

with you in opinion on politics, and other matters of public interest, we readily admit, that your conduct on all occasions, has been open, manly, and candid.

When we call to mind the great number of years you have devoted to the improvement of the Roads; your indefatigable and zealous attention to Schools, and the improvement of Youth; your liberality towards the various places of Public Worship; your devoted attention to Agriculture; and in fact to every object tending to the public good; we feel that this community is about to sustain a loss, that will not readily be replaced.

As a Magistrate you have discharged the duties with ability and firmness.

As one of the heads of a great mercantile Establishment, your conduct has been characterized by honor and integrity; and we rejoice to find that after many years of anxious toil and labour, your exertions, through the blessing of Providence, have been crowned with success, and that you are enabled to return to your native country, and spend the remainder of your declining years in ease and affluence.

In taking leave of you, Sir, we sincerely wish yourself and family a pleasant passage across the Atlantic, and we cherish the hope, that you may, after visiting your native land, return and spend the remainder of your days amongst us,—but should this hope not be realized, we sincerely wish you and every member of your family, every happiness and prosperity.

We remain, Sir, with great respect,
Your's sincerely,

Signed by 80.

To the above, Mr. Gilmour made the following reply:

Douglastown, 17th June, 1842.

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Chatham.—Gentlemen.—The Address you have now presented to me on the eve of my departure from this Province for my native land is, most gratifying.

If, during the many years I have resided in this county, my humble efforts to improve its roads, and to promote the cause of education, and such public institutions as appeared to be calculated to advance the interests of this important section of New Brunswick, have been attended with any measure of success, I have been amply compensated, and I did not expect that these efforts would have attracted the notice and called forth the commendation of so many intelligent persons.

In this community I have spent many happy days; in it I leave many sincere friends; and for it I shall ever feel a strong attachment, which will be greatly heightened by the many convincing proofs of esteem which have on this occasion been manifested towards myself and family. These, I assure you, have deeply affected us, and will never be forgotten. For the sentiments of good will contained in your address, accept of my most grateful acknowledgments; and should I be induced after a time, to return to America, there is, I can assure you, no part of the country I should prefer to that in which I have already spent so many of my days.

That the Divine blessing may rest on you and yours, and that you may continue to enjoy health, happiness, and prosperity, is the earnest wish of

Gentlemen,
Yours most sincerely
JAMES GILMOUR.

Address to James Gilmour, Esquire, from the Kirk Session of St. James's Church, Newcastle:

At a Meeting of the Kirk Session of St. James's Church, Newcastle, held this 12th day of June 1842, it was unanimously Resolved—That the Session have learned with extreme regret that James Gilmour, Esquire, one of their number, is about to leave this Province with his family to return to his native land,—that they feel the most sincere respect for Mr Gilmour's character, and gratitude for the untiring zeal manifested by him for the promotion of religion, and the best interests of this Congregation. And they cannot allow him to depart without some expression of their esteem, and their best wishes for his and his family's future welfare and happiness; and should he, in the Providence of God, return to this community, it will afford them the greatest pleasure to welcome him back to the situation in this Church which he has so long and honorably occupied.

James Souter, A. M.,
Min. of St. James's Church, Newcastle.
Christopher Wishart, Elder.
Tavish McTavish, Elder.

At a meeting of the Corporation of St. James's Church, Newcastle, in connexion with the Established Church of Scotland, held at Newcastle, on the 14th inst., the following Address to James Gilmour, Esq., their late Convener, was unanimously voted: viz:

Respected Sir,
The Corporation of St. James's Church Newcastle, beg to present you with this their parting Address. We have had the pleasure of knowing you long and intimately, and have always entertained, both for your public and private character, the most sincere respect. For a number of years you have presided over this Corporation with much ability and acceptance. And we feel it to be a duty incumbent on us gratefully to acknowledge the untiring zeal manifested by you in promoting the prosperity of this Church. Be assured, Dear Sir, that your departure from among us is felt by us and by the Congregation at large as a public loss—a loss we regret to say, not likely soon to be made up.

We rejoice, however, to understand that you are enabled to retire from public life with an ample competency, which we sincerely hope you may be long spared to enjoy, and should you again return to this community, your reception will be of the most cordial nature, and this Congregation may hope still to enjoy the benefit of your valuable services.

That you and your family may have a prosperous voyage to the shores of your native land, and there enjoy health, happiness, and prosperity is the earnest prayer of the Corporation.

In name and in behalf of the Corporation of St. James's Church, Newcastle.
GEORGE KERR, Convener.
WILLIAM LOCH, Secretary.

To the Corporation of St. James's Church, Newcastle, in connexion with the Established Church of Scotland:

Gentlemen,

Your Address to me on the occasion of my departure from this Province and return to Scotland, I have received with peculiar satisfaction. I have ever regarded the establishment of a branch of our national Church in Newcastle, as one of our greatest privileges, and have felt it both a duty and a pleasure to do anything that might be in my power, to promote its prosperity; and I trust that the same spirit of harmony which has in times past distinguished the deliberations of its Corporation, will still continue to distinguish them.

Although separated from you, I shall never cease to feel the liveliest interest in all that concerns your religious institutions,—and should it be the will of God that I should, after a time, return to this community, nothing will afford me more pleasure than to co-operate with the Corporation in promoting the welfare of St. James's Church.

Accept of my most grateful acknowledgments for the fervent good wishes expressed by you for the future welfare and prosperity of me and my family, and believe me to be,

Gentlemen,
Your's most sincerely,
JAMES GILMOUR.
Douglastown, 17th June, 1842.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

On the morning of Saturday, 21st May, Mr. Edward M'Kay, aged 25 years, eldest son of D. M'Kay, Esq., of Northesk, while attempting to break a jam on the falls of the North-west branch of this river, unfortunately slipped from the rock on which he was standing, and although in the presence of about 30 men, eleven of whom were his near relations, no assistance could be rendered him. The body was found next morning: his remains were interred in St. James Churchyard on the Tuesday following, numerously and respectfully attended. Mr. M'Kay was a young man universally respected and esteemed, and has left a large circle of relations and friends to regret his sudden death; and the Parish of Northesk has lost one of its best and smartest young men.
