

BLOOD TROUBLES.

MANIFEST THEMSELVES IN MANY DISAGREEABLE WAYS.

Such as Scrofula, Eczema, Boils and Pimples. The Blood should be Purged During the Spring Months.

The Spring season is the time for cleansing and blood renewing. Blood troubles are many—and dangerous—manifest themselves in a score of ways, such as scrofula, eczema, boils and pimples. The impurities that get into the blood pursue their poisonous course all over the body and are responsible for a large proportion of all diseases, serious in their nature but dangerous in the extreme. To have pure blood and plenty of it, you need a tonic and blood builder, and for this purpose there is nothing can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills cure all diseases due to impurities in the blood by promptly cleansing and freeing the blood from all poisonous and offensive matter. If your blood is thin or insufficient; if you suffer from exhaustion at the least exertion; if you are pale, easily get out of breath, and feel constantly languid and fagged out, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure you by filling your veins with new, rich, red blood. Mr. Robt. Lee, New Westminster, B. C., says:—"Before I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, my blood was in a very impure state, and as a result, pimples, which were very itchy, broke out all over my body. My appetite was fickle and I was easily tired. I tried several medicines, but they did not help me. Then my wife urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got a half dozen boxes and by the time I had used them I was completely restored to health, and my skin was smooth and clear. I shall always speak a good word for these pills when opportunity affords."

It is because these pills make rich, red blood that they cure such troubles as anemia, shortness of breath, headache, palpitation of the heart, rheumatism, cramp, St. Vitus' dance, and the functional ailments that makes the lives of so many women a source of constant misery. The genuine pills always bear the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper of every box, or sent by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE APRIL DELINEATOR.

A further generous supply of the Spring fashions, which have now taken definite shape, is given in the current Delineator. The modes of the season are graceful and becoming and in unusual harmony with the new goods and trappings. The literary features make this number a notable one. Charles G. D. Roberts contributes a novelette, The Chateau of Cheticamp, the scene of which is laid in Acadia, which the author pictures so delightfully; the action is rapid and full of interest. Dr. S. R. Elliott writes entertainingly of Kate Field one of the cleverest and versatile of women, who entered so largely into the social life of Washington. A fine pictorial opportunity is grasped in an article on the Interpretation of Beauty, with text by N. Hudson Moore. The Religious Sentiment in Photography will appeal to camera lovers and is especially timely at this season. In the series on Athletics for women, Regis Senac a well-known fencing master, writes of his art and special illustrations are given. The home interests are strongly represented in an article on draperies, the lesson in cookery, and the items on household science; while parents are directly appealed to in Dr. Murray's second paper on the training of children, for whom amusement is provided in more pastimes by Lina Beard and another brownie story by Silas G. Pratt.

An Ottawa firm of jewellers has just completed a beautiful tiara or crown, to be worn by Lady Laurier at the Coronation next June. The base of the ornament is made of platinum faced with gold. There are 175 selected diamonds in it, rendering in their dazzling combination a beautiful effect. The tiara has been chosen by Lady Laurier herself, and will prove a striking ornament in the wealth of gems that will be worn at the Coronation.

A Sluggish Liver Brings Biliousness.

Headache, Indigestion and Constipation—To Set the Liver Right You Must Use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Good health is impossible when the liver is deranged. The skin tells of the poisoned state of the system by pimples, blotches and liver spots; the tongue is coated, the head aches, digestion is impaired and the bowels are irregular. There will come spells of dizziness and weakness, palpitation, shortness of breath and menstrual derangements. In sympathy with the liver the kidneys become clogged and the most serious complications arise. Search where you will it is impossible to find a better treatment for biliousness and liver complaint than Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Having a direct and combined action on the kidneys and liver they are so thorough and searching as to promptly afford relief and cure.

These are scarcely a home in this whole country where Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are unknown. They have made their way by force of merit until physicians and people alike recognize in them the most unusual medicinal value. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

FAME FISH IN A RIVER.

A Traveler's Story of What He Saw in Upper Burma.

When, in camp the other day, I was riding through a village when the village headman asked me if I would like to see "the fish." I, not knowing what the headman meant, at once went with him down to the banks of the stream, followed by several villagers with baskets of seshannum and paddy mixed together. Then the thug called "Lay, lay, lay, lay," for a few moments, when, lo and behold, a large herd of ngatwe, or big, short, flatfish fish, came up just under our feet and were promptly fed by the Burmans.

The fish were amazingly tame and tolerated being stroked and petted even by me. There were in all about thirty-three of them, varying in size from eighteen inches to three and a half feet long, the larger ones having a girth at the gills of about thirty inches. They would go away and come back whenever they were called. The villagers told me—and I see no reason to doubt what they say—that these same fish come up against the monsoon flood at the end of June and go away about October every year. They can recognize individual fish by marks, scars, etc., which they pointed out to me.

The Mon is nearly dry in the cold and end of the hot weather, and the fact that these fish return to this one village landing stage every year regularly and never go to any other is quite worthy of remark. A villager who kills any of them has to undergo a penalty of 10 shillings by common consent, and great care is in consequence taken of them. The ngatwe of upper Burma is a very short, thick fish, tapering rapidly from behind the gills to the tail, has long feelers on both upper and lower lip and has no noticeable teeth. He makes very good eating and has but few bones. I have often heard of tame fish in tanks, but a herd of tame fish in a monsoon river connected with the great Irrawadi is a very bizarre phenomenon.

