—The state of trade in New Brunswick appears to be generally healthy. There have been no business failures of any magnitude for a considerable period, and the volume of trade has been large. The lumber business has been good, the crops appear to be turning out well, and the prospects for fall trade in general merchandise are said to be excellent. Dairy produce is bringing higher prices than last year.—Ex.

—For the information of those interested THE REVIEW begs to state that all items of news of interest to any of our readers are very acceptable and any person will confer a favor by sending in any items of news concerning Kent County and its people. During the past week one subscriber refused his copy of THE REVIEW because this paper neglected to mention that he had attended the St. John Exhibition. It was not the editor's fault, we were unaware of the fact, we can only say that we sincerely hope he enjoyed his trip and when next he goeth abroad may we be there to see or he might send a messenger to our sanctum bearing the news.

Native of Kent County.

By telegram to Mr. J. B. Russ, at Summerside, P. E. I., is learned the death of Mrs. John Murray, of Brandon, Man., which occurred on Monday last. Deceased, who was a sister of Mrs. Russ, was about 51 years of age and leaves a sorrowing husband and four daughters to mourn their irreparable loss. Mrs. Murray was an exceptionally clever woman of kind hearted and loving disposition and her death will be deeply regretted by a great many acquaintances. She was a native of Kent County, N. B., and has resided in Brandon during the past eighteen years. About four years ago she made her first visit to her old home since leaving, and the same summer spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Russ.—Guardian.

[Mrs. John Murray was formerly Miss Jeffries Main, the second youngest daughter of the late John Main, she was a sister of the late Mrs. Hazen Russ and of the first wife of Mrs. Wm. Smith, and of Mrs. (Capt.) Andrews of St. A. draws. Mrs. Howard Trueman of Point de Bute and Miss Jessie Main of St. Andrews are also sisters of the deceased. Mrs. Holding and Mrs. Wm. Dickinson of Rexton, are nieces of the deceased.]

Death of John S. Phinney.

We have this week to record the death of John S. Phinney which occurred at his home at Ford's Mills on Monday last. Deceased was the son of the late Zacheus Phinney of Richibucto. He had been ill for some time with heart trouble and his death was therefore not unexpected. The body was brought to Richibucto on Tuesday to the home of his mother and was buried in the Richibucto burying ground on Wednesday evening upon the arrival of the train. Rev. D. Fraser officiated at the funeral assisted by Rev. H. R. Baker and Rev. H. A. Meek. Deceased leaves surviving him his mother and wife and four small children, for whom much sympathy is felt in their bereavement.

Resigned His Job.

(Vancouver World.)

F. Cowperthwaite has decided to resign his position as city superintendent of schools.

Some dissatisfaction has for some time existed between the board and Mr. Cowperthwaite with regard to the superintendency.

It was decided that Mr. Cowperthwaite take the position of principal of the Dawson school. Till Oct. 1 Mr. Cowperthwaite will continue to act nominally as superintendent, giving the board all assistance. Citizens will be glad that this resignation of the city superintendency does not mean the severance of all relations with the scholastic board, for Mr. Cowperthwaite is one of the best men that has ever been connected with the educational department.

[Mr. Fred Cowperthwaite is a brother of Principal C. H. Cowperthwaite of Kent County Grammar School and was himself at one time principal of the Grammar School here. He graduated from the U. N. B. some twenty years ago, taught school in New Brunswick for a number of years and then went to British Columbia where he soon rose to the superintendency of the Vancouver schools.]
