

EASING THE CHEST.

It is a cold on the chest that scares people and makes them sick and sore. The cough that accompanies the chest cold is racking. When the cold is a hard one and the cough correspondingly severe, every coughing spell strains the whole system. We feel sure that if we could only stop coughing for a day or so we could get over the cold, but we try everything we know of or can hear of in the shape of medicine. We take big doses of quinine until the head buzzes and roars; we try to sweat it out; we take big draughts of whiskey, but the thing that has its grip on the chest hangs on, and won't be shaken loose.

If the irritation that makes us cough could be stopped, we would get better promptly, and it is because Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is so soothing and healing to the inflamed throat that it is so efficient a remedy for coughs and colds. This really great medicine is a very simple preparation, made of extracts of barks and gums of trees, and it never deceives. It calms the throat and the desire to cough is gone. When the cough goes the work of cure is almost complete. All druggists sell Adamson's Balsam, 25 cents. Try this famous Balsam for your sore chest and you will find prompt relief.

HORSE SHOW FEATURES.

At the St. John Exhibition.

Arrangements are now concluded for an exhibit and display of horses at the St. John Exhibition, which will far eclipse anything in this line, attempted in the Maritime Provinces. An enthusiastic committee of horsemen have the matter in charge, and at a recent meeting, outlined the following programme:

On Monday, Sept. 1st, all the labor Unions of St. John and other centres will parade the City and proceed to the Exhibition grounds, where they will pass in review before the Grand Stand. In this procession will be 200 mounted teamsters. Special prizes have been arranged for their horses, which will first be paraded and judged. Following this, a complete programme of sports, including horse races, foot-races, tugs-of-war, etc., will be put on.

Tuesday, 9 a. m.—Judging of Medium Draughts, Heavy Draughts, Clydesdales, Shires, Percherons and Suffolk Punches.

Tuesday, 3 p. m.—Judging of Carriage Horses in harness (open to all carriage horses on the grounds.)

Wednesday, 9 a. m.—Judging of Carriage Horses (on the halter) and Standard Bred horses.

Wednesday Afternoon at Moosepath Park, 2.24 Class, trot and pace, purse $250; 2.28 Class, trot and pace, purse 2.50.

Thursday, 9 a. m.—Before the Grand Stand; Judging of Thoroughbreds, Hackneys, French Coaches and Ponies.

Thursday Afternoon, Moosepath Park, 2.40 Class, trot and pace, purse $200; Free-for-all, trot and pace, purse $500.

Friday, 9 a. m.—Draught Competition Horse-shoeing Competition.

Friday, 3 p. m.—Parade and judging of matched pairs and single carriage horses, owned in the City or County of St. John, followed by a general parade of all prize-winning horses.

The Torture of Itching Piles

Mr. John Harvey, Mayor of Ampror, Ont., states:—"Only persons who have experienced the torture of itching piles can form any idea of what I suffered from this horrible disease. I was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and can positively say that it has completely cured me. I tried very many so-called cures for piles, and can truthfully say that there is no remedy on the face of the earth like Dr. Chase's Ointment for this purpose. I would not be without it for any amount of money, and can heartily recommend it to all sufferers, as it is the best thing I ever used."

There are several imitations of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but so far it is the only preparation extant which is a positive and certain cure for piles of every form. You can rely on it absolutely, and it is only a waste of time and money to try substitutes. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmansons, Bates & Co., Toronto.

GAVE HIM HIS OWN WAY.

And Then the Customer Brought the Shoe Clerk to Time

"Now, there," said the shoe salesman, "is just what you want." "Is it?" asked the prospective customer. "I thought I said."

"Just let me put it on," interrupted the salesman. "But it is my recollection—" "Couldn't have a better fit," broke in the salesman. "Everybody is wearing them, and they're a bargain."

"Oh!" "Let me put on the other." Then, after a moment: "There you are, sir. Couldn't be better. Three-fifty, please."

