The number of vessels successfully engaged in the traffic in slaves must be of course, far greater than the number of captures. The unfortunate Africans who thus fall into the hands of those inhuman monsters, are found crowded together in a most deplorable condition. Such of them as have the good fortune to be recaptured are landed at St. Helena, where they are placed in suitable depots provided for their reception by the British Government, and humbly provided for: or in case of disease existing among them, those infected are placed on board of a roomy vessel lying at anchor at the leeward of the principal anchorage, and placed under proper medical treatment. Those who may choose to go to service as laborers on the island, are permitted to do so for a term of from three to seven years, under the approbation of the Collector of the Customs, with all the rights and immunities of British subjects.

NEW WORKS.

BULWER'S BEST NOVEL, "NIGHT AND MORNING," COMPLETE FOR ONLY 25 CENTS! The popularity of the system of cheap republications, in newspaper form, of the sterling productions of the English novelists, has determined the publisher of the Boston Notion to adopt the plan. It has been objected to the system, that works of inferior merit would be foisted on the public by the periodical press, but the publisher of the Notion has resolved that none but productions of undoubted talent shall be issued from his office. He will publish on Saturday Morning, July 16, A BOSTON NOTION—EXTRA, Containing the whole of Sir E. L. Bulwer's, MAGNIFICENT CHEF D'ŒUVRE, Night and Morning.

This Novel has extorted praise even from those who have hitherto denied the merit and morality of its distinguished author's writings. It is written in the rich and glowing language which characterises Bulwer's style, its plot is intensely interesting and highly wrought, and its characters striking and natural. Above all, the moral tone of the work is pure and lofty. The price of this novel in London, is seven dollars, yet our handsome edition will be sold for 25 cents, thus enabling every one to possess himself of one of the choicest gems of English literature.

It will be printed in the same style and form as the Quarto Boston Notion, and Quarto New World, and can therefore be bound up with them, and will form a handsome, convenient and uniform volume.

It will occupy three sheets, printed in handsome and clear type, on the best paper, and will be sold for Only twenty five Cents each!!

Five Copies will be sent to Postmasters or Clubs for $1,000—Ten Copies for $2,00—Sixteen Copies for $3,00.

To Agents and Newsmen—$18,00 per hundred Orders will be attended to and supplied if accompanied with the cash. The novel will be kept in type, in order to supply all orders that may be received from distant agents or newsmen.

All Booksellers, Newspaper Agents, or others, will be supplied on the above terms.— GEO. ROBERTS, Publisher Boston Notion. Notion Office Boston, } July 8, 1842. }

The Leviathan, OR, QUADRUPLE BOSTON NOTION. Will be published on Friday, AUGUST 12. A full list of the Contents, and full particulars of this forthcoming INTELLECTUAL GIANT, will be made public in a few days. Individuals and Agents desirous of securing copies, had better send us their orders at once, as only the limited number of Thirty Thousand Copies, can be printed. NEW AMERICAN NOVEL. ABEL PARSONS; OR THE BROTHER'S REVENGE. A TALE OF THE PRESENT TIMES.

Such is the title of an original novel which will be published at the Office of the New World, No 30, Ann Street, New York, on MONDAY, the 25th inst.

We can confidently assure the public, that it is one of the most deeply interesting and beautifully written stories we have read for many years. It is the production of an accomplished writer, and a man of distinguished abilities. The scenes are laid in the city of New York, and the characters drawn from real life; and they cannot fail to elicit much excitement and attention. The time of the narrative is in the autumn and winter of the year 1835, when the Great Fire took place, by which a large portion of the business part of the city was reduced to ashes. We are acquainted with nothing in the works of modern novelists more vivid or more impressive than the description of this Splendid Conflagration, in the concluding chapters of 'Able Parsons.'

Terms.—The Work will be issued in a Double Number of the New World, handsomely printed on fine paper, at 12 1/2 cents a single copy; eight copies for $1—seventeen copies for $2, and one hundred copies for $8.
