

The climate of Newfoundland may be cold and inhospitable, but the shipwrecked passengers who were saved from the Florence, can give abundant testimony that it has had no influence on the heart or hand of the inhabitants.

The Indians—we have just received a slip from the office of the Daily Georgian bringing later news from Florida. The news had been sent from the Jacksonville correspondent of the Georgian, and it was derived from the Saint Augustine News of the 4th instant, and from the Advocate.

We extract from these papers particulars of Indian intelligence heretofore noticed, and other transactions not heretofore transpired.

In Jacksonville on Sunday, the 30th, the Express Rider between Pilatka and Fort King, was shot in the wrist when he was about 8 miles from the former place.

On Monday 31st, a sick soldier, under an escort of ten men, was being conveyed from Fort Traver to Micanopy, and were fired upon by Indians. Three of the escort were killed upon the spot, the rest with the invalid, escaped unhurt. The Indians were in considerable force.

On the afternoon of Wednesday, the 2d, Hillary Parsons, a young man of about 18, was shot by a party of Indians, about 7 miles from Black Creek, on the Newmansville Road. After shooting him they mangled his body in a horrid manner.

St. Augustine, Sept. 4.—A private of 2d Dragoons, who was taken by the Indians some time since, when the corn fields were destroyed, escaped, and has returned to the post at Fort Reed. He was one of the guard left with the horses, his companion being killed, and himself tied to a tree, after being a prisoner seven days, to be shot. For fourteen days he had been wandering about, and his mind is said to be destroyed as well as the sufferings endured have reduced him to a skeleton.

We learn that he states that there was a mulatto and a white man with the Indians.
