THE GLEANER.

An Act for granting Patents for useful Inventions.

Passed, 22d March, 1834.

Concluded.

V. And be it enacted, That before any person or persons shall obtain or receive any Letters Patent under this Act, such person or persons, or some or one of them, shall make oath, or if a Quaker shall make solemn affirmation, in writing, before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Supreme Court of the Province, or some Commissioner for taking Affidavits in the said Court, that he, she or they do verily believe that he, she or they is or are the true inventor or inventors, discover or discoverers of the art, machine, composition of matter or improvement, for which he, she or they solicit Letters Patent, and that such invention or discovery hath not, to the best of his, her or their knowledge or belief, been known or used in this Province, or in any other country, which oath or affirmation shall be delivered in with the Petition for such Letters Patent.

VI. And be it enacted, That together with such Petition and oath or affirmation, before any person or persons shall receive or obtain any Letters Patent as aforesaid, such person or persons shall also deliver into the Office of the Secretary of the Province, a written description of his invention, and of the manner of using or process of compounding the same, in such full, clear and exact terms as to distinguish the same from all other things before known, and to enable any person skilled in the art or science of which it is a branch, or with which it is most closely connected, to make, compound, and use the same, shall explain the principle and the several modes in which such person or persons have or hath contemplated the application of that principle or character, by which it may be distinguished from other inventions, and shall accompany the whole with drawings and written references, where the nature of the case admits of drawings, or with specimens of the ingredients, and of the composition of matter, sufficient in quantity for the purpose of experiment when the invention is a composition of matter, which description signed by such person or persons so applying for such Letters Patent, and attested by two witnesses, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Province, and copies thereof certified under the hand of the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of the Province, shall be competent evidence in all Courts where any matter or thing touching or concerning the said Letters Patent shall or may come in question.

VII. And be it enacted, That any Patentee, his Executors or Administrators, may assign and transfer all his right, title and interest in the said invention and discovery, in the Letters Patent to him granted, to any person or persons whomsoever, and the Assignee or Assignees thereof having recorded the said assignment in the Office of the Secretary of the Province, shall thereafter stand in the place or stead of the original Patentee, as well as to all right, privilege and advantage; as also in respect of all liability and responsibility as to the said Letters Patent and the invention and discovery thereby secured, and in like manner shall the Assignee or Assignees of any such Assignee or Assignees stand and be considered to be in the place and stead of the original Patentee or Inventor.

VIII. And be it enacted, That whenever in any case any Letters Patent shall be or shall or may have been granted to any person or persons under and by virtue of this Act, and any person or persons without the consent of the Patentee or Patentees, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, first had and obtained in writing, shall make, devise, use, or sell the things, invention or discovery, whereof the exclusive right is secured to the said Patentee or Patentees by such Letters Patent, such person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay to the said Patentee or Patentees, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, a sum equal to three times the actual damage sustained by such Patentee or Patentees, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, for or by reason of such offence, which sum shall and may be recoverable, together with costs of suit, by a
