

PALE AND LISTLESS

A CO. DISEASE THAT AFFECTS VERY MANY WOMEN.

The Appetite Fails—Strength Departs and the Sufferer Feels That Life is Really a Burden.

From The Topic, Petrolia, Ont.

It is impossible that a medicine can be so widely known and used as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills without striking results frequently becoming known and the merits of this great remedy for the common ailments of man and woman-kind being published. Mrs. Thos. Kettle, of Petrolia, Ont., is a case in point. Mrs. Kettle is an old resident of this district and is well known. Chatting with a reporter of the Topic the other day the conversation drifted on the subject of medicines, when Mrs. Kettle spoke in the highest praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which, she said, had cured her of a long illness. Our reporter, being naturally interested, made further enquiries, when Mrs. Kettle gave him the following particulars:—"I am the mother of twelve children and in spite of the constant strain and worry the raising of so large a family entailed upon me, in addition to my house-work, I was for many years blessed with splendid health. However, after the birth of my last child my strength seemed to fail me and I felt that my health was gradually going. I consulted a doctor and continued under his treatment for some months, but the only result that I could see was that I grew steadily worse. I could not name any particular ailment that I suffered from, but I was all "run down." My appetite failed me, my strength seemed all gone and I became pale and listless, scarcely able to drag myself around, and much of the time in bed. I became alarmed at my long continued ill health and as doctor's medicine had done me no good I determined to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I purchased a box and thought it did me some good, so I got six boxes more, and before I had finished taking the second I felt a lot better, and by the time I had finished the seven boxes I had perfectly regained my health, had gained weight and felt better than I had for some years. I consider the pills a splendid medicine, a real godsend to weak and ailing women, and have frequently recommended them to my friends and used them with my children, always with good results." Judging from Mrs. Kettle's healthy appearance to-day none would imagine she had ever known what a day's illness meant.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a positive cure for all diseases arising from impoverished blood, or a weak or shattered condition of the nervous system, such as epilepsy, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, heart troubles, anaemia, etc. These pills are also a cure for the ailments that make the lives of so many women a constant misery. Sold by druggists or sent by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Three Operations Failed to Cure Itching Piles.

News of a Marvellous Cure Flies Across the Continent—Father and Son Unite in Praising Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Some cures effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment seem like miracles. Here is a case where doctors labored in vain and operations failed to cure.

Mr. Donald McLeod, Tarbotville, U. S. writes:—"I received the sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and it has done me a considerable amount of good. I am now enclosing payment for a large box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, which you will please send to my address.

I have had itching piles for four years and did not know of any medicine that would relieve me until last fall, when I received a letter from three doctors treated him and operated for piles, but failed to cure him. He now thanks God and Dr. Chase's Ointment for a perfect cure. He had piles in the worst form, and suffered terribly. He is now working hard every day, and does not feel any symptoms of piles returning. For at liberty to use this letter for the benefit of others."

There is little use trying to cure piles unless you use Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is certain to afford quick relief and ultimately thorough cure. 60 cts a box, at all dealers or Edman-son Bates & Co., Toronto.

A Funny Language.

The native dictionary of Samoa is interesting in the light it casts upon the Samoan character. I find "an impossibility, such as an old man getting a young wife." Another word means "to beg deliciously for fishhooks." "Unwelcome" is given, "such as a visiting party that is accompanied by neither a handsome man nor a pretty maid." The definition of "widow" or "widower" is synonymous with detached shellfish.

There are also definitions that show considerable thought and irony. "Meanness," for instance, can go no further than "to climb out on your own breadfruit tree to steal your neighbor's breadfruit." Paaputama, like a trumpet blown by wild birds, blown anyhow and at all times; so conduct without consideration. Popoga, to look owl eyed, as a person staring when food or property is being divided. "Good brown earth" describes an honest, unpretending man. To show how difficult the language is for the stranger I may say that the little word ta means I, we two, to beat with a stick, to play on a musical instrument, to reproach, to tattoo, to open a vein, to bail a cannon, to wash clothing by beating and to turn a somersault.

Her Vanity.

Some years ago a marble sculptor had his place of business on Penn avenue near Ninth street. A business man lost his wife, and he ordered a tombstone for her grave from the sculptor. It was to be a life size study of her. The figure was finished in due time and placed in the cemetery.

Several years passed, and the figure had not been paid for. The sculptor was a man of business, not given to sentiment, and he took the figure out of the cemetery, placing it on exhibition in a window at his place of business. It naturally attracted a good deal of attention, and one day a woman in passing stopped to look at it. She recognized the figure, but to make certain went in and asked the sculptor and found that she was correct.

The woman shook her head and said sadly, "Ah, Mary Jane was always a vain critter, but I never thought she would go this far."

Where Four States Meet.

It is queer to think of the possibility of being in four states at once, yet there is one spot in the United States—the only place in the world—where it is possible. Look on your map of this country, says the St. Louis Republic, and you will find an intersection between two straight lines, where Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona meet.

The place is not often visited, as it is not easily reached. The stone erected there by the government surveyors is on top of a spur in the Carrizo mountains. The nearest railroad town is Mancos, Colo., nearly 100 miles from the "four corners."

Tea In Kashmir.

There are two ways of preparing tea in Kashmir. The first is to put the tea in a pot with cold water and boil it for half an hour, when more cold water is added, after which it is boiled for another half hour. Milk is then added and it is ready for drinking. The second is to place the tea in a pot with a little soda and water and boil for half an hour as before. Milk, salt and butter are then added, after which it is boiled for another half hour, when it is ready.

