Thunder on 10th, hail on 13th May. FOR SALE—One first class cow. Apply to Wm. Long, Richibucto. A. Sayre has moved all his stock into his store next door to post-office. All kinds of Garden seeds at reduced prices at the People's Cheap Store, Rexton. A choice lot of dry goods, clothing and groceries at the People's Cheap Store, Rexton. The good ship Crescent is bound to win the race "with Dady Sailors." Geo. F. Atkinson. Snow on the 10th and ice one inch thick on the morning of the 11th May is not bad for an early spring. Shippegan reports last week's daily catch of herring at about 100 bbls., and from 15,000 to 20,000 lobsters. The regular meeting of Rexton Agricultural Society meets in the Public Hall in Rexton, on Saturday, 17th instant, at two o'clock. The Morning Star, Capt. Arsineau, while beating up river on Monday morning grounded on the flats near Gull's Island. Among the supplementaries voted at Ottawa last week are Chockfish River training pier, $2,000, and St. Louis, repairs to wharf $450. The new engine has been placed into position in R. O'Leary's saw mill by Mr. McKay of the Robb Engineering Company, Amherst. J. C. Vautour has rented his photo saloon for the year to a photographer from Hampton who is expected here to take charge in the near future. Rumors are afloat to the effect that steps are being taken to turn the streets of Richibucto into a cow pasture, appearances seem to give credit to the rumor. Where are the field drivers? The Keys found in the pound packages of UNION BLEND TEA should be returned to Harry W. deForest about the first of December. Holders of lucky Keys will receive $400 in cash, divided into various sums, shortly before Christmas. Samples of Coal, said to be from the Mount Carlyle coal mine in Kent county, were seen in Sussex yesterday, and if there proves to be a good paying body of it, the owners have struck it rich. The coal is albercite of a first class nature, and its being found in this region is somewhat peculiar.—Record. Spring is here, prepare for the winter, is advice which many townsmen have been following during past week in getting in their next winter's supply of hard coal, and by indications from newspaper reports it is a wise move as the hard coal miners of Pennsylvania were ordered out on strike on Monday. About a week ago, says the Gleaner, at the head of Little River, Harry Allen, the well known Penniac guide, trapped one of the largest bears ever captured in the hunting grounds of New Brunswick. The monster is the largest bear Mr. Allen ever saw, and measures eleven feet four inches from the end of the nose to the end of the tail. The Portage River Fishing Club held its annual meeting on Tuesday, Richard O'Leary was re-elected President; George Raymond, Vice-President; Wm. H. Hogan, Treasurer; A. E. O'Leary, Secretary, and Dr. T. J. Bourque, Auditor. The managing committee are: A. E. McSweeney, H. H. Fairweather, George W. Raymond, Dr. T. J. Bourque, A. E. O'Leary and Wm. D. Carter. Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Robert Little, which occurred at his home in New Lorne Settlement on the 8th instant. The deceased was a native of Kent County having been born in Galloway in 1824. A large family survive him most of whom reside in this County. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives. A Fredericton despatch says: Gilmore Brown is in the city for a few days. Mr. Brown has been engaged recently in making a preliminary survey and estimate of the cost of a six mile piece of railway to run from Coal Branch station on the line of the I. C. R., to the mines of the Canadian Coal & Manganese Company, and will be operated as their private property and in the interest exclusively of the company's business. The work of construction may begin this fall. The R. A. D. C. is once more to the front, they intend to play that popular drama Because I Love You in the Public Hall at Buctouche on Empire Day, May 23rd, performance begins at 8 o'clock admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. This club have put on the boards several very successful plays in Richibucto and because I Love You drew crowded houses both in town and at Rexton, lovers of an evening's enjoyable entertainment should make it a point to be at Buctouche on Empire Day.

Lost Hair

"My hair came out by the handful, and the gray hairs began to creep in. I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, and it stopped the hair from coming out and restored the color."—Mrs. M. D. Gray, No. Salem, Mass.

There's a pleasure in offering such a preparation as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It gives to all who use it such satisfaction. The hair becomes thicker, longer, softer, and more glossy. And you feel so secure in using such an old and reliable preparation.

STRAY COW.—Red cow, both ears clipped, milking, strayed to the barn of the undersigned about a week ago, owner can have same by proving ownership and paying for this ad. WILLIAM H. WATHEN, Richibucto. Hon. F. G. M. Dechene, Quebec's Minister of Agriculture, is dead, his brother, Senator Dechene, died only a few days previously. Mr. Dechene will be remembered by many Kent County politicians, he having stumped Kent for Hon. O. J. LeBlanc in 1892. The Summerside correspondent of the St. John Sun writes:—Schooner Torridon, Capt. Bruce, which arrived a few days ago at Summerside, reports having picked up the pilot boat Empress, Capt. Long, of Richibucto, dismasted, with two men on board. They had drifted for 20 hours. The men were landed at Richibucto. Moniteur Acadien. Mr. Oliver J. O. LeBlanc, Fishery guardian, of Buctouche, honored us with a visit Tuesday. He came in company with Inspector R. A. Chapman, who returned from Buctouche Monday evening. Mr. LeBlanc is one of the best fishery officers in the province, regilent, sympathetic, and always ready to instruct the people on the fishery regulations which concern them. He informs us that smelts have been abundant during the winter. A new industry has employed many in his district. It is the fishing of quahog clams, which fish dealers buy for the United States markets. In making his report on the fisheries in his district for the last year, Mr. LeBlanc stated that in this fishery there had been a good season, and that good wages had been earned by those engaged in it. Many families earned $150, $200 and $300 in the course of last winter.

The Late Robert Main of Galloway.

The death of Robert Main, one of the leading farmers of Kent and also extensively engaged in lumbering, occurred at his home in Galloway on Wednesday morning, 7th instant. The deceased had been taken suddenly ill about ten days previously and all that medical aid could do was done, but to no avail, although he did seem to rally but on Monday he suffered a relapse. He was sixty-seven years of age and leaves a widow, one daughter and four sons to mourn their loss. The Rev. Charles O. Main, of Sydney, and John who lives at home, were present at the funeral. George, James, and Mrs. Bain, of British Columbia were unable to be present. The funeral was held on Friday at three o'clock, the Rev. D. Fraser officiating. The interment was made at Galloway and notwithstanding the heavy rain it was largely attended thus showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by all.
