THE WORLD OVER.

Paul Liecester Ford, the novelist, was shot and killed Thursday at New York by his brother, Malcolm Webster Ford, writer and athlete, who immediately sent a bullet into his own breast, dying instantly. It is said that there was enmity between the two brothers and consequent bitterness of 11 years' standing; that never since the death of their father have they been on intimate or brotherly terms. This alleged enmity on the part of Malcolm is said to have been brought about by the fact that the father of the boys disinherited Malcolm and that this action on the father's part was because he did not wish Malcolm to devote himself to an athletic career.

Representative J. S. Salmon, of the Fourth District of New Jersey died suddenly to-day at his home in Bountan. Apoplexy was the cause of death. A widow, two sons and a daughter survive.

The American Congress of Tuberculosis has been postponed to June 23 and 4.

Violent earthquake shocks which occurred in Paris at three o'clock this morning are also reported from Bordeaux, Bayonne, Pau and other places in the same region. They lasted fifteen seconds. The reports do not mention any damage.

EVERY WOMAN NEEDS IT.

There are times when every woman is tormented by itching skin and would give anything for relief. There is a preparation, known as Dr. Chase's Ointment, which is a prompt relief for these sufferings. Women prize it both for their own use and for its wonderful effectiveness in curing Baby Eczema, scald head chafing, and the various skin diseases of childhood.

Lord Minto and party attended the horse show at Montreal and were greatly pleased with the fine exhibits. The principal prize of the show, the governor general's medal, donated by Lord Minto for the best Canadian bred mare or gelding, was won by Aram Beck of London, with his bay gelding Solitaire.

How Cows Lie.
A cattlemen says that all cows lie down on their left side and never on their right unless the left is injured.

Caviare.
More than 70,000 pounds of so called caviare which was sold last year in Chicago and New York was really taken from the Mississippi river catfish instead of from sturgeon.

Fireproof Paper.
Fireproof paper can be made by saturating any paper in a strong solution of alum and then drying it.

Suicide in England.
During the last fifty years the suicidal tendency in England has grown into a formidable disease. The growth, too, has been continuous. Suicide has steadily increased 200 per cent. Unhappily, too, the growth has been most rapid in recent years.

Constables and Coal.
Married constables of the London police force receive forty pounds of coal a week all the year round.

A Good Tooth Powder.
Two ounces of prepared chalk, half an ounce of powdered orris root, quarter of an ounce of carbonate of soda. Dry, mix thoroughly and pass twice through a fine wire sieve.

Perfumed Wine.
Greek and Roman wines were perfumed by steeping the leaves of roses or violets in the liquor until it had acquired the odor of the flowers.

Swiss Avalanches.
Avalanches are so common in Switzerland that devices are made to control them. The Swiss form earthworks or intrenchments which are pointed in such a fashion that avalanches coming in contact with them are split and so driven aside.

Farmer Soldiers.
Of the soldiers in the civil war 48 per cent were farmers.

Storm Signals.
Large owners of marine property estimate that one severe storm, sweeping the Atlantic coast in the absence of danger signals, would leave not less than $3,000,000 worth of wreckage in its wake.

Unlucky Thirteen.
A New York man saved 1,300 pennies during many years and then had the bulky treasure stolen.

Selenium.
Selenium, one of the cheapest of the rare metals, is worth $22 a pound. It has the property of losing its resistance to the electric current under the influence of light and so is used in certain instruments, such as the telescope, which utilizes light rays as a means of conveying signals.

American Pine.
American pine when green weighs 44 pounds 12 ounces to the cubic foot. When seasoned, its weight is reduced to 30 pounds 11 ounces.

German Miles.
The mile in Germany is a somewhat puzzling measure. The explanation is that there are three kinds of miles—the German short mile, 6,859 yards; the German geographical mile, 8,237 yards; and the German long mile, 10,126 yards.

Sago Palm.
One acre of sago palm yields as much nourishment as 163 acres of wheat.

The Poisonous Lilies.
The lily of the valley contains a poison of the most deadly kind. Not only the flower itself, but also the stem as well, contains an appreciable quantity of prussic acid.

Dreams.
A physician mentions the case of a man who could be made to dream of any subject by whispering about it into his ear while he slept, and it is a familiar fact that persons who talk to their sleep will frequently answer questions if spoken to softly.