ATTACKED BY A HERON.

Boy Tries to Capture the Bird and Nearly Loses His Life.

"I've hunted everything from gray squirrels to grizzlies," said a veteran Philadelphia sportsman to a writer in the New York Times, "and the nearest I ever came to being seriously injured by any sort of game was one time when a wounded bird attacked and tried to kill me."

"I was a boy then and went down to a creek that flowed through my father's farm to watch for a mink. It was early in the evening and a blue heron came and sat within tempting gunshot. I knew it would spoil my chances at mink to shoot the bird, and I didn't intend to do it, but, kidlike, I raised the gun and took aim just to see how I could kill it if I would. I lowered the gun and then raised it again. Every time I raised it I would touch the trigger gently. After a while I touched it too hard, the gun went off and I started toward the heron, which was wounded. "I thought it would be a good scheme to catch the bird and started to do so when its bill shot out like a sledge hammer and struck me between the eyes. When I came to my senses, it was dark, and it was several minutes longer before I could remember where I was or what had happened. A little harder and the bird would have killed me. I shudder even yet when I think what would have been the result if the bill had struck one of my eyes."

The Awakening.

The meanest man on earth has just been located. His mind had been wandering with fever for three weeks, and when he came back to his senses and opened his eyes he saw a fair face under a white cap bending over his pillow.

"Who—who are you?" he gasped. "I'm the trained nurse." "The trained nurse! Oh, good Lord! And how much am I paying you?" She told him, and he turned his head, groaning in the soreness of his affliction. A few moments later, though, his face lit up with a flash of hope. "But I'm back in my right mind now, ain't I?" "Why, yes; I think you are." "All right, then," with fierce exultation. "I give you notice for tonight!"

Origin of Our Secret Service.

The United States secret service had its origin in the early sixties under the auspices of the war department. It actually grew out of the fact of Captain Lafayette P. Bauer of the Union army offering his services to Secretary Seward as a police scout to gather information concerning the Confederate army. During the war the United States began the issuance of greenbacks. Then came the first appearance of "green goods" men. By an act of congress in 1861 or 1862 $10,000 was appropriated for the maintenance of Baker's service to suppress counterfeiting. The supervision of the service was then under the solicitor of the treasury.

In the Studio.

"Your work bears the closest kind of inspection," remarked the girl with the dimple. "What infinite pains you must take with it!" "Perhaps," replied the artist; "but, do you know, I enjoy the pains." "Then," she rejoined, with a bright smile, "you, too, pursue art for art's sake."

A Compromise.

Borroughs—Say, old man, lend me $20 till the first of the month, will you? Mackley—Well—er—I'll compromise with you. I'll lend you $1 till the 20th.—Philadelphia Press.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in that ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

THE GARDENER.

Soot is an excellent fertilizer for plants, especially for house plants.

In taking up plants for transplanting secure all of the roots possible.

Cultivation in a dry time is most injurious to weeds and beneficial to crops.

If you desire a stocky branched graft, tip the end of the young growth after it has grown six inches or more.

To destroy ants in the lawn it is recommended to dig to the bottom of the nests and cover the bottom with coarse salt and fill in the soil again.

Mulching continuously is not advisable with any kind of fruit trees, as it draws the roots too near the surface, so that they lose their hold on the soil.

It never injures a tree or vine to cut out the dead wood at any season of the year. Dead wood may readily be seen at any time, and all such should be cut out.

Young shade trees should be trimmed into shape the first few years after setting out. The beauty of a shade tree depends upon the shape given it when young.

Too many apple trees are too full of twigs and small limbs. They form a dense mass that the sun and air cannot penetrate. Such trees seldom blossom in the center, and if they do the fruit rarely matures.

Sharp.

Bishop Philpotts of Exeter early earned his reputation for saying things. One of the guests at an undergraduate's party in Oxford sang a song much out of tune. Then Philpotts was called upon. "I haven't a note in my voice," said he. "Well, if you can't sing you must make a speech or tell a story!" declared the host.

"If I am to tell a story," said the future bishop, "I think I should say that I should like to hear—sing that song again!"

Much later in life he went to pay a visit in Devonshire. "It is a beautiful place, isn't it?" asked a guest. "Yes," said the bishop, "but if it were mine I would pull down the house and fill up the pond with it. That would remove two objections."

The Oriental as Advertiser.

We are apt to associate advertising entirely with the bustling life of the western world, but oriental advertisers are not all so sleepy as we imagine. Here are a few samples of the ingenious phrasing with which they catch the public eye: "Goods dispatched expeditiously as a cannon ball."

"Parcels done up with such care as a loving wife bestows upon her husband."

"We sell paper as tough as elephant's hide."

"The print of our books is clear as crystal, the matter charming as a singing girl."

"Customers are treated as politely as by rival steamship companies."

"Our silks and satins are smooth as a lady's cheek and colored like the rainbow."

He Drew the Line.

"Hold on, there!" called Charon to the new arrival at the ferry over the Styx. "You wait until the next trip, and I'll take you over alone." "Why this distinction?" inquired one of the spirit passengers. "Oh, he's one of those fools that rock the boat, and I didn't want to spoil the trip for the rest of you."

Profession.

"Do you consider acting a profession?" said the young woman who asks very direct questions.

"Yes," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes; "at all events it must be admitted that there are a great many more people professing to than actually acting."
