

At a General Session of the Peace, held at Newcastle in and for the County of Northumberland, on Tuesday 23d August, 1831

RESOLVED—

That whereas the repeal of the Trespass Laws, render it necessary that new regulations should be made by the Sessions relative thereto.

ORDERED—That the following Rules and Regulations be established and in force in the here-in-after mentioned parishes and districts, viz.

That in the parish of Chatham no Swine be allowed to run at large from opposite St. Andrew's Church, to the upper end of said Parish, and that no Goats, or Goats be allowed to run at large in any part of the said parish.

That in the Parish of Newcastle, no horses be allowed to run at large between Gilmour & Rankin's Mills, and the lower end of the said parish, nor between the lower line of the lot at present occupied by John M'Kenzie and the upper line of John A. Street's farm. And that no Goat, or Goats, Hogs, or Swine, be allowed to run at large in any part of the said parish.

That in the parish of Nelson, no Swine be allowed to run at large in any part of the said Parish—and that no horses be allowed to run at large between George Flit's Cove and the lower end of the said parish, without a good and sufficient yoke, which shall be not less than two feet and a half long from the bow—and that no Goat, or Goats be allowed to run at large in any part of the said parish.

That in the parish of Northesk, no Goat or Goats, Hog, or Swine, be allowed to run at large on the Meadow, in the said parish, from John Stewart's old place, up to the mouth of the Big Savogle, on either side of the river.

And it is further ordered, that no Station, Regelin, or Seed Horse, shall be allowed to run at large in any part of this County—and that no Ram, or Rams, be allowed to run at large in any part of this County, between the fifteenth day of August and the Thirtieth day of November in each year.

And further ordered, that if any Horses, Swine, Sheep, or Goats, &c. shall be found going at large, contrary to the foregoing regulations, the Hogsreives shall take up and impound the same, and shall be entitled to receive the sum of five shillings, to be paid together with the charge of the Pound Keeper, before such horses, swine, sheep, or goats, &c. shall be released from pound.

Extract from the minute.
