MARY HOWITT'S NEW WORK.

NOW READY.
THE NEIGHBORS;
A TALE OF EVERY DAY LIFE.
BY FREDERIK BREMER.

Translated from the Swedish, by Mary Howitt.

THIS is one of the most delightful works which we have ever read, and which we know will be received with pleasure by all our readers. It is the first of a series of four, which have been translated by Mary Howitt, entitled—The Neighbours; The House; The President's Daughters; and Nina. Speaking of these productions, the Translator says:

"They are in my opinion, most admirable in their lessons of social wisdom; in their life of relation; in their playful humor; and in all those qualities which can make writings acceptable to the fire side circle of the good and refined. Frederika Bremer is indeed the Miss Austin of Sweden. Her father was an eminent merchant, and since the death of her parents, she has resided alternately in Stockholm and with a female friend in the South of Sweden. She has consequently seen much of the society and scenery of her native land, and no one can sketch these with more graphic truth and vivacity. Since the writings of their great poet Tegner, no productions have created such a sensation in Sweden; and abroad they have flown far and wide, have been read with avidity in various parts of the Continent, and in Germany alone three editions have appeared in rapid succession.

Terms—Single copies, 18 $\frac{1}{2}$  cents; seven copies for \$1, or \$12 per hundred. It is published in a double number, octavo form.
