New South Wales, with a trifling population, already exports Spermin and common oil to the amount of £250,000 a year. The Australian export of wool is already become a most important branch of our imports.

ABERNETHY'S COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE.—The following amusing anecdote of Abernethy, the surgeon, is from the 13th number of the National Portrait Gallery:—"The reported fashion of his courtship and marriage is also extremely characteristic. It is told that, while attending a lady for several weeks, he observed those admirable qualifications in her daughter which he truly esteemed to be calculated to render the married state happy. Accordingly, on a Saturday, when taking leave of his patient, he addressed her to the following purport:—"You are now so well that I need not see you after Monday next, when I shall come and pay you my farewell visit. But, in the mean time, I wish you and your daughter seriously to consider the proposal I am now about to make. It is abrupt and unceremonious, I am aware; but the excessive occupation of my time, by my professional duties, affords me no leisure to accomplish what I desire by the more ordinary course of attention and solicitation. My annual receipts amount to £—, and I can settle £— on my wife; my character is generally known to the public, so that you may readily ascertain what it is. I have seen in your daughter a tender and affectionate child, an assiduous and careful nurse, and a gentle and lady-like member of a family; such a person must be all that a husband could covet, and I offer my hand and fortune for her acceptance. On Monday, when I call, I shall expect your determination; for I really have not time for the routine of courtship. In this humour the lady was wooed and won; and, we believe we may add, the union has been felicitous in every respect."

EXTRAORDINARY BERYL.—The rarest specimen of this precious stone, which is at present extant, was found in the short range of hills near Murznskoja, in the district of Catharinenburg, in the year 1827. It is more than 11 pounds in weight, and is valued at 150,000 roubles (£7,000)—St. Petersburg Mining Journal.

On the eve of the battle of Agincourt the citizens of Paris offered the King a levy of eight thousand men. "What do we want with these counter-soldiers," exclaimed the Duke de Berri; "are we not already thrice as numerous English?" The shopkeepers were accordingly marched to the right about, and the chivalry were left to reap all the honours of the approaching battle: history has recorded the result.

There is at present residing upon a farm near Blackpool an ancient couple, each nearly ninety years of age, who has seven sons and four daughters unmarried, and all residing in the same house, with the exception of one son. The youngest is a daughter aged about 40. They are remarkably frugal in their habits, and were never known to join in the festivities of the neighbourhood, or to expend money in the pursuit of pleasure. They keep no servant but perform all the labour necessary in the cultivation of the land and in housewifery themselves. Several curious stories are told of the reception which one or two swains have met with who have, at different times, ventured to speak of love to the females.
