

two French priests, in charge of a considerable sum of ready money, with which they left on the 18th inst. by an Austrian merchant vessel for Beyrout. Their mission also was to the convents of Lebanon, and whilst in Alexandria their inquiries were particularly directed to the means of shortening the term of their expected quarantine, and conveying the money in safety to the mountains.

LONDON, May 18.—The Timber Duties.—On Thursday a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held in the Town Hall, to consider what steps ought to be taken in reference to the proposed alteration of the duties on timber. Robert Kerr, Esq. president of the Chamber was in the chair. The chairman read the requisition calling the meeting, and also a minute of the meeting of the directors: Mr Kerr proposed a series of resolutions, condemnatory of the proposal contained in the budget for raising the duty on colonial timber. The motion was carried by a majority of seven votes; 33 voting for an amendment, and 40 for the motion.—Glasgow Paper.

The Ministerial Crisis.—The division upon Lord Saundon's resolution will certainly take place to night. The resolution, it is calculated, will be affirmed by a majority of forty against ministers. They, however, it is certain, will not resign. A promise made to a high personage is pleaded, but we are sure falsely pleaded, as the excuse for this outrageous insult to the principles of the constitution. The course most generally anticipated on the part of the Cabinet is to apply for a renewal of the sugar duties, and then dissolve the parliament in two days or a fortnight.—This is a desperate and a wicked expedient; but what other expedient can Lord Melbourne resort to if he will not resign we believe he will not.—Standard, May 14.