A Chinese Belief.
The Chinese believe that water obtained from melting hailstones is poisonous and that rainwater which falls on certain feast days will cure malarial fever.

Oil For Heavy Machinery.
For lubricating the journals of heavy machinery either rape oil or sperm oil is the best to use in mixture with mineral oil, as they have the least effect on brass and iron, which two metals generally constitute the bearing surfaces of an engine.

Nobility and Ermine.
A baron's robe has two rows of ermine, that of a viscount two and one-half rows, an earl's has three rows, a marquis' three and one-half and a duke's robe four complete rows.

For Old Age.
French seamen and miners are obliged by law to make provision for their old age.

Gum Arabic.
The collecting of gum arabic is greatly facilitated by ants. They perforate the bark of the acacia to get at the wood to lay their eggs, and thus the juice exudes, each perforation being marked by a globule of gum.

The Eirecom.
The heaviest precious stone is the eirecom, which is four and one-half times heavier than water. The lightest is the opal, only twice as heavy as water.

The Fly Agaric.
The fly agaric, a sort of fungus, is so called because steeped in milk it is used to kill flies.

HIS HORSES WERE WOODEN

But All the Same He Had to Pay For a Livery License.

As "his honor" sat on the bench from which even handed justice was dispensed in the town of Lavilla, which flourished way down in Florida before the days of Greater Jacksonville, he was amazed to note among the prisoners at the bar a "paleface."

Casting the eagle eye of the law over the room, he was agitated still more to observe a "billed" shirt and standing collar and that these were worn by another white man.

The marshal, being called on, explained that one white gentleman was arrested by him for running a "flying jenny" without a license, and the other was his lawyer. To a man cast in a less heroic mold than the mayor such complete smashing of all records and invading of precedent would have been a Waterloo. A white man arrested in Lavilla and a lawyer appearing to plead in its court! To what are we coming?

Repressing all signs of such a strain on his judicial composure, the mayor announced that to fittingly mark so great an occasion he would disregard the calendar and take up the white man's case first.

The lawyer demanded the immediate discharge of the prisoner on the ground that there was no ordinance requiring "flying jenny" to pay a license and "throw the court on its 'beam ends'" by asking for a copy of the ordinance book.

No one had seen it in years. Many doubted if there had ever been one. A whispered consultation was held between the mayor and the marshal and a search instituted which revealed the book, with a brick on top of it, supplying the place of a missing leg of the stove.

After looking vainly through the book for law on "flying jennies" his honor delivered judgment as follows: "Ordinance No. 11 requires all keepers of livery stables to pay a license of $10 and imposes a fine of twice the amount for running without a license. The defendant must pay both the fine and the license."

"But," objected the lawyer, "this man don't run a livery stable; he runs a 'flying jenny.'"

"He keeps horses for hire, doesn't he?"

"Yes, but they are wooden horses, and he charges a nickel for one ride."

"The ordinance makes no fine distinction. It says livery stables require a license. A livery stable is a place where horses are kept for hire. It makes no difference whether they are wooden horses or 'meat' horses. Next case, Mr. Marshal."

Stone Throwing.
A propensity to throw stones regardless of consequences has been one of the earliest signs of natural depravity among men since time began and, we fear, must continue that way until the millennium ushers in the era when bad boys are no more and stones are confined to their proper and legitimate uses.

Anyway, the mischief wrought by this vicious and execrable habit looms up into serious proportions, when the figures are given out by plate glass insurance men showing that it costs not less than $250,000 a year to make good the losses thus caused by reckless boys in this country alone.

With stone throwing costing $250,000 a year, carelessness in setting fires costing hundreds of millions more and heedless accidents causing immense sacrifice of property, the good people have many bills to foot which ought not to be theirs.

The Coffee Heart.
The largest part of the coffee grown in the world is consumed in the United States, and some of our life insurance societies are beginning to realize how its excessive use increases the risks of life. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart, and medical examiners for insurance companies have added the term "coffee heart" to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. These physicians advise that the use of coffee be limited to not more than two cups a day. Coffee toppers, they say, are plentiful and are as much tied to their cups as the whisky toper. The effect of the coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor.