"For what?" "For the shoes." "But I don't want the shoes. You asked me to let you put them on, and I was courteous enough to let you do it. I always try to be obliging. You said they were just what I wanted, but that was your judgment, and I'm accustomed to back my own. Now, if you've had all the divilment in this matter that you desire, will you please trot me out a pair of shoes according to the plans and specifications I gave you when I came in, and perhaps we can do business? I have found by experience that the only way to get what one wants from a shoe clerk is to let him have his own way for the first fifteen or twenty minutes, and then he may become tractable."

The Real Drummer.

"The term 'drummer,'" said a traveling salesman for a Market street wholesale house, "has come to be regarded as synonymous with cheek flashiness and dissipation. Just why this should be I don't know, unless people get the idea from stage jokes and comic papers. Perhaps years ago there was some justification for it, but there is no room for that sort of man today. Competition is too keen. The traveling salesman who stands well with his trade and with his own firm must attend strictly to business. It may sound strange and contrary to general belief, but most men in my line of work are of a religious turn. Some get into the churchgoing habit while stopping over Sunday in small towns, where there is nothing else to do. They get interested in religion and wind up by joining the church. Then, too, the country merchant is usually a man of affairs in his town, and is generally a pillar of the church and the churchgoing drummer is apt to make a greater impression on him than does one who is more worldly."

The Java Mangosteen.

"The most delicious of all the fruits of Java," writes a correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, "is the mangosteen. For years an enormous reward awaited the man who would bring a basket to the court of Holland, but unfortunately the fruit is too perishable and to taste it you must go to the country where it grows. Incased in a hard purple shell, lined with an exquisite pink gauze, are a number of snow white sections something like those of an orange, only each one growing smaller as they round the core. Each section contains one seed, incased in a substance like the pulp of the grape. To describe the flavor would be impossible, but if you can imagine a perfect blending of the flavor of the grape, orange, pineapple and banana you may have a notion of the delicious flavor of the mangosteen."

James Settled It.

Two boys in a rural Scotch district were one day discussing what sign it was when the cuckoo is heard for the first time in the year. One of them said it was a sign of getting married, while the other said it was a sign that you were going to be rich. A farmer, overhearing them, said, "That cannot be true, because I have heard it many times, and I am not married yet, and I am certainly not rich."

Just then a local worthy, known as "Dart Jamie," was passing by, and the farmer said, "Jamie, can you tell us what sign it is when you hear the cuckoo for the first time?" "Yes," said Jamie as he took his pipe from his mouth, "it's a sign you're not dead."

Scotch Thrift.

The ferryboat was well on her way when a violent storm arose, and fears were entertained for her safety.

The ferryman and his mate, both Scotchmen, held a consultation, and after a short debate the ferryman turned to his passengers and remarked anxiously:

"We'll just tak' yer tuppences now for we no ken what might come ower us."—London Answers.

A Church In Difficulties.

It was a New England parson who announced to his congregation on a recent Sunday, "You will be sorry to hear that the little church at Jonesville is once more tossed upon the waves, a sheep without a shepherd."

Fisherman's Luck.

"I understand that Miss Speck caught a duke while fishing in Europe." "Yes, but she declares that she hooked two princes, and they got away just as she was about to land them."

Cautious Patient.

"I see you pay your doctor's bills by check and send it by mail." "Sure. If I took him the money, he might charge me for another visit."

A Gentle Blow.

"Remember, my dear brethren," said the minister, "that charity covereth multitude of sins. I hope you'll be unusually generous in your offering this morning."—Detroit Free Press.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1902. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent specialists of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS advertisement with logo and text: Is a purely vegetable System Renovator, Blood Purifier and Tonic.

