When the Esquimaux Indians saw Capt. Franklin and his officers with their blue coats, and gold epaulets, they eagerly enquired what animal it was which produced so fine a skin?

They seemed to regard everything which was landed in their territory, as their own, and at their disposal. This custom Capt. F. supposed to be the consequence of the frequent wrecks cast on shore from the Pacific.

On Miss Long.—She was a beautiful young lady; but so short, that she was when alive called the Pocket Venus, or Love's Duodecimo. Her epitaph concluded, alluding to her size:

Though long, yet short;
Though short, yet pretty long.

A village pastor was examining his parishioners in their catechism. The first question in the Heidelberg catechism is this:—'What is the only consolation in life or death?' A young girl, to whom the pastor put the question, laughed, and would not answer. The priest insisted. 'Well then,' said she, at length 'if I must tell you, it is the young shoemaker who lives in the Rue Aquax.'

'Ferdinand the Seventh,' said a distinguished diplomatist, is decidedly priest-ridden—but his people are absolutely governed by lunatics.' 'What else could be expected,' replied a friend. 'When the very capital itself is MAD-ridden!'

A Frenchman, in his recently published 'Tour through England,' remarks that 'punch in all shapes is a great favourite with the English:—punch is his favourite liquor—Punch his favourite entertainment—and a punch on the head his favourite argument.'

To the question what advantage is there in making use of Greek and Latin sentences, when addressing those who cannot understand them? I answer, none at all, and nobody does it now-a-days that knows any better. It is fashionable once, but it would be fantastic now.

THE WRONG LEG.—Dr. Thomas (Bishop of Salisbury) forgot the day he was to be married, and was surprised at his servants bringing him a new dress. A gnat stinging him in the leg, the doctor stooped and scratched the leg of a gentleman who stood next to him.

The following sign may be seen in Salisbury Eng.—'Table bear sold here.' A wag asked if the BEAR was the man's own BRUN.

LAW.—Horne Tooke used to say, that law, in his opinion, ought not to be a luxury for the rich but a remedy to the poor. When told that the course of justice was open to all, he replied so is the London Tavern, to such as can pay their entertainment.

In these days of selfish calculation and heartless policy, it is refreshing to meet such sentiments as the following by Mrs S. C. Hall.—'How beautiful, how sacred, are the feelings of affection in pure and guileless bosoms! The proud may sneer at it—the fashionable may call it fable—the selfish and dissipated may affect to despise it—but the holy passion is surely of heaven, and is only made evil by the corruption of those whom it was sent to bless and preserve.'

Manufactures in Egypt.—A late Bombay Courier published the following:—An Arab ship arrived from the Red Sea, has brought 250 bales of Cotton Yarn, the manufacture of Ali Pacha, at his spinning mills near Cairo. It is reported that he has sent 500 bales to Surat, 1000 to Calcutta, and that he intends next season to send long cloths, Madapolans, &c. having established steam power looms!

These goods are at present admitted at 60 per cent invoice cost, besides 4-1-2 per customs.

What will the mercantile community say to this new competition?—Balt. Gazette.

An English paper thus announces the birth of twins: Mrs Shoe, the wife of a shoemaker in Dover, was, on the 9th inst. safely delivered of APRON or SHOES.

OUR ARMY.—The following is an account of the standing Army of the United States, extracted from the last Report of the Secretary at War. It presents a force of 6188 persons engaged for all the military service of 12 000 000 of people, extended over a square of 2000 miles. What will Europe think of such an army? Surely our nation must have its defence in the hearts of millions of good citizen republicans, and in the Arm of the Almighty.—Philadelphia.
