

must add, the unprovoked attack of the noble Lord opposite. [Hear.]
The Earl of Carnarvon thought that the resignation of Ministers ought not to prevent the present bill being proceeded with, as by that means its many defects would be shown to the country. He therefore proposed that the Committee should be fixed for Monday.

The motion was agreed to, and their Lordships adjourned till Friday.

MONDAY.

At a little after five o'clock the Lord Chancellor took his seat on the woolsack.

The Earl of Carnarvon immediately rose and said, "Understanding, my lords, that a new Administration is formed, but that it is not completed, I think it my duty to move that the order for our proceeding to-night with the committee on the reform bill be discharged with the view of moving afterwards that this house do resolve itself into the said committee on Thursday next."

The Marquis of Westminster presented a petition from Rochdale in favour of the Reform Bill. Petitions of a similar nature were also presented from several other places.—The Duke of Wellington was not present, but up to the last moment, there seemed to be an expectation that something would be said, beyond what had fallen from the Earl of Carnarvon, on the subject of the new administration. As the different peers and bishops drove away, those in favour of reform met the most enthusiastic reception, whilst the opponents of reform were received with perfect yells of execration. The bishops in particular seemed to be the most prominent objects of popular feeling.

BIRMINGHAM, May 10.—It is scarcely possible to describe—scarcely possible to imagine—the spirit of excitement into which the town of Birmingham has been thrown by the rejection of the Reform Bill by the Lords and the resignation of his Majesty's ministers. We are morally certain, that if the bill be not passed, the people will not pay taxes. This they have determined. Indeed, as early as 11 o'clock yesterday, the windows exhibited a printed placard, of which the following is a copy:—

"NOTICE!
NO TAXES PAID HERE UNTIL THE REFORM BILL IS PASSED."

In other windows, and we observed on the lawn of a gentleman's house in the vicinity of the town there was exhibited the following: "No taxes paid here in money, and no goods bought distrant for taxes."

Preparations for troops in London.—Yesterday, preparations were making in the Millbank Penitentiary for the reception of Troops. Orders have been issued for all the places not occupied by the prisoners to be cleared out and got in readiness to make room to receive a body of troops, ordered to march for London in the course of the present week, should their services be deemed necessary. A number of workmen are cleaning the place.—Observer.

KING'S LEVEE.—On Wednesday the King held a Levee, after which his Majesty gave audiences to Earl Grey, the Duke of Devonshire, Viscount Althorp, the Earl of Alhermarle, the Marquis Wellesley, Lord Durham, the Marquis of Lansdowne, Lord Holland, Mr Stanley, the Duke of Richmond, Sir James Graham, Viscount Goderich, Viscount Palmerston, Lord Brougham, Sir J. Hobhouse, the Right Hon. Charles Grant, Viscount Melbourne, Viscount Combermere, Lord Hill, the Duke of Norfolk, the Right Hon. R. Grant, Sir J. Kempt, and the Earl of Radnor. The Ministers tendered their resignation to his Majesty, and are to retain the Seats of office until their successors are appointed. After the close of the Court the King gave an audience to Lord Lyndhurst.

The cup and the lip.—The Earl of Mulgrave, we understand, does not proceed to Jamaica. His Lordship has already disembarked his horses.—Court Journal.

Letters from Liverpool describe the Cotton market, as well as the market for Colonial produce generally, to be extremely flat.

The arrivals from the Continent bring no commercial news of importance. The great failures that had taken place in many of the principal cities, had caused great stagnation in business and distrust among those who deal much on credit.

Prince Otho, it is said, will not accept the throne of Greece.

LONDON, May 14.—The New Ministry.—It is understood, and indeed we have no doubt of the fact, that a new administration has been formed, and that it will to-morrow be submitted for the approbation of the King, for which purpose his Majesty will remain in town.—Courier.

Retirement of Lord Brougham.—On Saturday last Lord Brougham took leave of the Chancery Bar in a short but eloquent speech.

Resignation of Lord Anglesey.—We have to announce that the Lord Lieutenant yesterday despatched his resignation of the high office he holds to his Majesty. This is precisely what was to be expected from a man of high principle and manly pride.—Dublin Evening Post.

The Health of London.—We have the greatest pleasure in stating that the Board of Health has again been able to issue clean bills of health, there having been no case of cholera either on Sunday or yesterday.

Cholera in Ireland.—Dublin, May 11.—New cases 75; deaths 26; recoveries 55; remaining 750—Cork, May 9—New cases 65, deaths 3; recoveries, 45; remaining 426.—Drogheda, May 9—new cases, 14; deaths 6, recoveries 1; remaining 9.

PARIS, May 11.—Letters from the banks of the Danube announce the death of the Duke of Reichstadt. We give this without guaranteeing it, no official communication having been received upon the subject. According to the last previous advices he was very ill.—London Courier.

WAR PARTY IN FRANCE.—We have little to say this week on continental topics, there is however one circumstance which, at the present crisis, demands attention, and that is the dreadfully disturbed state of France. The mad attempt of the Duchess de Berri has, it is true, failed; but France rocks to her centre with monkish intrigue, Carlist conspiracy, and Republican enthusiasm. The illness of M. Perier, and the small hopes entertained of his recovery, demand the formation of a new ministry; and it is not a little striking the coincidence observable with regard to this country, that in France the war party are being called on by Louis Philip to form an administration or a coalition with a remnant of the present. Should a Wellington and Peel cabinet get into office here, we foresee the probable fatal results which will ensue. The news of Monday night's proceedings produced the greatest consternation in Paris among the friends of order and peace,—may their and our fears prove unfounded.
