LEGAL NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his address or another, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the pay.
2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., MAY 22, 1902.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN AND
THE WAR.

The conference of the fighting Boers now being held in South Africa will decide whether there will be peace or a continuation of the useless struggle. The general opinion as indicated by the despatches is that the Boers will accept the terms offered by Kitchener. A despatch from Portuguese South Africa, says that an early peace is assured. Mr.
Chamberlain, in an address delivered at Birmingham on Friday last, does not appear to accept these reports too readily. "I wish I could tell you" said he "that the great war is coming to an end. I am hopeful that this is so, but not sanguine. It may be that the proposal from the Boer leaders will not be such as we can accept. One thing is certain, the mistake of Majuba will not be repeated." Continuing, Mr. Chamberlain declared that the government had never insisted on the unconditional surrender of the Boers, but it did insist that the lines of its policy should be settled for all time. "The country must remember," said he,
"that it owes something to its self-governing colonies, to the men who have died and to the Boers who have taken the oath of allegiance, and that there must never be a chance for a renewal of the conflict." Mr.
Chamberlain evidently understands the feeling of the nation and is prepared to have a final settlement of the question of British supremacy in South Africa, let the cost be what it will. The weak and vacillating policy of the home government in 1881 will not be repeated. The mistake which has since cost Great Britain millions in money and the lives of so many brave men, will not be made again.

DIVINE WRATH AND PRO-PHECY.

If it were not so serious a matter it would certainly be amusing to read the comments from some pulpits in this country when any unusual event occurs or catastrophe happens. It is at once pointed out as a visitation of divine wrath called forth by the wickedness of the place or else the forerunner of some event promised in the bible. It is now claimed by some of these clerical gentlemen that the city of Saint Pierre in Martinique was a very wicked place and that because of its wickedness it has met the fate of Sodom and Gomorrah. It is not contended that there were no God-fearing people in the stricken city, even a greater number than would have saved ancient Sodom, but it appears from these pulpit croakers that the fire fell on the just and the unjust and that the righteous were destroyed in order that the wicked might be punished. In any large city there is probably much more vice than could have been found in the little city of Saint Pierre. Yet we are told by these preachers that God, in order to wreak his vengeance on offenders there, struck down the innocent with the guilty and left untouched other places equally immoral. Such statements are more than absurd.

They are unchristian. From other pulpits disasters of this nature are pointed out as the forerunner of some event prophesied to take place. A "seer" of Yale College now warns the people of the world that the Martinique eruption is a portent of the approaching day of Judgment. We have been taught that no man knows when Judgment will come, that it will come like a thief in the night and when least expected. Yet this American professor bobs up serenely and tells us that the event is at hand, and as conclusive evidence of the fact he points to the Martinique disaster. It is astonishing how many prophets, healers, humbugs and frauds are produced by the United States. It is just possible that this Yale professor may be serious, but it is more than probable he is seeking a little cheap notoriety. In any event it is not probable he will be taken too seriously. There have been earthquakes, cyclones, volcanic eruptions and convulsions of nature from the beginning of the world and it is quite likely that they will continue till the end.

HOW TO MAKE FARM LIFE
IDEAL.

(Contributed.)

There is no question but that farm life is the most independent existence possible. In the abstract it is the ideal condition, and while young men flock to the cities, it often happens that the older generations turn back to rural life with longing hearts.
There must be some reason why so many young men leave their homes and mothers to seek a livelihood in town and cities.
Is this reason not found in the bad roads, the delays in transportation, the lonesomeness, the lack of companionship and other similar causes which up to the present time have concealed from young men the hidden beauties of a country life? What do they care for independence accompanied with lonesomeness? What do pure air, pure food and good health count with a young man who finds that his friends in the town or city are apparently, if not in reality, possessed of more opportunities and certainly more companionship than he is? Companionship has a practical as well as a sentimental value. Therefore, the problem which confronts the mothers and fathers on the farms, is to provide means for removing the causes of discomfort and lonesomeness from the lives of their children and themselves. If this be done, the tide of population will turn, and our next general census will determine that the hitherto increasing percentage of urban population has been checked, and that the people are returning in large numbers to this happiest and most natural condition of mankind, in homes upon the broad acres of our glorious land, near to nature's heart.

There is one way of overcoming the evil effects of bad roads; to minimize the delays in transportation; to abolish lonesomeness and bring the comforts of city life to the home of every farmer.

