THE NEW WORLD.

A NEW ENLARGED QUARTO VOLUME. Commencing the first week in July.

The Third Volume of the QUARTO form of the NEW WORLD will commence on the 3rd of July; when it will be much enlarged, and four celumns given on each page, instead of three, making sixty-four columns of choice reading, without any increase in the price. New Volumes, will always begin on the 1st July and 1st of January, making two in each year, of 416 pages each, to which a handsome title page, and a copious index will be given which a handsome title page, and a copical index will be given.

The New World is a Journal of Popular Literature, Criticism, Science and the Arts. It is supplied with articles by the first living writers of the United States and Great Britain. The first number was issued in June, 1840, and its circulation has steadily increased to this day, till it counts more readers than any other newspaper of its kind in the world. This is owing to the fact of its having given to the public for a sum merely nominal, and always in advance of any other print, the most popular works of the most approved authors.

A novel and striking feature of the New World is, that it has given, besides the great Literary productions of the day, the discourses of eminent divines. In future these discourses will be presented even more frequently than heretofore; but not toe often to interfere with other intersting striking articles.

with other interesting articles.

In addition to all these new and popular works, these eloquent discourses, this compre-works, these eloquent discourses, this comprehensive journal has given the best poems and periodical papers which have appeared in the English and American Magazines. What has been done is an earnest of what will be done.

The New World is divided into various departments, viz.—Original Articles, First American Editions, Periodical Literature, The Scrap Book, The Literary World, The Musical World, The Dramatic World, The Political World, The World of Science and Art, Patchwork, and Latest Intelligence. Patchwork, and Latest Intelligence.

We cannot forbear to add in conclusion that the New World studiously avoids all party the New World studiously avoids all party politics; and is conducted upon principles of the s'rictest morality. No profane or improper jest, no vulgar allusion or irreligious sentiment is allowed to soil its pages. The reverance of God and respect to man govern it always. The rule of the Editor is never to publish a line which he would hesitate to read aloud in the hearing of virtuous and intelligent formules. hearing of virtuous and intelligent females.
Thus the New World is made an unexceptionable Family Newspaper, and is earnestly aded to the regard of every friend of a pure Literature, as well as of correct morals and the public good.
