A POEM THAT PLEASSED THE QUEEN.

She Noddit to Me was a little poem, published about sixteen years ago, in the Aberdeen Journal. This poem pleased the Queen so much that she ordered a copy of the northern paper to be sent to her regularly. The poem is as follows:

I'm but an auld body
Livin' up in Dee side,
In a two-room'd bit hoosie
Wi' a toofa' beside.
Wi' my coo and my grumpy
I'm as happy's a bee.
But I'm far proodder noo
Since she noddit to me.

I'm nae sae far past wi't—
I'm gie trig and hail—
Can plant twa-three tawties,
An' look after my kail;
And when our Queen passes
I'm oot to see,
Gin by lack she might notice,
And nod oot to me!

But I've aye been unlucky,
And the blinds were aye doon,
Till last week the time
O' her vesit cam' roon':
I waded my bit apron
As brisk's I could dae,
An' the Queen lauch'd fu kindly—
An' noddit to me!

My son sleeps in Egypt—
It's nae eese to freit—
An' yet when I think o't
I'm sair like to greet.
She may feel for my sorrow—
She's a mither ye see—
An' maybe she kent o't
When she noddit to me!

MARITIME PROVINCE NOTES.

The marriage of Mr. John R. McLeod, barrister at Halifax, and Miss Eva Milliken, daughter of Mrs. James P. Fairbanks, took place last Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Fowler, assisted by Rev. David Wright, of Springhill. The couple received many beautiful gifts. From members of the Legislature a magnificent oak sideboard and from the staff of the Queen Hotel a handsome Davenport. Notable among the gifts was a large oak cabinet of silverware.

Annie Gertrude Wallace, aged 21, of Lawrence town, Annapolis, N. S., has had Joshua P. Atwood, of Gloucester, Mass., aged 70, arrested on a charge of polygamy. She asserts that last July at Lawrence town she went through a marriage ceremony with Atwood. After the ceremony they started for Gloucester, where Atwood lived. After they arrived in Gloucester the girl found that Atwood had been married twice before, and that wife No. 2 was still alive, but had not been living with her husband for fifteen years.

Two timber berths on Little Tracadie River, applied for by C. Robinson, were sold at the Crown Land office, Fredericton, last week. One nine and a half mile lot was bid in by Sumner & Co. at $63 per mile. The other, four and a half miles, was knocked down to J. D. Phinney at $60.50 per mile.

Transcript says: C. A. Steeves is gazetted sitting police magistrate in place of Harvey Atkinson, resigned. Thomas Cochrane and C. A. Steeves are appointed justices of the peace.

A German immigrant named Henry Lauer, who arrived at St. John recently on the Lake Champlain, tells a story of deceit and robbery, in which he is the victim, and a supposed friend the culprit. During the journey to Canada, Lauer became on intimate terms with a fellow passenger known only as "Dick," but when the Champlain touched at Halifax the worthy "Dick" vanished, bearing with him Lauer's money, amounting, he claims, to $5,000.

Moncton Transcript: Mr. Donald McKinnon, one of Moncton's oldest citizens, passed away at his residence, Upper Robinson street, last Wednesday after a month's illness, at the advanced age of 81 years. Deceased was born in Prince Edward Island and came to Moncton twenty-one years ago, and for a long time has been in the employ of the I. C. R. He leaves a son and two daughters. The son's name is John; the daughters are Mary and Teresa. Mr. McKinnon was highly respected by all who knew him, and his many friends will sympathize with the bereaved family. The funeral took place Saturday morning to the Catholic cemetery on the Shediac road.

