A WEDDING EVENT AT NOTRE DAME, KENT.

NOTRE DAME, Sept. 6.—On Wednesday evening, 3rd inst., one of those happy events which cause a thrill of joy to penetrate every heart took place at the residence of George Biggs, Little River, when his daughter Leona, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to John A. Chapman, the widely known and much esteemed clerk of C. E. Lochart & Co. Rev. C. H. Manaton, of Salisbury, tied the nuptial knot which made two loving hearts beat as one. The bride was attended by her sister, Miranda, while the groom was supported by Arthur Johnston.

At 8 o'clock the spacious parlors were filled with guests eager to catch a glimpse of the happy couple when they appeared in the doorway and walked to their places and the minister commenced to pronounce the solemn words which made them man and wife. The bride looked charming in a dress of gray cashmere and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a black suit and his manly face beamed with animation as he glanced at the fair one by his side. After the ceremony was over and they received the congratulations of their many friends they repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous feast was served. The guests were well attended to by Misses Lillie Johnson, Bessie Biggs, and Annie Chapman. After supper music was furnished by Mrs. Manaton and several of the local musicians joined in singing. At 12 o'clock the happy couple, accompanied by a host of friends, started for home where a pleasant hour was spent before the guests dispersed. Many beautiful presents were received, a few of which are enumerated below:

S. S. CONVENTION.

I wish to intimate to the S. S. Workers of Kent County that the annual Convention of our Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church at Richibucto on the 29th and 30th of this month.

There will be four sessions at which papers will be read and addresses given by the clergymen of the different denominations on S. School.

We also expect that the Rev. Mr. Lucas, Field Sec., and other S. S. Workers will be present and take active part in the meetings. It is hoped that all the Schools of the County shall be well represented and a deep interest awakened in the work.

A competent committee has been appointed to make preparation for the entertainment of all the Delegates. The programme will be printed within a few days, and will be sent to the different Schools for circulation.

Come and meet with us. It is our sincere desire to do you good, and it shall inspire and encourage us to see you thus show your zeal for the Lord in this good work.
