DRAMATICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—Last Tuesday evening at the Temperance Hall, Richibucto, the Richibucto Amateur Dramatic Company put upon the boards the play, "Because I Love You." The Hall was crowded to its full capacity, among those in attendance being a number from Buctouche, Kouchibouguac and other places. The Richibucto-Rexton Orchestra was in attendance and added greatly to the evening's entertainment. The parts were all well played. Mrs. L. V. V. for "Imogene Courtleigh," Miss Florence Vautour as "Nance Tyson," and Miss Gerda McMillan as "Ginger," the waif, would have done credit to a professional troupe. Miss Florence Scott acted well the part of "Prudence Freeheart." Mr. A. E. Pearson as "Eorace Verner" made love to the heroine in a manner suggestive of a wide range of experience, while James Kavanagh, in the character of "Buck Tyson," the Gypsy tinker, was imitable. John D. McMillan as "Major Duffy," George A. Irving "Squire Ripley," H. A. Hudson "Ira Courtleigh," E. Smith Scott "Dick Potts," and W. E. Murray as "Lige," a gentleman of color, all filled their parts successfully. The receipts of the evening were $67.74. The play will be shown in Rexton at the Public Hall on Friday evening.

FAREWELL SUPPER TO G. V. McINERNEY.—On the occasion of Mr. McInerney's resignation of the office of County Secretary, an office he has ably filled for a period of 22 years, the Municipal Council of Kent tendered him a farewell supper in order to show their appreciation of his value as an official, and their respect for him as a citizen. This memorable gathering took place at the Kent Hotel, Richibucto, now so efficiently run by "Mine Host" O'Leary, on Wednesday evening last. The newly appointed and popular Warden, George Jardine, filled the chair, the guests of the evening being given the accustomed places of honor. There were present besides the members of the County Council, through special invitation, Messrs. Loughren, Ottawa; Ross, Moncton; R. Hutchinson, W. Dickinson, H. M. Ferguson and John Jardine, Rexton; and Messrs. Carter, Robidoux, McLeod, R. O'Leary, Caie, Dr. Bourque and P. Wood, Richibucto.

The following was the Bill of Fare: Indian Island Oyster Stew. Boiled Turkey. Celery dressing and sauce. Roast Goose. Cranberry sauce. Creamed Potatoes. Creamed Celery. Fried Parsnips. Creamed Turnips. Salad. Lemon Meringue Pie. Plum Pudding. Brandy Sauce. Chocolate Pudding. Orange Sauce. Jellies—Orange, Lemon, Apple. Oranges, Apples. Tea and Coffee.

After due consideration had been given the inner man, and the health of King Edward the VII duly pledged, followed by the National Anthem, the Warden in proposing a toast to the guest of the evening, touchingly referred to their school boy days, their associations both in civil and political life, and to the regret he felt in losing one whom he esteemed so highly. "For he's a jolly good fellow" was rendered with a will. Mr. McInerney's reply was indeed characteristic of him. He dwelt eloquently on his past life as Secretary of the Municipality, the kind treatment received, the associations formed, episodes and pleasant memories of the past, of good wishes and happy forecasts for the future. He thanked them all, as only George can, in a beautiful and touching peroration.

Our guests—Responded to by Messrs. Ross and Loughren. These gentlemen in a few well chosen and happy sentences expressed their pleasure at being honored by the Municipality of Kent, their sympathies for the less our county was sustaining in McInerney's departure, and their deep appreciation of his worth with best wishes for his future happiness and prosperity. Our banking institution—W. Dickinson.

Mercantile industries—R. O'Leary, John Jardine, W. H. McLeod. The Lawyers—Messrs. Hutchinson, Carter and Robidoux. The Doctors—Responded to by Dr. Bourque. The milling industries and farmers—Responded to by Councillors McKee, Richard, Girouard, etc. The Ladies—Brought to his feet Mr. Robidoux, the only bachelor present, who entered a gallant and eloquent defense of the fair sex. Mine Host and Lady proposed by Mr. Hutchinson, who in his usual quiet and eloquent manner thanked Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary on behalf of all present, and wished them long life and prosperity in their new home. A pleasant, and long to be remembered evening came to a close with cheers for "our guests," "our host" and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

White Watery Pimples.

Five years ago my body broke out in white watery pimples, which grew so bad that the suffering was almost unbearable. I took doctors' medicine and various remedies for two years but they were of little benefit, whenever I got warmed up or sweat the pimples would come out again. A neighbor advised Burdock Blood Bitters, and I am glad I followed his advice, for four bottles completely cured me. That was three years ago and there has never been a spot or pimple on me since. James Lashouse, Breechin P.O., Ont.

TORONTO, Jan. 18.—Edward Dubois, a soldier of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, was taken from St. Michael's hospital to Stanley barracks by a corporal's guard yesterday afternoon. Only a short time before he was to have been operated on for appendicitis by Dr. Bruce. The affair was explained by the officials in this way: Dubois, who hails from Quebec, has been in Grace hospital several times suffering from appendicitis. He was there under the care of the regimental physician. A few days ago Dubois got six days' leave of absence to go home. Instead of doing so he entered St. Michael's hospital. As this was considered a breach of the regulations Dubois was taken back to the fort. The man had partially recovered from an attack of the disease, but is said to be in immediate need of an operation.