Mrs. John Gauthier, of Campbellton, N. B., an invalid, and her five small children ranging in ages from one year to ten, perished in the flames which destroyed their pretty home at Little Cascapedia on the Gaspé coast last Friday midnight. John Gauthier, the husband and father, suffering intense pain from a broken leg, sustained by jumping from a second story window in a vain attempt to summon help from the neighbors, lies, inconsolable at the home of Mr. Arseneau his store partner. The family had retired about two hours, and all were sleeping soundly. Suddenly the whole structure trembled as if from an earthquake. Mr. Gauthier jumped from his bed to find that a coal oil stove in the hallway leading to the stair had exploded and the sheets of flames had already begun to find their way into the bedroom of two of the little ones who slept in that part of the flat. He endeavored to smother the fire with a blanket, but the oil had spread to such an extent as to render his efforts futile. Then it occurred to the frantic father to summon aid from the neighbors. He rushed to the window kicked out the sash and jumped to the ground, upon which lay several inches of snow. His feet slipped from under him, and when he attempted to rise he found that his left leg was broken between the knee and thigh. On hands and knees he crawled in the direction of a nearby house, but before he had reached it, his home was enveloped in flames. Above the crackling of the fire Mr. Gauthier could hear the feeble cries of his wife and children as one after another they were come upon by the flames. By one o'clock there was a score of willing heads upon the terrible scene, but they were powerless to do other than look on. At two o'clock there was nothing left of Mr. Gauthier's home but a few smouldering embers, strewn among which were the charred bones of his entire family.

Hon. J. W. Longley was the guest of honor at a happy Liberal gathering at the Queen Hotel, Halifax, last Wednesday night. The event was a complimentary dinner tendered to the Attorney General by his Liberal associates in both branches of the Legislature in recognition of his splendid services in the political arena of this province and as an occasion for presentation to him of a fitting testimonial on the eve of his departure for England, where he is shortly to be married to Miss Eva Fletcher, of that city. Nineteen years ago Mr. Longley entered the Legislature of Nova Scotia and for seventeen years of that period he has been a member of the Government of the Province. The dinner at the Queen last night was a veritable love feast. The enemy was not in sight. Immediately after his arrival in England Mr. Longley will be married to Miss Fletcher, a charming and accomplished young lady of that city. Miss Fletcher went to the Old Country some weeks ago, and is now the guest of her uncle, a wealthy gentleman of literary tastes, who has a splendid residence and estate in Bickley, Kent. There the ceremony will take place, and after a short tour of the United Kingdom, Mr. Longley and his bride will return to Halifax, arriving here about May 1st. A cheque for $200 presented to Mr. Longley is to be expended in purchasing a piece of plate which will be suitably engraved in London.

DOMINION NEWS.

OTTAWA, March 21.—There has been another delay in the date of departure of the Canadian recruits for the South African constabulary owing to the delay in fitting up the transport. The recruits will not sail from Halifax till Thursday. They were to have sailed Tuesday. The men leave Ottawa on Tuesday.

The House of Commons last Wednesday passed the second reading of the bill prohibiting the sale or delivery of intoxicants to persons under 16 years of age. The vote stood 372 to 54.

OTTAWA, March 20.—The railway committee to-day passed Archie Campbell's bill to incorporate the Canada National Railway and Transport Company to conduct an air line from Collingwood to Toronto. An amendment on the lines of Mr. Blair's proposition of yesterday authorizing the government to take over the line at any time deducting the amount of the dominion subsidies was defeated by 33 to 55.

MONTREAL, March 20.—The preferred stock of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company jumped to 95 soon after the opening of the stock exchange this morning. Yesterday the closing sale was 89½. The rise of 5½ points is accounted for in the street by the anxiety of shorts to cover. It is said that a number of operators tempted by the premium which the stock was bringing in the market, sold more than they will get by way of the allotment as original expectations have been greatly reduced on account of the over subscription of the issue.

As the operators in question needed more stock to meet their contracts they were compelled to take the stock at the advanced prices. The results tend to indicate that had the steel company asked 90 or 100 for the issue they would in all probability have got it. The fact that there is now a premium of 10 per cent. on the issue price would tend to bear out that view.

