

The Convention should also turn its attention to obtaining funds to defray the expenses of petitioning, and the other necessary expenses of advancing the cause of Reform, especially for the registration of voters in the Liberal interest, and for the vindication for the right of voting for all those unable to assert that right for themselves.

Such a convention should sit from day to day; its doors should be open to the press; but no inducement should be held out to reporting, save what may arise from the intrinsic value of the subjects discussed.

A gentleman, who has recently seen the immense iron steamer building by the Great Western Steam-ship Company at Bristol, states that she will register 3000 tons, but that her actual tonnage will exceed 3600 tons, or about 600 tons more than any vessel ever built.

Inundations in France.—The courier who brought the dispatches from the Levant, travelled by the mail road from Marseilles to Paris. The accounts he gives of the ravages occasioned everywhere by the inundation between Lyons and Arles, are truly awful. The Rhone had partially re-entered its bed, but the low grounds adjoining Arles, Tarascon, Avignon, &c. were still under water.

Inundations in Italy.—On the night of the 30th October, a violent storm having burst upon Monte Carogno, in the valley of Aosta, all the streams and torrents and torrents of the district left their beds and rushed with tremendous force into the valley, dragging with them in their rapid fall, trees, rocks, and avalanches.

In the cantons of Uri, Saint Gall, and the Grisons, frightful ravages have been caused by the torrents and river floods. At Attinghausen and Ersienfeld, the roads have been rendered impassable, and all the rich meadows at Schattdorf have been submerged and destroyed.

every thing it met with—even villages seated on tolerably high ground have been injured. The convent of Disentis has narrowly escaped. At Rheinecke, Höchst, Wild and Mels, the Rhine has overwhelmed mills, houses, and farm buildings.

Births.—On Saturday, the 21st ult. at Wavertree, the wife of Mr Richard Jobson, of a daughter. They were married on the same day as her Majesty, and presented her husband with a daughter on the same day as that on which Queen Victoria made Prince Albert a similar present.

The Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, at their meeting on Monday last, resolved to present a memorial to Government, representing the necessity of their instituting a searching inquiry into the causes and extent of the destitution and misery which exists in Scotland, affecting as it does the well being of all ranks of society, by leading directly to the deterioration of morals, the increase of crime, and the spreading of contagious disorders.

THE NEW YORK ALBION.

To our Subscribers. In our last we announced our intention of issuing to our Subscribers two PLATES in the course of the ensuing year, the subjects being the Duke of Wellington, and Windsor Castle.

It has occurred to us that it might be acceptable to our readers, if we were to select an American subject for one of our prints. This would seem to be but fair to our numerous American subscribers, as most of our previous plates have consisted of English subjects; we have accordingly determined upon adopting this course.

Consistently with this determination, and with our most careful endeavour to present that which shall be equally acceptable to all, we purpose to offer in due course the portrait of Washington.

To Let.

The HOUSES in Queen Street, lately occupied by Mrs. Thomson, and Mr. Burdick: These will accommodate either two or three families, and will be let to suit applicants, and at a reduced rent—if immediate application be made to
