RICHIBUCTO, N. B. FEB. 27, 1902.

PROHIBITION IN ONTARIO.

In the Ontario Legislature Premier Ross has introduced his promised bill regarding the sale of intoxicating liquors. Its provisions are very similar to those of the Manitoba Prohibition act which has been declared intra vires by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. The bill does not prohibit the importation or manufacture of intoxicants and therefore does not trespass on the prerogatives of the Dominion Parliament as declared by the Courts. The prohibition extends simply to selling or exposing for sale, keeping or giving intoxicating liquors in any place whatsoever, other than in a private dwelling-house. There is nothing to prevent any one from importing a supply of liquor and using it in his own dwelling-house. If the bill passes the legislature as it no doubt will, there is a provision that it be afterwards submitted to a vote of the people, when if the vote cast in its favor be more than one half the total number of votes polled at the general election preceding, it will become law. If this referendum affirms the Act, it will go into force on the first day of May, 1904. A vigorous fight has already been entered upon against the measure and while it is pretty certain to pass the Legislature, the chances of it obtaining the necessary vote in the country are not so bright. In the last election in the Province of Ontario on the question of prohibition, the majority in its favor was not so large as was expected, and not so large as to justify a very strong belief that the measure will secure as large a vote as will be necessary. While it is pretty certain that the majority of the votes will be cast in favor of the measure, experience has proved that the electors do not take the same interest in an election of this kind as they do in a general election. The uncertainty arises therefore from the fact that more than one-half the total number of votes polled at the preceding general election are required in its favor before it can become law.

THE OUTLOOK FOR LUMBER.

The Canada Lumberman predicts that there will be in New Brunswick a strong demand for spruce lumber during the current year. Building operations in the Maritime Provinces promises to be on an unusually large scale and it is expected that a large quantity of deals, boards and scantling will be shipped from the North Shore of this province to Sydney and other points in Eastern Nova Scotia. Then again there are extensive public works in the course of construction in the Province of Quebec which will call for a considerable quantity of lumber. It is also predicted that there will be more than the usual quantity shipped from here to the Eastern States during the next season and it is thought the shipments of deals to Great Britain will be as large if not larger than last year. The demand for lumber in Great Britain is however largely regulated by the quantity imported there from the Baltic, and regarding the outlook in this direction the Lumberman says: "The outlook for shippers of lumber to Great Britain is better than was expected a few weeks ago, although importers are not exhibiting much confidence in the year's operations. It is almost certain that the better grades of pine deals will find a market at remunerative prices. The course of the spruce market, however, is less certain, as it will depend largely upon the extent of imports into Great Britain from the Baltic. If these should prove unexpectedly large and greater than the market can absorb, a slump in spruce prices will likely result." Altogether it regards the outlook for the year in the lumber market as bright.

LENT.

The season of Lent is now being observed in all Christian countries to commemorate the forty days' fast of our Lord in the wilderness. The observance of the Lenten fast dates from the earliest history of the church. The earliest allusions to it speak of it as an established usage handed down from the fathers. The period is forty days exclusive of Sundays in all the churches which observe Lent, except the Greek churches which have lengthened it to forty eight days. In the early years of the church the period appears to have been shorter. Pope Gregory the Great in 590 directed that the season should begin on the sixth Sunday before Easter and that on all the intervening week days fasting should be practised. Afterwards four days of the preceding week, beginning with Ash Wednesday, were added to make the whole fast forty days. The last week called "Passion Week" is naturally considered the most solemn part of Lent. In the early church the Lenten season appears to have been most rigorously observed. Not only was the use of flesh as food most strictly forbidden, but it was also required that only one meal should be partaken of in the twenty-four hours. This rigor has been much relaxed. Since the Reformation, Lent has been retained in the calendar of the Anglican church as a season for special religious services, but the observance of the fast is left to the judgment and discretion of the individual. In the Lutheran and other Protestant churches on the continent of Europe the Lenten fast is generally observed, and among the dissenting churches the observance of this solemn season is now regarded with more favour than it formerly was.

