for the night is an empty form, for they caunot rest.

Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam makes life worth living to some people by its soothing effect on the throat. The "tickling sensation" promptly disappears when the use of the Balsam is begun, and the irritation goes with it. This medicine for cough hasn't a disagreeable thing about it, and it does efficient service in breaking up coughs of long standing. It is prepared from barks and roots and gums of trees, and is a true specific for throat

Handling coughs is a science that every one should learn. Not knowing how to treat them has cost many fortunes and many lives. In Adamson's Balsam there are many elements which not only heal inflammation, but which protect the inflamed parts from further irritation. The result of this is that the tendency to cough does not manifest itself, and you a e surprised at it. Afterwarl you would not be without Adamson's Balsam at hand. This remedy can be tested. 25 cents at any druggists.