The telephone has added more to the comfort and prosperity of mankind than any other invention. It will seek a market for you and quote you prices to operate your transactions on. Concerts are possible every evening in a neighborhood. It will enable ladies to visit each other without the troublesome necessity of dressing and driving long distances over bad roads with a team needed in the fields. It encourages and makes easy an interchange of thought that is not possible even in a city without its aid. It will call for help when the grim spectre of death is trying to enter and desolate your home. It is a savor of time, an annihilator of distance, a rest to weary feet.

MR. TURGEON IN ONTARIO.

Hon. Mr. Turgeon, M. P., for Gloucester, is taking a hand in the provincial contest in Ontario.
The following is the report of his speech in East Nippissing as published in the North Bay Times:

"Mr. Turgeon, M. P., was next introduced to the audience, and, although at first he spoke in somewhat broken English, his address in French immediately after may be said, for eloquence and the beauty of rhetoric, to have been the speech of the evening. It was the outpouring of a loyal heart, a speech delivered more from a sentiment of true patriotism than upon the lines of provincial politics. It was, indeed, a message of peace from the French-Canadians of New Brunswick to the people of Ontario, counselling unity of sentiment, loyalty to British institutions, harmony and concord in all matters for the upbuilding of this great country. If anyone harbored the idea that his compatriots were not loyal, he wished that the breeze announcing the arrival of summer would carry his denial of that unjust idea from the Atlantic to the Pacific.
He was pleased beyond expression with the generosity of sentiment with which he had been met on all sides in this great province of Ontario. Under the banners of Mowat and his successors the Catholic and Protestant flags, unfurled side by side to the breeze, had given a lesson to the world in toleration, amity, harmony and good-will. He said that the Catholic minority of Ontario should cherish dearly the treatment received at the hands of the successive Liberal governments. They had fought for the same privileges in his own province of New Brunswick, and he told of the struggles and sacrifices that had to be made before a settlement of the school question was arrived at in that beautiful province 'down by the sea.'"

BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

The Best Medicine in the World for Children of all Ages.

Baby's Own Tablets are good for children of all ages from the tiniest, weakest baby to the well grown child, and are a certain cure for indigestion, sour stomach, colic, constipation, diarrhoea, teething troubles and the other minor ailments of children. There is no other medicine acts so speedily, so safely and so surely and they contain not one particle of the opiates found in the so-called "soothing" medicines. Mrs. R. M. Ness, Barrie, Ont., says: "I first began using Baby's Own Tablets when my baby was teething.
He was feverish, sleepless and very cross, and suffered from indigestion. After using the Tablets he began to get better and was no longer cross. I think the Tablets a fine medicine for children and keep them on hand all the time." The Tablets are readily taken by all children, and crushed to a powder can be given to the very youngest baby with a certainty of benefit. Sold by all druggists or sent post paid at 25 cents a box by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y.

BATH, MAINE.

As there are so many of the Richibucto boys about here I thought you would be interested to hear what they are doing.

Mr. G. Shaw's mill is in full operation.
Among the many employes of Mr. Shaw are the Messrs. Jas. Campbell, Jas. Olsen, John Pine, John Farrier, John Betts, and Alfred Betts.

Archie Hutchinson has taken his departure for Main River.

Herb Campbell is one of the fifteen hundred employes of the iron foundry.

Alfred Betts drives a dappled-grey team and can be seen most any day hauling lumber from the mill to the wharf. John Farrier can be seen engaged in the same business.

Jack and his roommate treated some Province friends with delicious strawberries and cream in their apartments the other night which all enjoyed immensely.

Jas. Olsen, Jas. Campbell and John Pine are expecting to leave Bath and settle in East Gardiner for the remainder of the summer.

John A. Taylor, formerly of Bass River, is doing a hustling business in his blacksmith shop on Main Street. John is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. David Betts, accompanied by their daughter Jennie, passed through here en route from Auburn, Maine, to Boston. A number of their friends collected at the wharf to give them a parting farewell. Mr. and Mrs. Betts had been spending a few weeks visiting their son, William, of Auburn. They also visited the Messrs. Jas. Barnes, Isaac Wilson and Miss Sullivan, formerly of Bass River.
They visited Will McDonald of Mill Creek also. Will is employed on a farm on Golf Hill, Auburn, and is getting along nicely.
