Liverpool Timber Market, June 4.—Staves—There has been rather more inquiry for standard Staves, and several parcels, all pipe lengths, have been sold at £40 to £50 per M. Inferior are not worth more than £30 per M. Panchoon Staves are quite unsaleable, these may be quoted at £10 to £15 per M. Ash Hoghead Staves are worth £7 per M.

Pine.—A quantity of Quebec Pine of second quality, has latterly been forced off at Auction, at 13d per foot, but Quebec Pine of first quality is still selling at 15d per foot to consumers.

A quantity of St John Pine of fair quality was sold by auction at 18d per foot. The consumption of Pine Timber, as compared with that of former years has certainly fallen off, still the quantity taken out of the market the past four months, has averaged 350,000 feet per month.

Red Pine.—Quebec Red Pine of large size is inquired after, and would sell at 22d to 23d per foot—common 21d per foot.—St. John Red Pine is 15d to 16d per foot.

Deals—of common quality may be quoted at 2d per foot of two inches, and first quality deals at 2 1/2d to 2 3/4d per foot of two inches.

THREE O'CLOCK, P. M.—The Courier with this morning's Mail has not yet arrived.

DIED.

At Richibucto, on the 21st instant, WILLIAM JOHN LAYTON, Esq., aged 47 years. Mr L. was a man who was much respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was possessed of more than ordinary talent, which was constantly tasked for the use and benefit of his neighbors, who will sensibly feel his loss as well as the inhabitants of the County of Kent, generally, where he resided many years, and filled the office of Deputy Crown Land Surveyor. He was a native of England and has left a widow to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband.

SCRAPS.

Prentice declares that ladies are not only infinitely more intoxicating than wine, but he has moreover found them a thousand fold dearer.

A Boston belle of other days is thus quaintly described by a modern writer. 'The damsel was exquisitely arrayed, the upper and lower parts of her person united by a narrow sash called a waist, and the other half of her frock expanding like an open umbrella.'

Never refuse, if it be in your power, to aid the unfortunate; a generous act is always followed with a glow of happiness, far surpassing any mere animal gratification.

Never condemn your neighbor unheard, however many the accusations which may be preferred against him; every story has two ways of being told, and justice requires that you should hear the defence as well as the accusation; and remember that the malignity of enemies may place you in a similar predicament.

Caution.

The Subscriber, some time 1st autumn passed his Note to Messrs Fraser and Masson, for about Five Pounds, which he owed them, which amount he fully paid off in produce, prior to the fifteenth January last, and a balance of One Pound Twelve Shillings was then and is still owing the Subscriber by them, as appears by the Books of the said Fraser and Masson, and in the hand writing of Mr Samuel Nicholson, their then Clerk and Book keeper. Since that period, and with a full knowledge of the above fact, Mr Nicholson has in some way got possession of the said Note, which he admits is not endorsed to him, and has demanded payment thereof from the Subscriber and threatened to sue him thereon. The subscriber will resist every attempt that may be made to enforce the payment of the Note a second time; and he now publishes the facts in order to caution all persons against purchasing the said Note.