If one of the functions of a poet is to stir up things it cannot be disputed that Rudyard Kipling is a successful member of the profession. His proposal to introduce conscription into Great Britain raised a storm of protest, while his scoff at "the flanneled fools at the wicket" and "the muddied oafs at the goals" has brought down on him the wrath of all the cricket, football, tennis and golf clubs in England.

Nothing has been heard during the last few days of Carrie Nation and her little hatchet. Her last recorded appearance before the public was in a Kansas divorce court. It took the court only two minutes to sever the marriage tie which bound her to David Nation. By the decree Carrie received from her husband five thousand dollars in cash, the homestead and best feather bed. David received his freedom which he considers cheap at even that price.

A few years ago, a Sheriff of one of the counties of this province was arrested under a capias and taken to the County gaol. As he was also the gaoler of the county his loss of freedom was of short duration. A similar incident has recently occurred in Kansas. A Judge of the Supreme Court of that State threatens to send the governor to jail for contempt of Court. The governor laughs at the judge and reminds him that he has the pardoning power.

A certain representative Cochran, from Missouri, has introduced in the United States Congress a resolution that Paul Kruger be invited to visit the United States as the guest of that country and that for the expenses of entertaining him the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars be appropriated. The object of the proposed visit is not stated, but it is no doubt to introduce the ex-President of the Transvaal to Aguinaldo, late of the Philippine Islands. No appropriation has as yet been made by Congress for the entertainment of Aguinaldo.

The threat of Mr. Gourley, member for Colchester, in the Commons, to stand in the trenches and fight the United States and ultimately annex that country will no doubt have its weight with our neighbors over the line. It would not surprise us to learn that Congress proposes voting several millions to strengthen their fortifications along the Canadian line.

A TRYING SEASON.

Little Ones Are Subject to Colds and the Result is Dangerous Unless Prompt Remedial Steps Are Taken.

The little ones are apt to take cold, no matter how carefully a mother may try to prevent it. While colds may effect children in different ways, the main symptoms usually are that the child grows cross, the skin hot, the appetite fickle and the child quite feverish. Unless something is done at once to relieve a simple cold, the result is often very serious—so serious that many a child's life has been lost. There is no remedy that can equal Baby's Own Tablets in cases of this kind. These tablets promptly break up colds and carry off the poisonous matter that has been retained in the system. By doing that they reduce the fever; the pulse becomes normal; the appetite is restored, and the child is again well and happy.

Mrs. O. E. Earle, Brockville, Ont., says:—"I always use Baby's Own Tablets for both my children, aged three and five years, when they are at all unwell. When my little girl was a few months old, she had a bad attack of whooping cough, and I found the tablets very beneficial. Since that time I always keep them in the house ready for use. When the children are troubled with biliousness, any derangement of the stomach, are peevish or fretful, or when they have a cold, I always use the tablets, and am always pleased with the results."

These tablets are a certain cure for such troubles as colic, sour stomach, indigestion, diarrhoea, constipation, simple fever and colds. They prevent croup and allay the irritation accompanying the cutting of the teeth. They are sold under an absolute guarantee to contain no opiate or other harmful drug. May be had from druggist or will be sent postpaid at 25 cents a box, by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

To Polish Glass.
To polish glass of any and all kinds there is nothing equal to newspaper. Windows, looking glasses, globes, lamp chimneys and spectacles, all may be cleaned with it. Wash first dry and then rub with newspaper. It is the printer's ink that does it.

Rubber Trees.
A rubber tree four feet in diameter yields twenty gallons of sap, making forty pounds of dry rubber.

Sweet Potatoes.
The southern way of cooking sweet potatoes is to boil them first, then slice the long way in slices a quarter of an inch thick, lay in a dripping pan with bits of butter, sprinkle with sugar, dust with cinnamon and brown in the oven.

Ease.
It is a great mistake to imagine that ease is conducive to longevity. To enjoy life and prolong it occupation of some sort is absolutely necessary.

A Dangerous Tree.
The fruit of the imganu tree of South Africa yields a strong intoxicating drink for the natives. Elephants are fond of it, becoming quite tipsy, staggering about, playing antics, screaming so as to be heard for miles and having tremendous fights. When in this state, the natives leave them alone.

