KENT JUNCTION.

As our correspondent left us as quietly as he came I will endeavor to fill his place to the best of my ability.

Things are moving briskly around town of late.

Mr. and Mrs. John McPherson spent a few days at their home in Trout Brook this week.

Miss Julia Morton returned home Tuesday after spending a few days with her friend Miss Tina McPherson.

W. H. Wood, our night agent, is, we are sorry to say, home on the sick list, but we hope for his speedy recovery.

D. Clarke, of Harcourt, is with us again. His company is enjoyed by young as well as by old, but very sorry his work is so tedious.

The K. N. R'y is making great time this winter, she has only missed a couple of trips so far.

Mrs. McLean, of Mortimore, spent a day in town last week.

William Legooft paid a flying visit to Acadieville on Tuesday. We expect to see others follow.

Mrs. Vye is spending a few days with her friend Mrs. E. Warman.

Rob, Warman who has been up north for some time past returned home on account of a sore hand. Cheer up, Bob, better days coming.

A few of the young folk of Kent Jct. met at the residence of T. McPherson on Monday evening and had a very pleasant time.

Bark hauling is the order of the day at present; an average of 3 cars being shipped per day.

We are much pleased with our new neighbors and wish them every success.

Miss Lizzie Horton who has been in the U. S. for the past six years is expected home in a few days.

ST. LOUIS.

Mr. Peter Vautour, who has been confined to his house for nearly a year is rapidly recovering under the skilful treatment of Drs. Bourque and McWilliams; Mr. Vautour visited the Village last week the first time in six months. All his friends were pleased to see him.

Mr. Placide Richard, one of St. Louis' oldest residents died last Saturday. He had reached the ripe old age of eighty. He leaves a wife and daughter.

Messrs. L. Galland and K. Richard arrived home on Monday from Ramford Falls.

The roads on the ice are in splendid condition and the young men of the place took the opportunity to give their fair ones a drive.

The many friends of Frances McLaughlin in St. Louis, regret to hear of her serious illness.

REXTON NOTES.

FEB. 18th.—Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Clark entertained a number of the young people of Rexton at tea on Thursday evening last. After a very sumptuous repast, the evening was enjoyably spent with progressive crokinole, followed by a number of vocal selections from Miss Kate Davidson, of Moncton, and several piano selections from Mrs. Dr. Keith, of Harcourt. The company broke up at a late hour, all expressing themselves agreeably-pleased. Those present were; Mrs. R. P. Doherty, Mrs. Dr. Keith, Miss Kate Davidson, Miss Manie Cameron, Miss Minnie Bowser, Dr. R. P. Doherty and Messrs. Odber Black, R. G. Girvan and Jas. J. Stothart.

Mr. Stephen Cameron who, during the past few months has been putting up smelts for W. S. Loggie in this town, returned to his home in Chatham on Tuesday. Mr. Cameron's coming here has been a great boon to the fishermen, as he compelled the other buyers to come up in their prices, thereby making it worth while for the fishermen to endure the cold and discomforts to which they are exposed.

Capt. Wm. Malley has sold his schooner and purchased the Kent Northern Hotel from Mr. Richard Hebert. This Hotel, during the past two years has been kept by Adolphe Melanson.

Mr. Simon Graham, an old and respected resident of this place, died on Friday morning of last week after four days' illness. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Aitken of Newcastle, conducted the service. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen here.

Rev. D. Fraser returned from Newcastle where he occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Aitken occupied the pulpit of St. Andrews church here on Sunday.

Miss Kate Davidson who during the past week, was visiting her sister Mrs. P. Doherty, returned to her home in Moncton on Saturday.

HARCOURT NOTES.

Mrs. Shaw and her daughter Mrs. Lingley, of St. John, are visiting Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Bayley at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Buckley and Miss Minnie Buckley went to Rogersville on Tuesday last to attend the funeral of Geraldine, daughter of Mr. John Buckley.

Mrs. M. F. Keith and Miss Blanche spent Sunday in Harcourt.

Rev. J. P. Wheeler has returned from visiting his home in Quebec.

Mr. J. F. Dorothy is still confined to his room with a severe cold.

Miss Bessie McIntosh left on Thursday for an extended visit to her aunt in Ipswich, Maine.

NO DANGER.

There is no danger of heart burn or heart troubles from the use of Chewing Tobacco, if it has been properly manufactured. Great care is taken in the manufacture of "Old Fox" and "Bons" Chewing Tobacco, to use only pure and wholesome ingredients, which will leave no bad after effects. If you are not already using these brands, try them. Even the tags are valuable. Save them and you can have your choice of 150 handsome presents. Tags are good up to JANUARY 1ST 1903.

IN "TYPHOID'S" TRAIL

Came violent Rheumatism and more violent Neuralgia—Doctors couldn't stem the disease tide—3 bottles of South American Rheumatic Cure "gave battle" and won gloriously.

Mr. W. W. Brownell, of Avonmore, Ont., says that a few years ago he had typhoid fever. After recovering was attacked most violently by Rheumatism and Neuralgia, he suffered so he thought he would die. Many a night thought he could not live till morning. Doctors tried to relieve him but could not. After taking three bottles of South American Rheumatic Cure every vestige of pain left him and he was as well as ever.
