NOTES AND COMMENTS.

If Mrs. Nation is in her senses when she reaches Ottawa she will look her little hatchet in her little satchel, and keep it there. Canadians have an eye for the bizarre, the grotesque as well as the American, but any violent demonstration of Carrie Nation will meet with reprobation and will end in her condemnation to imprisonment and fine, the same as would be awarded to any other disturber of the public peace.—St John Gazette.

The Duke and Duchess of York will arrive one week later than scheduled. About September 22 is the latest approximate date. The Mayor of Halifax will have ample time to get his $500 robes ready. He will be such a bang-up swell the L. C. R. proposes to run special excursions to see him. The Halifax exhibition should have him on show.

It is reported in Montreal that the Hon. Tom Chase Casgrain, M. P., will resign his seat for Montmorenci if Clarke Wallace continues his aggressive anti-French campaign. Quebec's ex-Attorney General probably realizes that he is unequally mated with the member for West York. He may also realize what Montmorenci's next verdict is likely to be.

The cigar makers of Montreal have been on strike 17 weeks. That is a long lock out. In this case it was long enough to revolutionize the cigar making industry. New apparatus has been introduced which so simplifies the manufacture of cigars that the manufacturers state they will not require the experienced hands who left them in the spring.

It is hard to say who is chiefly to blame for the fiasco of hurrying thousands of men to the west to save the Manitoba wheat crop and then allowing them to remain idle or return home in disgust. The men blame the C. P. R., the railway blames the Manitoba government, and the government blames the greedy farmers who refused to hire men when they were aware that the labor market was overstocked. Apparently all hands, excepting the poor individuals who went west, are seriously to blame.

Speaking of a druggist whose certificate had been taken from him, and who had been practically pauperized for selling a bottle of beer, the Boston Advertiser remarks:—"If so heavy a penalty is inflicted upon the druggist who sells one bottle of beer, it may be asked, what penalty falls upon the druggist whose mistake has cost one or more lives? Is his certificate also taken from him? On the contrary, he is allowed to keep his certificate as if nothing had happened. In this respect it is a far more serious crime in this state to sell even a glass of beer than it is to kill off a whole family with the wrong prescription." A good many fool laws are enacted at the instigation of cranks and fanatics, (we have some of them) while the passage of salutary and sensible laws is opposed and defeated.—St. John Gazette.

CHURCH SERVICES.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. D. Fraser, B. A., Pastor. Rexton, Sunday, 11 o'clock a. m.; Richibucto, Sunday, 7 o'clock p. m. Christian Endeavor Society meets at Rexton every Monday at 7:30 p. m., and at Richibucto every Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Couldn't Find the Corkscrew. They live pretty well out, in a handsome home, but not near enough to a fire station to be "handy in case of accident." As the house is their own and their all the husband had been somewhat in terror of a blaze for some time. So he laid in a stock of hand grenades, those little glass bottles which are supposed to put out any fire that may start.

The Grand Medicine Man. The ceremony of the Grand Medicine is an elaborate ritual, covering several days, the endless number of gods and spirits being called upon to minister to the sick man and to lengthen his life. The several degrees of the Grand Medicine teach the use of incantations, of medicines and poisons, and the requirements necessary to constitute a brave.

When Mayor Meets Mayor. Civic characters of local fame imbued with a sense of their own importance are not wholly unknown in this country. A fact which may account for the familiar ring of the following story found in "Highways and Byways in East Anglia."

Antique Clocks. A common trick of clock makers and repairers of years ago, when the craze for antique "grandfather" clocks first showed itself, was to alter the names and dates of the original makers on such of these clocks as came to them. This trick has made it difficult to prove the exact age of an old clock now, even by experts, and still more difficult to learn the name of the real maker.

Lions and Tigers. There is nothing odd or peculiar about the sleep of the lions and tigers. In captivity they show the same indifference to danger that they manifest in the jungles and by day or night will slumber through an unusual tumult, unmindful or unconscious of the noise. Their sleep is commonly heavy and peaceful.

She Believed. Hester—I hope you don't believe what Fred Saunders says. He has been in love with every girl in town, first and last.

Not Needed. He was obviously anxious, and she seemed almost willing.

No Possibility. "Are you never afraid, Uncle Rastus?" asked one of the scoffers, "of falling from grace?"

Chicago Tribune. "Cannel" replied Uncle Rastus, "how kin a pussos fall 'm de bedrock?"

PROGRAM OF S. S. CONVENTION.

BASS RIVER, SEPT. 19 AND 20, 1901. First Session—2 o'clock p. m. of the 19th. Preparatory worship led by Rev. Mr. Townsend.

Advice in His Answers. The Rev. John McNeill was holding a revival service at Cardiff, Wales, and announced that he would answer any question about the Bible. At once a note was sent up to him reading as follows:

The Inventor of the Flouring Mill. About the year 70 B. C. Mithridates, king of Cappadocia, one of the most ingenious and able princes of the time, invented the first mill driven by water.

Itching, Burning Skin, Cracked Hands, Sore Ear. Two Illustrations of How Dr. Chase's Ointment Cures Itching Skin Diseases and Eruptions.

Mr. James McIsaac, 25 Elgin St., Ottawa, Ont., writes:—"I suffered with salt rheum for upwards of ten years, the skin on my hands cracking and breaking so as to make them useless.

Two Ladies contended for precedence in the court of Charles V. They appealed to the monarch, who, like Solomon, awarded, "Let the eldest go first."

Not Correlative. Mrs. Housekeep—Do you really mean to say you are looking for work?

The rooster makes two-thirds of the noise, but the hen does all the work.—Chicago News.

Winding Timepieces.

"I have been doing a little figuring on time," remarked an erratic citizen yesterday, "and I have reached some rather interesting conclusions. I wanted to find out how much time I had consumed in keeping tab on time, and I found that, if the whole world is considered in the computation, years would be crowded into a second of time."

One man in a year's time would consume 5,475 seconds in winding his watch if he is prompt about it and is willing to give 15 seconds every day to this useful article.

What She Saw. It was at the Normal school that this happened, and the class laughed. It was a laugh on the teacher, too, but he didn't get angry, although it did break into the serious contemplation of serious studies with which he was trying to interest the students.

A Startling Sermon.

Once when Father Honore, a celebrated Capuchin of the seventeenth century, was preaching on the vanity of the world he suddenly produced a skull, which he held up to view.

Europe's Ice Supply. Few perhaps among the tourists who visit Norway for the pleasures of its scenery are aware that here they are at the headquarters of Europe's ice supply.

Gilbert Islands Tipple. Neither tea nor coffee is drunk in the Gilbert islands, but liquor named kafee, or toddy. It is the juice of the cocconut tree, from which it is drawn daily at sunrise and sunset.

Witty Barrymore. Talking of Maurice Barrymore recently, a man who knew him well told this story of him:

Tommy's Mistake. Father—Come, young man, get your jacket off and come with me.

The Play. Henry J. Byron, one of the wittiest of English playwrights of a score of years ago, remarked on one occasion:

Sarcasm. "Why did you leave your last place?" "Master was too sarcastic."