Always Wash Before They Pray. Moslems always bathe before they pray. They would not dare enter the house of prayer with unclean hands or feet or faces; hence when the muezzin's call is heard from the minaret five times a day faithful Moslems go out to the fountains that are found outside of every mosque and bathe themselves. There are innumerable bathhouses also in which genuine Turkish baths and massage are given. At the same time their houses are positively filthy—too filthy, as a rule, for human beings to occupy—and the streets of Constantinople and every other Turkish town are indescribable in their nastiness. The clothing they wear is as dirty as their bodies are clean, and their food is often unfit for sanitary reasons.

The Lion and the Unicorn. The unicorn came into the royal arms with James I. It belongs to the Royal arms of Scotland. The signet ring of Mary, mother of James, is in existence, having a unicorn on it. In the royal arms therefore one supporter represents England, the other Scotland. The lion and the unicorn occur also in ancient Buddhist scriptures, placed together as supporters. Both of these animals also are seen playing draughts together in the well known Egyptian painting. But the oldest connection of the two is in the blessing of Jacob and of Moses.

An Advantage of Armor. "That medieval armor must have been very uncomfortable," said a visitor at the museum. "Yes," answered the man with darned clothes, "but there was one satisfaction about it—a man could always take down a suit of it in entire confidence that the moths hadn't got into it."—Washington Star.

Comparing Families. Harold—My ancestors were all honest, but they were not stylish. "That's all right. My ancestors were all stylish, but so far as I can learn they wouldn't pay their debts."—Detroit Free Press.

Shot and Informal. "Have you had a housewarming in your new dwelling yet?" "Yes; my wife fired the redheaded cook the other day."—Chicago Tribune.

Might Have Prevented It. Little Walter was eating lunch when he gave his arm a sudden shove, and splash! down went the glass of milk. "I know you were going to spill that," said mamma angrily. "Well, if you knew," queried Walter, "why didn't you tell me?"

KUMFORT HEADACHE POWDERS advertisement with illustration of a woman holding her head and text: DON'T MAKE EXPERIMENTS. What's the use of continually making experiments with many so-called headache cures which utterly fail to relieve and are often dangerous to the health? It has been proved in thousands of cases that there is one plain, honest, natural cure for that distressing malady—Kumfort Headache Powders. These powders are not composed of harmful drugs, but are of a purely vegetable character, compounded of natural remedies for headaches of all kinds. They will cure the worst case of headache in a few minutes, whether it is a nervous headache, neuralgic headache or sick headache. They afford immediate relief, are safe, pleasant and effective, and have no unpleasant after effects. You want Kumfort Powders something different from other sorts—something honest—something that will do all we claim for them or your money refunded. The Rev. W. R. Harvey, formerly of Economy, N. S., writes: "Although not in the habit of giving testimonials, I have great pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Kumfort Powders. Being subject to nervous headaches, I am always able to find relief by using Kumfort Powders." H. W. Johnston & Son, Kingston, N. S., writes: "Please send me 60 boxes of Kumfort Headache Powders. They are the best selling medicine we have in the shop." H. C. Fulton, of Truro, of Supt. office of I. C. R., writes: "I cannot praise Kumfort Headache Powders too highly. Undoubtedly the best cure for headache." Mrs. J. P. Davidson, Burr's Church, N. B., writes: "I have used them and my experience is that they will cure a headache in a few minutes. It is nervous headache in my case." Four powders in 10c. package; twelve powders in 25c. package. All druggists, or by mail post paid on receipt of price. The F. G. Agers of Birds.

Among birds the swan lives to be the oldest, in extreme cases reaching 200 years. The falcon has been known to live 162 years. An eagle died in 1810 which had been caught 104 years before and was then quite old. A white headed vulture, which was caught in 1706, died in the aviary at Schonbrunn, near Vienna, in 1824. Parrots live more than a century. Water birds have a long life, exceeding that of several generations of men. Ravens also live over a hundred years.

In captivity magpies live from twenty to twenty-five years, and still longer in freedom. The common hen attains the age of from fifteen to twenty years. Doves live ten years and the little singing birds from eight to seventeen years. The nightingale's life is the shortest, ten years being the longest, and next comes the blackbird, which never lives longer than fifteen years.