MONTREAL, March 20.—The report that J. J. Hill and other American railway magnates are buying up Canadian Pacific stock with a view to getting its control, is regarded here as far wide of the mark. The street takes the view that the price movement is purely a speculative one. Berlin, which trades largely in Pacific, has been short for some time and the present rise is said to have been worked to squeeze the German shorts.

TORONTO, March 21.—Writs for heavy damages for alleged libel were issued to-day by the North American Life Assurance Co., against the Manufacturers' Life Assurance Company and its superintendent, Geo. F. Johnston. Fifty thousand dollars is claimed in each case. The North American claims it was libeled in a circular recently issued by the Manufacturers' Life showing to its advantage, the comparative cost of life insurance in these two and other companies.

Nervousness and Nerve.

The more nervous a man is, the less nerve he has. That sounds paradoxical—but it isn't; for nerve is stamina. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve. It tones the whole system, perfects digestion and assimilation, and is therefore the best medicine a nervous person can take. If you get tired easily, mentally or physically, take it—it will do you good.

'I'm getting even with that plumber.'
'How?'
'Why, I'm paying his bill as he did the work—a little at a time.'

Humors of all kinds are prolific of worse troubles. They may be entirely expelled by a thorough course of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

NOTES FROM EMMERSON AND VICINITY.

(Too late for last issue.)

MAR. 18.—We have had a very stormy winter and until the last few days we had winter weather in the full extent, but as we are nearing the spring season we, no doubt, will enjoy spring weather.

Mr. John Millar, son of William Millar of this place, died at his home on Feb. 24th, of consumption. Deceased had been ill for a few months, but not seemingly dangerous. Death came quite unexpectedly. The funeral was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Wheeler. Remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery at Mill Branch. Much sympathy is expressed by the entire community for the bereaved family, who were summoned together on a similar case last May. Deceased leaves a mother, father, three brothers and four sisters to mourn the loss of an affectionate son and brother.

News has been received that Mr. H. Fraser, who has been dangerously ill in Maine, is now recovering and expects to be able to return to his home in a few weeks.

Mrs. Cornelius O'Leary, Sr., is suffering intensely from a cancer in the throat. She is at present unable to eat any solid food.

Misses Bessie and Sarah Millar, who were home attending their brother's funeral, have returned to Marysville, and Mr. Jas. Millar expects to go soon. Mr. Wathen Millar has returned to St. John.

Mr. McLeod, an old resident of this place, is seriously ill. There is little hope of his recovery.

Quite a number of the young men, who have been in the United States, have returned home, among them are Geo. Chapman, Thomas Levingston, Harry Foster, and quite a few more are daily expected.

Mr. J. W. Beers and Mr. Jas. Fraser have returned from Nova Scotia.

We are sorry to state that Emmerson has lost quite a number of its girls.

Miss Maggie Beers is visiting friends in Moncton.

Mr. Ashford paid a flying visit to Emmerson last week.

Miss Mary Irving, of Mill Branch, visited her cousin, Miss Marion McCray, last week.

Ratepayers are specially requested to attend to the valuation of their property as soon as possible.

MAR. 21.—Mr. S. W. Briggs, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. S. Girvan, of Mill Branch, drove to Harcourt last week. Mrs. Girvan has been enjoying a visit to her old home in this place, also in Chipman, Queens Co., where many of her relatives and friends reside.

The King Lumber Co. continue hauling goods from Harcourt Station this week.

Mr. R. D. Richardson, merchant, at The Forks, is also engaging teams to haul merchandise from Harcourt, I. C. R.

Mr. John Harper, one of our leading lumber operators, has just finished hauling for this season, and has with his crew returned to his home in Queens Co., passing through this place on the 19th inst.

Owing to the scarcity of hay and feed, numbers of parties are now hauling hay from the farms on the St. John River.

The roads in this section are in a very bad condition, and will probably be worse when the weather gets warmer, as they are entirely on the top of the snow which is very deep in places.
