MAIN RIVER.

While waiting for the rain to cease till I bring in the next load of hay, I had time to think of some news that might interest some readers of THE REVIEW.

Schools in this vicinity opened last Monday. Miss McLean of Jardineville has engaged to teach in Lower Main River school.

Mrs. Norman McAuley left to visit friends in Miramichi.

Mr. Thomas Ferguson who has been employed as engineer in Ferguson's mill, left for his home in Harcourt last week. His many friends will miss him.

Mr. William Walker of Buctouche, and Mr. Bonar Law of Rexton were the guests of Mr. Hugh McKay last Sunday.

Mr. Joseph Murphy and Miss Agnes Shortall of South Branch visited friends here.

Mr. John Hanrahan and Mr. Shortall passed through here on a business trip Wednesday.

Mr. George Wilt, our ex mail driver, is employed as watchman in Ferguson's mill. There is no better man than George for night work.

A wedding has been announced and if all reports are true it is to take place August twenty-first.

Parties are quite numerous, although dancing is not indulged in as much as it formerly was in Main River.

Miss Wood of Bass River spent a few days the guest of Mrs. Jas. McDermott.

Miss Obellina McLeary has returned from a visit to Harcourt.

Mr. Lachance has proven himself a man of energy and is rushing things at the quarry.

The bicycle fad is slowly dying away. Perhaps it is because some of the most enthusiastic riders have gone.

Miss Vernie McLeary is in South Branch visiting friends.

Mr. Jas Carr still presides in Upper Main River school, but is soon to take his departure for Halifax.

A blue berry picking was enjoyed by a number of young people.

Mr. P. V. Chrystal spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Wilson and daughter Eva, of Harcourt spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. Harry Wilson of Campbellton has surprised his old friends by a few days' visit. He received a hearty welcome from all who knew him before he went up north where he holds the position of dispatcher.

I have exhausted my supply of news, but promise to write more.

"Amber, Test It."

KENT JUNCTION.

We are pleased to hear that Kent Junction is soon to be visited by some American sportsmen and we hope that should they come that they will be successful in bagging some large game. As stated in the guide book, Kent Junction is noted for its game but has only within the last few years come into prominence.

The town has greatly increased in population within the last few days owing to the influx of berry pickers, who make things bustle in their line.

NOTRE DAME NOTES.

On Sunday, 17th inst., Peter Richard, of Buctouche, and Adel Cormier, of St. Anthony, were married by the Rev. Father Dufour. The bridal party dined at the Cobham hotel, where their wants were adequately looked after by Mrs. John Johnston and a staff of waiters. In the afternoon they departed for home.

Mr. Wesley Ripley, of Port Howe, Nova Scotia, is in town.

Mr. Morton Forest left yesterday morning for Amherst to attend the wedding of a relative. He will return Friday.

Mr. Charles E. Lockhart, after winning the association medal at Moncton, has gone to Sussex to compete for provincial honors with his rifle and is giving a good account of himself.

On Tuesday night, 12th inst., some miscreants stole Joseph Grady's horse from the road in front of his house and the most diligent search has failed to reveal any trace of it and the horse thieves with their booty are still at large.

Miss Miranda Biggs, of Little River, who was spending a few days at Mr. William Johnston's, returned home on Monday.

Miss Lizzie Murphy is visiting her sister Mrs. John Grady.

Fred Legere, nephew of Placide Gogain, of Cocagne, tiring of the monotony of home life, left secretly Tuesday night and made his way to Notre Dame, departing in the morning by the M. & B. train for Moncton. As soon as his absence was discovered searching parties were organized but without success, until Thomas St. Peter, thinking that he might have taken the iron horse to assist him in his flight, came here to find that the bird had flown.

The Old, Old Wish.

We wish it were tomorrow
What time we work away
And later think with sorrow,
"Ah, if 'twere yesterday!"

Widow's Wish.

Young Widow—I wish you were wealthy.
Singleton—Why?
Young Widow—I need the money.

Self Hate.

"I hate a liar!" Wiggins cried.
Said Jiggins, "Then 'twould seem
You really ought to try and hide
Your lack of self esteem."

Anything to Oblige.

Hired Girl (about to leave)—Mrs. McJames, can you give me a recommendation?
Late Mistress—No, but I will.

An Improvement Suggested.

Her Smartness.

"She's a smart woman, I'm told."
"Well, in the sense that she can say things about people that make them smart she is."

A Truism.

Here's reason and rhyme
To a proverb applied:
A stitch, sirs, in time
Is worth two in the side.
