UNITED STATES.

From the Boston Bee.

Our Prospects.—As the Tariff question, which for months has kept the country in a feverish state of excitement, and perhaps more than any other cause, delayed its prosperity, is now settled—and as the difficulties in the adjustment of the Boundary question with Great Britain, have likewise been happily got over, we may now look with confidence to a revival of business, and to a cessation of the eternal and woin-out cry of "hard times."

The late action of Congress having prepared the stepping stone to a revival of business and consequent improvement in our condition, it needs but resolution, industry, perseverance, and the lessons of past experience, to enable us to mount to the summit of prosperity, and keep our foot-hold on its top.

From the Salem Mercury. Mutiny.—Ship Sumatra, of and from Salem, arrived at Batavia, May 3d. A letter from the captain states that on the 21st of April, off Java head, he saw a vessel in distress, ran down, and discovered it to be the British bark Kilmers, of Glasgow, and to his astonishment, the only person he saw was a female, who appeared frantic with despair.

She was a young lady, eighteen years of age, the wife of captain Smith of the bark—she stated that the Kilmers left Batavia two months previous for Europe; that soon after leaving, the crew mutinied, and came near killing the captain (her husband) and herself—but the captain finally succeeded in securing them below in different parts of the ship—and endeavoured, with only two boys to assist him, to work the ship back to Batavia, and on the morning previous to her meeting them, she missed her husband and the boys overboard, and taken the boat and pulled for the shore.

In twenty minutes after she got on board the Sumatra, I perceived, by the aid of my glass, the men crawling from the hatches and liberating each other; they then ran aft, and put her helm hard up, and her head sails filled—I immediately filled away the Sumatra, and gathering head way very quick, enabled us to avoid them.—They tacked several times after us—the next morning she was fifteen miles to leeward. The Dutch government took care of the lady, as there is no English Consul here.

New York, Aug. 31—three days preceding.—Flour and Meal—since our last, the market for Genesee and other descriptions of Western Flour has again declined about 12c. per bbl. closing heavily at our reduced quotations, the demand being very moderate.—Rye Flour is dull and lower; $3 37 1/2 a 3 50.—Corn Meal remains as last noticed.—Grain—New Southern Wheat of poor quality continues to arrive freely; and sales are effected with difficulty; good and prime qualities are scarce, and wanted.

Disturbance in Canada.—We learn from the Rochester Post of Friday, that another outbreak took place at St. Catharines on the 23d instant, during which the Catholic Church was burned, one man killed, and other outrages perpetrated.

On the following night there was another mob near Allensburg, in which one man was killed and several badly wounded.

On Monday and Tuesday nights, there were riots at Brook Creek, which like the others, were all on the line of the Welland canal. Three men were killed, and many seriously wounded.

The causes of the riots are starvation—the feud lying between the 'Corkonians' and the 'Connaught men'—as different parties of the Irish laborers term themselves—such as prevailed on the Genesee canal in this State, &c. Some of the British military were in the vicinity, but the civil authorities do not like to employ them in quelling the riots. It is an awful state of things, produced by a combination of causes—starvation, sectarian bigotry, local feuds, &c.

Genesee Flour at New York on the 2d instant, $4.93 a $5; Ohio, $4.81 a $5; Georgetown, $5.12 a $5.25. Rye Flour, $3.37 a $3.50. Corn meal, $3.

At Baltimore, 1st, Howard Street, $4.62 a $4.75; City Mills, $4.75. Wheat, 75 to 90 cents per bushel.

Nearly sixty one thousand members have been added to the Methodist Episcopal Church during the year ending 1st June.—Boston paper.

Tremendous Storm and Great Destruction.—During the entire day, on Wednesday, there was a tremendous fall of rain at Baltimore, and its vicinity, accompanied with terrific thunder and lightning, causing a rapid and fearful rising of the tide. The bells of the city were rung, and many citizens repaired to the wharves to render such assistance as was in their power. On Thursday morning the streets bordering upon the basin, as well as Fish Market Space, were covered with water, and presented a scene of destruction truly distressing.

The water at one time had reached in Calvert street as high as the east side of Lombard street, filling the cellars and floors of the first stories of the warehouses and stores, and doing great damage to their contents. Those who are capable of judging, estimate the damage done in the city at nearly a million of dollars.