The Cow's Horn.
Throughout Africa the cow's horn is a favorite instrument, being used in connection with others on all festival occasions.

Fireproof Doors.
Experiments have demonstrated that doors of wood covered with tin resist fire better than those made of iron.

Solled Flower Vases.
A little powdered pumice stone will remove the ring of discoloration in a flower vase that does not yield to rinsing with ammonia water. If out of reach of the fingers, the powder may be applied with a damp cloth tied to the end of a little stick.

Largest Artesian Well.
The largest artesian well in the world is 14 inches in diameter and 648 feet deep. It is at Cerritos, in California.

The Chinese Laugh.
The Chinese laugh is not as hearty or as expressive as the European or American. It is often a titter than a genuine outburst of merriment. There is little character of force in it.

Road Improvement.
In 1874 a road club for the improvement of country roads in England was established by a society of persons interested in coaching.

Leather and Perfume.
A few drops of any perfumed oil will secure libraries from the consuming effects of moldiness and damp. Russian leather, which is perfumed with the tar of the black tree, never molds.

To Poultry Raisers.
I will be prepared, September next, to purchase four or five hundred young Plymouth Rock, cockerels, or high grade cockerels of that breeding, weighing not less than two pounds each, for which I will pay four cents per pound, live weight. Parties having the same for sale will please communicate with

D. 1902, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, all the right, title, interest, use, possession, property claim and demand either at law or in equity of John Simon Landry and Aime Simon Landry or of each or either of them in, to, out of or upon the following described premises:—

(First.) All those certain lots of land situate on the south side of the Cocagne River and conveyed to the said John Simon Landry by deed bearing date the 24th day of December A. D. 1900 from Simon Landry, and duly recorded in the Office of the Registrar of deeds and wills in and for the County of Kent, by the number 33896, book S. 2, page 225, on the 18th day of March A. D. 1901.

(Second.) All that certain piece or parcel of land situate on the south side of the Cocagne River aforesaid, and conveyed to one Dominick H. Leger by the said Simon Landry on the 31st day of May A. D. 1899, and recorded in the said Registrar's Office on the seventh day of June A. D. 1899, by the number 33142 book Q. 2, page 570.

(Third.) All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate on the south side of the Cocagne River aforesaid, and conveyed as follows:—commencing at the North west corner of lot number 18 in block D on Government plan, thence running south along the west side line of said lot until it strikes the southwest corner thereof, thence east along the south side line of said lot and thence north parallel with the west side line of said lot until it strikes the north side line thereof, thence west along the said north side line to the place of beginning, and to extend east a sufficient distance along the said south side line and the said north side line, so as to include in the said last mentioned lot, twenty-five acres and no more.

Also all other lands of the said John Simon Landry and Aime Simon Landry, wheresoever situate and howsoever described in my bailiwick. Together with all and singular the privileges and improvements thereon and the appurtenances to the same belonging, the same having been seized, levied upon and taken under and by virtue of an execution issued out of the Westmorland County Court against the said John Simon Landry and Aime Simon Landry.

Dated at the Sheriff's Office in the Parish of Richibucto in the said County of Kent, this seventeenth day of December A. D. 1901.

AUGUST LEGER,
Sheriff of Kent County.

January, 1901, 100 per cent.

January, 1902, 141 per cent.

Forty-one per cent. increase of patronage for January, this year, as compared with January, 1901, is encouraging, considering the fact that last winter's classes were the largest we ever had. Our catalogue gives the reasons for our success. Send for copy to-day.

ALL FOR $1.25

This is the greatest combination ever offered in any Canadian journal, and we are fortunate in securing the exclusive privilege for this district. The Daily Herald is one of Canada's great papers. Established in 1855, it has long been the leading liberal paper of Eastern Canada. It is now a great family newspaper, each day giving full news of the world, and also leading upon matters of peculiar interest to the family. Its commercial intelligence is complete and reliable. THE KING'S PORTRAIT is the best ever published in Canada, and will make a handsome addition to the walls of any library. It is produced by a new process, and is not one of the flashy colored portraits so common. As the regular price of The Herald is $2.00 a year, the liberality of our offer is self-evident.