The Emerald's Power.

Emeralds from India, Persia and Peru are the most valuable. According to their tints and their luster, they are classed as prosines, neonianes and domitanes. According to Suetonius, Nero used to look at the fighting gladiators in his emerald. The stone is the emblem of charity, hope, joy and abundance. It had the reputation of curing epilepsy by application and of being an all round pain killer.

Iron and Copper.

The world could not get along today without iron and copper. The entire loss of all the gold and silver in the world would not be nearly so serious as would be a sudden exhaustion of all the iron and copper, since iron is used for all purposes of construction, and copper is an absolute requisite in the use of electricity to the enormous extent which now obtains.

Kept It Dark.

Miss Rocksey—Oh, papa, when the count asked your consent did you grow sentimental and tell him that I was all you had left?

Old Rocksey—No, my dear. If that was the case, I guess he wouldn't have wanted you.—Judge.

As It Struck the Poet.

"The first writing was done on stone," remarked the wise man at dinner. "Great gracious! Think of the postage!" involuntarily exclaimed the rising poet, with a shudder that rattled the dishes.

Every individual in this world influences some one person, and the greater we make ourselves the greater we make some one else.—Ladies Home Journal.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

Ten Years Ago and Now.

There is no better antidote for despondency than to take a measure of your own community as it was ten years ago and as it is today, unless you live in an unrepresentative and stagnant community. You will be likely to find the roads or the streets better than they were, the railroad service, the postal service, possibly even the telegraph and the telephone service better. You will observe better houses, more attractive grounds. The people are better clad or more are well clad. Inside their houses you will find more books or, better, more bathrooms, better lights and better furniture. A larger proportion of children and youth are receiving good training at better schools. All this means more than prosperous years. It means a higher level of life and a stronger ambition. The well being of the people of the United States is rising higher and especially is it diffusing itself wider. Life is constantly becoming more comfortable and more cheerful as well as longer and safer, leading to better conditions for intellectual growth and social development.

Couldn't Be Mistaken.

A Derbyshire squire recently invited some London friends down for a little shooting. One of the sportsmen, after shooting for three hours without success, was considerably annoyed by the keeper in attendance on him repeating after every miss, "I can't be mistaken, surely."

"For goodness sake, be quiet!" he at last shouted. "What do you mean with your everlasting 'I can't be mistaken'?" "Well, sir," was the reply, "if you 'adn't put a few shots through my 'at, peppered both my legs for me and popped a full charge into my right foot I'm blowed if I shouldn't think as 'ow you was a-firin' with blank cartridges!"

Royal Mascots.

Most of the sovereign houses of Europe possess one or more relics which they regard as mascots. The house of Bonaparte possesses the boots and little hat of Napoleon I. The Hohenzollerns preserve piously the gray leather breeches worn by the Burggrave Frederick when he entered his margravate of Brandenburg. There is also at Sans Souci the cane which Frederick the Great carried at the battle of Rossbach. The Romanoffs cherish the carpenter's tools of Peter the Great, and the fetich of the Hapsburgs is the shoe which the horse of Count Rudolph cast at the moment when the envoys from the reichstag announced to him his election as German emperor.

Soapbuds Are Valuable.

Few persons knew how very useful soapbuds prove when employed as manure. Applied to the roots of vines, fruit trees, roses, etc., they impart a vigor and a rapidity of growth which are perfectly surprising. No one who is so lucky as to have a garden should waste this valuable form of manure. It is an excellent plan to have a large tub and put the soapbuds and dirty water into it till required upon the garden.

Carlisle Would Talk.

Professor Blackie said of Carlisle: "I admired his genius. But how he would talk, talk, talk, and give nobody a chance to put in a word! One night I actually shook him. His wife had been trying all the evening to say something, but there was not the smallest chance. I took hold of him and shook him, saying, 'Let your wife speak, you monster!' But it was of no use."

Looking Forward.

Old Bullion (on his deathbed)—All my property is willed to you, but I'm afraid my children by my first wife will make a contest, and then the lawyers will get it.

Young Wife—Don't worry, my love. I can easily fix that. I'll marry one of the lawyers.

Owing to the variations of the Canadian climate, considerable allowance must be made in all fences for contraction and expansion, which makes an ordinary wire fence unserviceable, as when it expands it becomes so loose as to prove of little value. Note this makes it elastic and self-regulating. The Page Wire Fence is made of "Page" wire, which is twice as strong as ordinary wire. Prices are particularly low this season. 50,000 miles of Page Fence now in use. We also make Gates, Ornamental Fences and Poultry Netting. The Page Wire Fence Co., Limited, Walkerville, Ont.

An explosion occurred at Managua, Nicaragua, April 16. A large two bar racks, situated near the lake front and in the centre of the city, was blown to fragments. Between 100 and 200 officers and soldiers are reported to have been killed and many soldiers and other persons are reported to have been injured. A large number of houses near the barracks were damaged or wrecked. The actual cause which led to the explosion has not yet been determined.

ONLY A LITTLE BACKACHE.

That is the first unmistakable symptom of diseased kidneys, an ailment which no one can neglect without inviting Bright's disease, diabetes, rheumatism and the most painful and fatal maladies. At the first sign of backache and urinary disorders use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you can be certain of prompt relief and cure. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

The matter of the Treadgold concession has now been settled to the satisfaction of all parties, says Mr. Ross, commissioner of the Yukon. The monopolistic rights respecting furnishing of water and the closing up of abandoned claims are done away with. The charter to be granted from which the objections raised have been eliminated.
