QUEBEC.—The Steamer Royal William arrived this afternoon from Halifax having sailed on the 28th ult.
The Malay of Greenock. Coverdale, Master, from Liverpool for Quebec and Montreal, was totally lost (crew saved) on the morning of the 1st inst. on Basque Island, a little below Green Island. Cargo, consisting of dry goods, coals, &c. will be mostly saved, it is valued at £15,000. The vessels letter bag has arrived in town with the Mate and Crew. Cap. Coverdale remains with the wreck to save the property. A Schooner is to be sent down immediately.
The Intrepid saw nothing in the river.
The John Campbell, hence for Cork, lost an anchor, and unshipped her rudder off Riviere Oueile. Accounts have been received of her having re-shipped the rudder, and proceeded to sea.

The news of the calamitous wreck of the Lady Sherbrooke has occasioned indescribable distress here, upwards of fifty of the passengers being from the town and neighbourhood of Eniskillen. There are thirty-two from a townland called the Ring, of whom only four have escaped the melancholy fate of their companions.

DARING IMPOSTER.—On Sunday last a lad who attends the shop of Messrs Humphrey & Co in passing along the street observed a person entering the premises, and having his curiosity excited, followed and inquired what he wanted. The person, who was a well dressed decent looking man, with a crape on his hat, without betraying any extraordinary emotion, stated that Mr. H. had sent him there for the Newspaper. This the lad gave him, and both leaving the shop together, the gentleman unknown locked the door, put the key in his pocket, and walked off with singular sang froid. The lad having mentioned the matter to Mr H. it was found that no such person had been sent to the shop, and that the keys had not been out of his possession. This 'villanous counterfeit,' must have had a false key, and considering that the attempt was made in broad daylight on Sunday when the streets are generally thronged, he must be in possession of a fair stock of assurance. He deserves to be 'brayed in a mortar'

QUEBEC.—NEW ROUTE TO QUEBEC.—We understand that Mr Stayer, the Deputy Post Master General, has concluded arrangement to send the Mail weekly as far as Rimouski, on the South Shore of the St. Lawrence, a courier starting from St. Andrews, every Wednesday, on the arrival of the New Brunswick courier, and returning on Saturday, in time to deliver his letters on the return of the same courier on his way to Quebec. Post Masters have been appointed on this new route, and the courier will commence running next week.

MONTREAL.—We understand that a very active canvas has of late been carried on among the country members of our Provincial Legislature to gain advocates for a proposal to abolish the Legislative Council.

FR ED: ISLAND.—On Wednesday morning last, we had for the first time this season, a light fall of snow, which for a few hours had a wintry look. On the following night there was a sharp frost, during which a good deal of ice was formed on the Ponds and rivulets. Since then, however, the weather has been mild, with frequent showers of rain, and an occasional glance of sunshine.
