ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR,
The Cheapest Paper in the World!!
THE MIRACLE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY!

THE GREAT AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, DOLLAR WEEKLY,
Edited by T. L. NICHOLS. Published by HER-RICK & ROPES, No 162 Nassau Street New York.

Every number of the Dollar Weekly contains Twenty Eight Columns of Choice Reading Mater, or equal to one hundred and fifty duodecimo pages, illustrated by from Three to Six Splendid Original Engravings.

Each volume of the Dollar Weekly will contain One Thousand Four Hundred and Fifty Six Columns, equal to Eight Thousand Seven Hundred and Thirty Six duodecimo pages, or Fifty Volumes of the Choice Reading, illustrated by more than Two Hundred Engravings of Scenes and Characters in American Life, by the best Artists. All for ONE DOLLAR.

To give an idea of the astonishing cheapness of the Dollar Weekly, the Publishers have made the following estimates: The original matter of each volume, at the most moderate price paid to writers of established reputation, will cost not less than Five Thousand Dollars—the bare composition or setting up of Type, will cost Two Thousand—the Drawings and Engravings over Three Thousand. Without reckoning Rent, Materials, Paper, Press Work, or Incidentals, the Publishers incur an outlay of over

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The talents and character of Mr Nichols are familiar to the American People, and a sufficient guarantee of the sterling ability, the exciting interest, the high toned morality, and perfect independence of the Dollar Weekly, upon all subjects, and all occasions. Splendid Tales, Choice Essays, Brilliant Sketches, and an infinite variety of articles, of Poetry, Wit, Humor, and Intelligence will fill its varied columns, giving the bright and dark shades of Our SOCIAL SYSTEM. Its grand tendency will be toward Reform, Progress, Individual Enjoyment, and Social Happiness—in every thing, the elevation of the many, and 'the greatest good of the greatest number.' The Complimentary Notices of the whole American Press affords the greatest evidence of its real merit, and the surest indication of unparalleled success.

The Dollar Weekly will be mailed to Subscribers in any portion of the World, for ONE DOLLAR A YEAR, in advance.

All Letters to be addressed to West & Ropes, 162 Nassau street, New York City.

Postmasters are authorized, by the rules of the department, to send money for newspaper subscriptions free of postage.

QUARTO NEW WORLD,

PROSPECTUS FOR THE FOURTH VOLUME, COMMENCING JANUARY 1, 1841.

EDITED BY PARK BENJAMIN.

During the two years which have elapsed since the New World was begun, it has been the effort of the Editor to render it the most readable newspaper of the day. To this end the Proprietors have liberally contributed.
Neither trouble nor expense has been spared.
The most popular books and periodicals have been purchased. The best contributors have been engaged. A correspondence with the most interesting parts of the world has been established. In short, the best arrangements have been made to publish an independent literary journal, acceptable to all classes of readers.
The Editor can think of nothing which has been left undone to enhance the value and to elevate the character of the New World.

Its success has been most encouraging. It will commence the new year with a circulation of

Twenty Five Thousand Copies, a larger number it is believed, than is issued of any other weekly paper in Great Britain or the United States. This success is imputed chiefly to two reasons—first, to its having contained an unprecedented number of excellent articles by the most popular authors. Second, to its having assumed and observed an elevated moral tone. Its columns are uncontaminated by party politics, and its ample pages unsoiled by profane and improper jests, vulgar allusions, or irreligious sentiments; and therefore it finds its warmest welcome by the domestic hearth, and receives its highest approval from that sex whose rights it has maintained, whose delicacy it has never offended, and whose mental and social superiority it has labored to vindicate.

About to enter upon a new year, and to commence a new volume, we proceed to mention a few incidents for old friends to continue with us, and for new friends to join their company. No change whatsoever will be made in the manner of editing and conducting the New World; but it will receive in all its departments fresh accessions of ability. Many able writers will grace our columns. Permanent arrangements have been made to secure the exclusive literary services of

Donald MacLeod, Francis J. Grund, and Brantz Mayer, Esquires.

Mr. MacLeod, resident in London, will keep our readers fully informed of all events of interest that transpire in England, Scotland, and Ireland. Being in constant personal intercourse with the best known authors, he will obtain from them manuscripts, proof sheets, and early copies of the latest publications.
Thus shall we be enabled, as we have hitherto done, to give in the New World their latest works in advance of any other newspaper in America.

Mr. Grund, resident in Bremen, will by a regular and copious correspondence, advise our readers of the social, literary and religious condition of continental Europe.

Brantz Mayer, (whose name we introduce with great pleasure as that of one of the most accomplished young men of our country) resident in Mexico, will send us letters, descriptive of that unexplored portion of the Western Hemisphere, of its inhabitants, their manners, laws and customs, and of all objects of curiosity, whether ancient or modern. His letters will be accompanied by illustrative drawings, which will be engraved and presented in our columns.

Original Articles

by the best American writers will enrich our pages in the coming volume. Among the attractive features of this description, we have the pleasure to announce that early in January will be commenced A NEW NOVEL, by an American, written expressly for the New World, and entitled

Abel Parsons, a Story of the Great Fire.

It possesses a deep local interest, and will be read with great pleasure, as it is replete with incident and beautifully written.

Original Discourses by Ministers of the Gospel will occasionally be given, among them we intend to present, during the next year, practical sermons from every Bishop in the United States, as well as from eminent clergymen of all denominations.

To add to the attractiveness of the New World, it will continue to be decorated by

Elegant Engravings on Wood,

From the most spirited designs. Two or three of these will often be given in a single paper.
It is also intended to appropriate a column for the especial entertainment of juvenile readers, so that the New World shall be in every respect the best Family Newspaper in America.

TERMS.—The New World (folio or quarto) is forwarded by Mail for $3 dollars a year, payable invariably in advance. For $5 it is sent to one person two years, but not in any future instance to two subscribers for one year. Notes of solvent chartered banks only should be remitted, and those which are nearest par in New York.

No article new in progress of publication in the New World will be continued in the Fourth Quarto Volume; but it will be commenced with entirely fresh and original works.

Mr. C. J. Cooke is Agent for the above Publication in Miramichi.
