AT SUNSET.

(Written for THE REVIEW)

Sitting lonely at his doorway,
At the close of one June day,
Was an old man, waiting, watching
For the boy who'd gone away.

How he listens for a footstep!
But he listens all in vain
For the boy who went to Cape Town,
Never will return again.

"Good-bye, father, now I'm going,
Pray that I'll come back to you,
May God's blessed right hand guide me
That I shall my duty do."

"Yes, those were the words Jim uttered
When I told him he could go,
How little did I think that day
I would miss poor Jimmie so."

"But I gave him to his country,
And I will not now regret;
I have only done my duty
And then,—Jim may come home yet."

That day's sun was low descending,
'Twas the time old Sol loved best,
When the sun's last rays were sinking
Into the far-distant West.

"Far away o'er hill and mountain,
In the land beyond the sea,
To some nation it is sun rise
Though its sunset here," thought he.

Quickly, as if from a sun-beam,
Up the narrow path that led
To where the old man was sitting
Came a neighbor-boy who said,—

"I've just come from the post-office,
Got a letter from our Tim
One for you, too, Mr. Allan,
I guess prob'ly its from Jim.

'Tisn't much like Jimmie's writing,
But the post-marks kinder queer.
Hope that Jim aint sick or nothing
But there's something wrong, I fear."

"Read it for me," said the old man,
"If its good news, give it wing;"
As he opened the envelope
From it rolled a plain gold ring.

William, Jim is dead or dying,
For that there ring was his pride,
I gave that band to his mother
When she was proclaimed my bride.

"Cape Town, March the twenty second,
Mr. Allan, dearest sir,—
Your son, James, was killed in battle,
Here's the ring he used to wear.

Full particulars will follow
In a letter very soon.
Hope the news will not prostrate you,
Good-bye, truly yours, Jas. Soon.

P. S. Jim said, "Tell my father
At what hour I pass away."
"Well, sir, it was just at sunset
When Jim passed to Endless Day."

That June sun had now descended,
It had shed its last bright ray;
And the letter once more folded
In old Sol's thin fingers lay.

William, take this ring, Jim cherished,
Wear it for your dear friends sake,
May he welcome you in Heaven
When that journey you shall take.

With his face turned towards the sunset,
(Before Will could understand)
Old Sol's eyes had closed to welcome
Sunrise in that Better Land.

A. & R. LOGGIE

The thanks of the Conference were given to the Ladies' Sustentation Society of St. John for their continued interest in the fund.

The Conference adopted a resolution of thanks to Lieut. Governor McClellan for his handsome donation of $5,000 towards the technical work of Mount Allison University.

Revs. Dr. Sprague and Paisley and Revs. Shenton, Weidall and Campbell were appointed the Conference special committee.

There was some discussion on matters connected with the Book Room and Wesleyan, in which ex-President Steel, Dr. Wilson and others took part.

The sustentation meeting in the evening was more than usually interesting, with good speeches, fine singing by members of the congregation and a very encouraging report.

Rev. Dr. Read and Dr. Allison brought in a request from the boards of regents that the Conference devise some method for the increasing fund of the chair of F. Allison theological professorship, and the matter was referred to the faculty of the university to provide some way of carrying out the suggestion, with the assurance of the hearty support of the Conference.

Rev. H. D. Marr was at his own request granted leave of absence for a year. The final station sheet is as follows:

57-62 The Critical Age.

Height of vigor past—nature's power slowing down, vitality less, recuperative power less, endurance less. Stop the progress of decay, tone up the weakened nerve centres, impart vigor to the tiring brain, prepare for the crisis. A means of remarkable potency in the renewal of decreasing vigor is found in Ferrozone. It brightens up the whole being, imparts a sense of power and strength. By the use of Ferrozone, old age is pushed back twenty years. Ferrozone gives strength vigor, endurance, vim. Get a box to-day at R. O'Leary's, General Merchant, Richibucto.