Advance Prayers.
A young Germantown mother in putting her five-year-old son to bed noticed that he clambered under the covers without saying his prayers. She grew reproachful. "Why, Warren, mother never knew you to forget your prayers before."

"Indeed, mother," was the reply, "I didn't forget. Grace and I said them for four nights during the rain yesterday, when we couldn't play. We would have got through the whole week if nurse had not come to dress us."

His Queer Way.
Dumleigh—What a queer chap Synnex is!

Gargan—In what way?

Dumleigh—I was saying that Tyson claimed to be a great mind reader, but he was unable to read my mind, and Synnex said that the best book reader could not read if there was no book before him. That's the way Synnex has of suddenly wandering from the subject.

Census bulletin No. 8 shows that there were last year 208,803 persons of English birth in Canada, against 219,688 in 1891 and 169,504 in 1881, showing that in the last decade the immigration from England does not make good the death and exodus of English-born Canadians. The Irish-born population shows a greater reduction. It fell off from 185,526 in 1881 to 149,184 in 1891, and 101,628 in 1901. The Scots in Canada numbered 115,062 in 1881, 107,584 in 1891 and only 83,631 in 1901.

Burning, Itching, Stinging Piles

If people could only realize the virtue of Dr. Chase's Ointment they would not suffer long with piles.

Mr. W. H. Whitehair, a well-known and respected citizen, of Cobourg, Ont., states:—"Having used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles, I can testify to its great value. The suffering which I endured from the burning, itching, stinging sensation of piles was something awful, and I can say that there is nothing in this world to equal Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for this dreadful disease. I tried a great many remedies, but never got more than slight relief from any of them. But while Dr. Chase's Ointment brought quick relief I went further and made a thorough cure. I cannot say too much in recommendation of this great remedy."

This is the only preparation which is positively guaranteed to cure any form of piles. Ask your neighbors about it. 60c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A New Brunswick Lady Who Had Become a Physical Wreck is Marvellously Restored.

She Would Have The Whole World Know that Paine's Celery Compound Was her Deliverer from Disease.

A Special Message Of Comfort For Sick and Despondent Women.

Ten years of suffering from treacherous kidney disease is of itself a heavy record of sickness and agony for one frail woman. When we add to kidney suffering, nervousness, sleepless and continued overwork in the home, it marks a condition of life that draws forth our tenderest and deepest sympathies.

Such a condition of life was bringing Mrs. W. Irvine, of Queen St., St. John, N. B., very close to the dark grave. Notwithstanding the regular use of common advertised remedies and doctors' prescriptions, the ravages of disease continued and friends of Mrs. Irvine said with sad voices, "she was going fast to death."

Just before deadly disease could finish its work, the use of that wondrous life-giver, Paine's Celery Compound, was recommended. Soon, hope—a new hope—cheered the sad heart and brightened up the pallid face. A powerful, searching, life-giving agent was working at the root of disease. It was making new blood; it was nourishing and strengthening nerves and body; it was saving a precious life.

Take comfort and cheer, ye weary, sick and diseased women, from Mrs. Irvine's experience. The remedy that successfully met and conquered her troubles will, without fail, meet your case. Mrs. Irvine speaks of her case as follows:

"I have been troubled for the past ten years with kidney disease and have tried a great many preparations and doctors' prescriptions, but with little or no benefit. For the last six months I have had a great strain upon my system from night-watching and overwork. I was breaking down; my friends said, 'I was going fast to death.' I resolved to try Paine's Celery Compound, and used four bottles. My kidney trouble disappeared; nervousness and sleeplessness are troubles of the past, and my general health is good. In a word, I am cured; I wish you to publish this so that the world can read it."

Lord Salisbury, during his speech to the Primrose League in London Wednesday, said the government had not receded an iota from its previous peace terms to the Boers. He congratulated the league on the staunch support given to Conservative governments, one result of which was that Great Britain was now supreme in Egypt, while with regard to Ireland, the country need no longer fear the "insane, suicidal projects of imperial disruption supported by many of the opposition statesmen." Touching on the question of imperial federation, Lord Salisbury warned his hearers of the danger of over-haste, and exhorted those who were anxious to secure federation to earnestly consider the steps they were going to take and the results expected.
