

An arrangement has been made by the Commissioners for liquidating the claims of the West-India proprietors under the Abolition of Slavery Bill, by which the amount of remuneration awarded to each Proprietor will be appropriated to the liquidation, in the first instance, of any mortgage or claim for money lent upon their individual estates. This, which we cannot but consider to be a legitimate and equitable disposal of the grant as far as it may be so required, has been decided on in consonance with the wishes of Ministers. And the operation will restore a large amount of capital to our city bankers, and merchants, and give a corresponding impetus to trade.

The following are the precise terms of Mr. Secretary Stanley's motion on the subject of Canada:—That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire and report to the house how far the grievances complained of in the year 1823, on the part of certain inhabitants of Lower Canada, have been redressed, and the recommendations of the committee of this house which sat thereupon have been complied with on the part of his Majesty's Government; and to inquire into the matter of certain other grievances not then brought under the consideration of this house, but now set forth in resolutions of the House of Assembly of Lower Canada in the present session; and to report their opinion thereon to the house.

Select Committee.—Messrs Secretary Stanley, Roebuck, F. Lewis, W. Wynne, E. Denison, Loch, Fazakerley, Lebouche, Goulburn, A. Baring, Ellice, E. Stewart, Oliphant, Robinson, O'Connell, R. Grant, B. Carter, H. L. Bulwer, Warre, Warburton, P. Stewart, Romilly; Lords Sandon, Howick; Sirs J. Graham, M. Ridley, H. Hardinge, G. Grey.—Power to send for persons, papers and records. Five to be a quorum.

About eleven o'clock on Saturday morning a house near the centre of the little town of Colyton, Devon, was discovered to be on fire, and the roof being of thatch, and the wind very high, the burning portions of the roof, as they separated from the building, were communicated to various portions of the town at the same time, so that before the engines could be brought to bear, or any effectual means taken to prevent the spread of the conflagration, several parts of the town were on fire. The scene of confusion and dismay is indescribable, for the inhabitants observed the fire to break out in so many different parts considered no house secure, and therefore commenced a general removal of furniture, &c., into the fields as the only means of saving anything from the threatened destruction. Fortunately about three o'clock the wind abated its violence, and enabled the inhabitants to direct their attention and strength to those parts of the town that had suffered least. Twenty houses are thus destroyed, and the injury sustained by the inhabitants is very great, many of them totally ruined, as only few were insured. The fire again burst forth towards the evening; as the wind was high, it was feared the consequence would be most lamentable.—Plymouth Herald.

ESTO FIDELIUS

Queen Adelaide Lodge of Loyal, Independent Odd Fellows.

In order to keep alive the good feeling which in all ages has been the peculiar characteristic of Odd Fellows, (and the first Society of this kind established in Miramichi,) will positively now be opened in Chatham, commanding by order of M. N. G. all Members to attend. DAVID P. HORNE, Secretary.

The above Society is too well known throughout all parts of the world, to need to say any thing for or against; men in all ages have never deemed it derogatory to their dignity to become members of the order of Odd Fellows, and as it is patronized by the King and his royal dignity, it is to be hoped that it will merit a few good Members; and a previous knowledge of the Person and Character that will propose himself a Candidate for the Mysteries of Loyal Independent Odd Fellows. Order and regularity are indispensably necessary, and without which all Societies fall to decay; it neither affects religion or politics, but in every respect founded upon that universal benevolence since the days of Adam, and founded by Jove, where he sat at least with Minus on Olympus's high Hill to afford the best example for the conduct of others less informed.