OUTPUT OF YUKON.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 27.—The steamship 'Hating' arrived yesterday from Skaguay. The most prominent passenger on board was Major Wood head of the Yukon mounted police. Major Wood speaks authoritatively when he says the clean-up of Yukon will be five million dollars more than last year or in round figures $25,000,000. He says that Dawson was booming when he left and nearly everybody had more money than they knew what to do with. He stated that he heard for the first time on arrival in Vancouver that the Vancouver citizens were making a bid for the Klondike gold by offering to pay the difference between what Klondikers could get for their gold here and in Seattle. He says they do not know anything about it in the north or if they do they refuse to accept Vancouver invitations and all the treasure is being shipped to Seattle. He is positive that the bank of Commerce is shipping half a million by the steamer 'City of Seattle' this week. In fact, in spite of what ever could be done, the United States could get the bulk of the twenty-five million that is to come out.

The latest mining excitement according to newspapers brought down is the discovery of a big quartz ledge thought to be a continuation of the White Horse copper belt. The discovery is situated between the Hootalinqua river and the south fork of the Big Salmon. The ledge is from fifty to three hundred feet wide, and very rich in copper. The find has caused great excitement. A gang of men are sinking a shaft. Eight different quartz ledges have been discovered in the vicinity since the big strike.

I. C. R. EXHIBIT AT PAN-AMERICAN.

Perhaps one of the most interesting exhibits at the Pan-American Exhibition is that of the Intercolonial Railway, consisting of fine specimens of mounted fish, game, etc. The exhibit is located in the Canadian Government building, near the East Anherst-street entrance. Mr. W. H. Carnall, taxidermist, of St. John, N. B., has arranged the exhibit, while Mr. William Robinson, General Travelling Agent, is in charge to welcome visitors.

MARITIME PROVINCE NOTES.

St. JOHN, June 27.—A sad drowning accident occurred yesterday afternoon at the head of Courtenay Bay. David Cameron, aged about 17, son of James Cameron of the Intercolonial round house St. John, in company with other boys went swimming. The lad became exhausted in the water and was unable to reach land. His companions were unable to assist him. The body had not been recovered at an early hour this morning.

HALIFAX, June 27.—A despatch from Bridgetown says an Austrian pedlar named Henny Manie was set upon by five men in broad daylight. His wagon was overturned in bits. Manie was robbed of his money and goods and beaten into insensibility. Frank Sabbeas is supposed to be the leading man of the highwaymen whose initial performance is above recorded. The robbery took place near Albany Cross.

St. John Globe: James McCracken, of No. 44 Sheriff street, who was hurt about the spine and shoulders on Tuesday by being dumped from his cart on Chipman's Hill, died this morning without regaining consciousness. He was in the fifty-first year of his age and had been employed as a cartman by Mr. William Gray, of North End, for years. He was a straightforward, hardworking man, and enjoyed the respect of all his acquaintances. A widow and a stepdaughter are living.

HALIFAX, June 27.—Joseph Shanks, who has just arrived here, relates a terrible experience while adrift on the ocean alone in a boat for five days and five nights. He lost his vessel in a fog on the fishing banks, and before being picked up by another schooner suffered untold torture from thirst, hunger and exposure. The last night he spent adrift he lay down to die. At daybreak he was rescued more dead than alive.

Moncton Times: The news of the death of Mrs. Geo. C. Peters, received Thursday evening, came as a very severe shock to her family. A successful operation had been performed on Monday at the Victoria Hospital in Montreal, and up to Thursday afternoon every report received had been most encouraging. Then a series of telegrams of an alarming nature arrived until at 6 o'clock the sad news of her death reached the afflicted family. Mrs. Peters was a native of Moncton where she has spent her whole life. She was the second daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. Botsford, and has borne always the love and respect of all who have known her. Her husband and children (of whom there are ten—all living) will have the deepest sympathy of the whole community in the terrible blow which has fallen upon them.

Mrs. John Wood, who resides with her son and daughter on Cameron street, claims to be the oldest person living in the city at the present time. Mrs. Wood will be 95 years old on the 2nd of November next, and is quite smart for one so advanced in years. She spends a great part of her time knitting, of which she is very fond. The elderly lady is slightly deaf as a result of an attack of la grippe; otherwise she is in possession of all her faculties.—Moncton Times.

