

In every succeeding age, christians have ever taken the lead in this labour of love. They considered it not merely as a matter of civil policy, but as a duty which their profession of the Gospel required them to perform.

IV. We come now, as was proposed, to consider the benefits which christianity has conferred on literature, the arts and sciences. A slight acquaintance with the history of passages, will convince us that the cause of literature has been greatly indebted to christianity.

TO LET

For One or more Years. The STORES, WHARF and Dwelling HOUSE, lately occupied by Richard Black stock, Esq. situate in the Town of Chatham

The DWELLING HOUSE is pleasantly situated—is well finished, and is capable of accommodating a large family—it would also answer well for a Boarding House. There is an excellent BARN and other OUTHOUSES near the House—which will be rented with, or distinct from the house.

The STORE is Four Stories high, fitted up very conveniently for carrying on an extensive Retail business.

The WHARF is now occupied as a Ship Yard—for which it has peculiar advantages. The Wharf, with the extensive Store standing thereon, will be let distinct from the other premises, if required.

The situation and advantages of this Property as a stand for Business, are too well known to require further description. For Terms and other particulars, apply to STREET & KERR. Chatham 30th August, 1841.

MRS. MARTIN begs leave to return her most grateful thanks to the patrons of the Royal Hotel for their many and obliging favors; and solicits a continuance of their patronage in favor of Mr Gregory Layton, who she is quite assured will leave no exertions untried to give the utmost satisfaction. Royal Hotel, Chatham, } 30th Oct. 1841. }

ROYAL HOTEL.

G. LAYTON, begs leave most respectfully to announce to the Inhabitants of Chatham, and the Public generally, that he has taken the above named Premises of Mrs. MARTIN, and will be prepared to enter thereon by the first of next month, when he will be happy to accommodate Travellers as usual, and a few private Boarders; and hopes by strict attention to the comfort of those who may favour him with their commands, to merit a share of that patronage so liberally bestowed on his predecessor. Chatham, October 25, 1841.

To LET, with immediate possession, the HOUSE, or part of it, at present occupied by the Subscriber.

Immigration Notice.

All persons having any Lands either wilderness or improved, FOR SALE, will please give an account of the same, with the situation and capabilities thereof, and the probable price of the respective Lots, to either of the Secretaries of this Society, in order that the said Lands may be offered to Emigrants wishing Lands for actual settlement. EDWARD WILLISTON, Recording Secretary. Newcastle, January 24, 1842.

NOTICE.
