NEW-YORK ALBION.

NEW SERIES,
And Improvement and Enlargement of The Albion.

On the first publication in the ensuing year, we shall not only much improve the general contents of this paper, but enlarge it to the extent of four additional pages or twelve entire columns. This will at once afford us room to take a much wider range in the subjects on which we generally treat, and likewise enable us to carry into effect certain improvements. We trust that this new effort to render the Albion worthy the support it receives so extensively, will be duly appreciated. The additional quantity of matter now purposed, together with the enlargements that have at various times taken place heretofore, will make the Albion nearly double the size of its earlier numbers. And this we do without augmenting the price of subscription.

We propose to augment the number of departments in the plan of this new series, as well as to increase the quantities in those which exist: thus whilst we enlarge the amount of elegant literature, extend our reports on English and Foreign news, increase the details of Parliamentary debates, and our selections of what is curious and interesting, we shall give regular place to reports of useful public lectures, criticisms on arts and sciences, and the productions of artists; considerations on music, the Drama, &c., so as to make the paper, as far as may be, a mirror of the age, and to convey to our readers a kind of epitome of the time in which we live. It is our wish fully to keep pace with the Age, and not to allow any of its great mutations to escape us: we shall therefore seize every opportunity of acting upon our convictions for permanent improvement.

We shall commence the year also with a new and beautiful font of type, and the work will be executed with its usual excellence in typography, &c.

The Plates will be continued as usual, and the portrait of Washington will be issued as soon as possible after Mr Jackson the engraver has given it the finishing touches.

The Handsomest and Cheapest Periodical for the Young!

Gazette,
ILLUSTRATED BY ELEGANT ENGRAVINGS!
To be Published every Saturday.

On Saturday, the 8th day of January, Peter Parley, the old and well known friend of children, will commence editing and publishing a new weekly paper, which will be called "Peter Parley's Youth's Gazette." It will be of the quarto form, containing eight pages similar to the New York Mirror. Every number will be embellished with of an instructive and pleasing character. The contents will be, for the most part, original, and adapted to the wants and capacities of youthful readers. Not only will the exclusive services of Peter Parley himself be given to the work, but the talents of many popular writers will be enlisted in its support.

All the new popular works for children which appear in England will be obtained; and from these the best articles will be chosen and published entire in the columns of the Gazette, together with the engravings by which they may be illustrated. Thus, in our catalogue of contributors, there will be many names, dear and familiar to the young—Miss Edgeworth, Mrs. Holland, Mary Howitt, Miss Martineau, Mrs. Barwell, Miss Mitford, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Joanna Bailie, Mrs. Southey, Miss Coleridge, and others. Thus, at a price far less than that for which such works could be reprinted in the shape of books in this country, will the most excellent treatises and stories for the young be presented.

Arrangements will also be made to obtain original articles by favorite American authors—Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Mrs. Lee, author of Three Experiments of Living, Mrs. Osgood, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. Gilman, Mrs. Wells, Nathaniel Hawthorne, T. H. Gallaudet, J. K. Paulding, and others. Last, but not least,

PETER PARLEY HIMSELF,
—who, from his long absence from that field of usefulness in which he was so successful, has been thought by many to have altogether relinquished his labours of love and duty—will resume his pen, and with fresh vigor, engage in the new enterprise to which he has been called by the entreaties of both parents and children. Since his young readers last heard from him, he has travelled the world over, and brought home a budget of adventures, facts and incidents; and the Youth's Gazette will be the medium through which they will be communicated.

The name of 'Peter Parley' will be a guaranty for the pure moral tone which will pervade every sentence of the new periodical. Every thing like sectional, sectarian or political bias will be sedulously avoided. The Edinburgh Review has said of him that 'no other writer for the young possesses in so eminent a degree the faculty of combining the useful with the entertaining.' It is believed that the readers of his Gazette will admit the justice of this observation.

Peter Parley's Youth's Gazette, will, on and after the eighth January next, be issued on Saturday mornings,

AT THE OFFICE OF THE NEW WORLD,
No. 30, Ann Street, New York
TERMS:

To place 'Peter Parley's Youth's Gazette' within the means of all the girls and boys in the country, it will be sold to subscribers at the following low rates: For one copy, sent to any part of North America, $2 a year—for two copies $3—for four copies $5—for ten copies $10—always to be paid in advance. When four copies for $5, or ten copies for $10, are ordered, the remittance must be made in current money, of New York or New England.

Letters on business, and all communications to be addressed to 'Parley's Youth's Gazette, 30 Ann street, New York,' franked or post paid.

THE NEW-YORK
Weekly Tribune

Is Published in the City of New York, every SATURDAY MORNING,
In Quarto Form on a very Large Sheet,
And afforded to Subscribers in the Country at
TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

Six copies will be forwarded a year for Ten Dollars—Ten copies for Fifteen Dollars—and any larger number in the later proportion. Payment in advance invariably required, and the paper stopped whenever the term of such payment expires.

THE TRIBUNE—whether in its Daily or Weekly Edition—will be what its name imports—an unflinching supporter of the People's Rights and Interests, in stern hostility to the errors of superficial theorists, the influences of unjust or imperfect legislation, and the schemes and sophistries of self-seeking demagogues. It will strenuously advocate the Protection of American Industry against the grasping and to us blighting policy of European Governments, and the unequal competition which they force upon us; it will advocate the restoration of a sound and uniform National Currency,—and urge a discreet but determined prosecution of Internal Improvement. The Retrenchment, wherever practicable, of Government Expenditures and of Executive Patronage, will be zealously urged. In short, this paper will faithfully maintain and earnestly advocate the Principles and Measures which the People approved in devolving on Whig Statesmen the conduct of their Government.

out a small portion of its columns will be devoted to purely political discussions. The proceedings of Congress will be carefully recorded, the Foreign and Domestic Intelligence early and lucidly presented; and whatever shall appear calculated to promote Morality, Maintain Social Order, extend the blessings of Education, or in any way subserve the great cause of Human Progress to ultimate Virtue, Liberty, and Happiness, will find a place in our columns.

N. B.—Where ten persons club together, and remit $15 at one time in funds not over four per cent. discount in New York, the paper will cost but $1 50 per year.

It is believed that there is no paper in the United States devoted to Literature and the entire Current News of the day, which contains so much reading matter as is afforded at so cheap a rate as the Weekly Tribune.