BATHURST, N. B., June 28.—There was a big fire in New Brandon Monday, the report of which has just reached here. The Customs House, post office, residence and buildings of Postmaster, P. J. Foley were burned, and letters, customs accounts, etc., all destroyed. Mr. Foley was to be superannuated July 1.

There has been considerable excitement in Shediac of late over the appearance of a midnight prowler, who has made several unsuccessful attempts to enter two or three houses in town. Two or three efforts have been made to enter the residence of Mr. Duncan Harper, and last Saturday night an armed guard was set on the house. During the night the watchman saw a man approach the house and the dog saw him about the same time. They gave chase and fired after him but he escaped.—Moncton Transcript.

Mr. T. W. Butler, barrister of Newcastle, and Miss Mary A. Holohan, of Newcastle, were married last Tuesday morning at St. Mary's church. The groom was supported by F. J. Desmond, M. D., while the bride's sister, Alexis acted as bridesmaid. The bride's costume was of white muslin, with a white chiffon hat. She carried an exquisite bouquet of roses and maidenhair. The happy couple left for an extended tour through Upper Canada, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other places, followed by the best wishes of many friends.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 28.—A despatch from North Sydney says the steamer Bruce is expected there to-morrow morning about 5 o'clock with the Luvitania's passengers. She will probably have to make two trips for them.

The steamer barque Erick, Capt. Farquhar, arrived at North Sydney to-day from London to fit out for the Peary relief expedition.

HARTLAND, N. B., June 28.—On Wednesday, C. P. R. Detective O'Regan and Deputy Sheriff Foster arrested two men on suspicion of having placed an obstruction on the railway track at Euniac Bluff. Engineer Bartlett, running a special down Monday morning discovered two heavy pieces of deal placed across the track and stopped his train only in the nick of time. Suspicion pointed to Atwood Fitzherbert a young man of the vicinity. He was arrested and became King's evidence and by this way, John Wright, his pal, was also arrested and, before Justice McQuarrie at Andover, both were committed to jail. No reason is ascribed for the deed. Superintendent Newcombe is greatly pleased over the work of the officers in arresting the men. The fellows had no connection with the strikers.

LIGHTNING CAUSES DAMAGE AT FREDERICTON AND MONCTON.

MONCTON, N. B., June 27.—The most severe rain and electric storm in years passed over this section this afternoon. For half an hour the rain fell in torrents. The streets were literally turned into rivers, and Main street presented the appearance of a canal, and boating was possible. Sewers were incapable of carrying off the flood and the water rushed into the low places, flooding some buildings. Abrams' machine shop floor was covered by about two feet of water, and $150 damage done. Moulders were all ready to make an important casting when the flood struck the shop and the water proved disastrous to the sand moulds, scattering things in all directions. The water also did some damage to cellars on Main street. The basement of Higgins & Co.'s new building was flooded by two or three feet of water, doing slight damage.

Lightning entered the house of Raphael Milner on Salisbury Road and tore up the boards, splintering them to atoms in the room where five persons were sitting at the time. Fortunately none of the persons were injured, but Miss Milner was covered with fine splinters which did no harm. No other part of the house was damaged, but the inmates of the room where the lightning entered received a severe shock and got a bad scare. Mr. Milner's eight-year old granddaughter had a close call. She had been sitting on the spot where the floor was torn up by lightning a half minute before the freak occurred.

FREDERICTON, June 27.—A severe thunder storm passed over the city this afternoon. Lightning struck the house of John McLanahan, barber, and did considerable damage. Mabel McLanahan was struck and rendered unconscious for five hours, a little baby was sitting close by but was unharmed. The curtains in the room were burned and the pictures on the wall shattered.

MAIN RIVER NOTES.

June 27.—We are very sorry to hear that our school teacher is going to leave us, as she will be much missed.

Mr. Jonathan Sullivan is away to the bark woods on Salmon River.

Mr. Ernest Ferguson is busy building a new house. We wish him success with his work.

While Mr. William Lawson was picking strawberries the other day in Mr. McNulty's field, a large bear approached him, but as he did not move the bear turned into the wood's again. Mr. Lawson says it was a fine one.

Potato bugs are very plentiful this year.
