

bitants. The sailors are very much frost bitten in their hands and feet, and the captain very bad with a severe pain across his chest. The mate and the remainder of the crew were shortly afterwards taken from on board the ship, all well.

Cacoona, Nov. 30, 1842.

During the heavy gale from the N. E. on Monday night, the 28th, and Tuesday's tide, the George Ramsay beat very heavily on the stones, unshipped her rudder, damaged the trunkway, and considerably hurt her bottom; a part of the after keel is gone, and the water flows in and out at every rise and fall of the tide.

The barque Enterprise, Dawson, hence on the 17th ult. for Liverpool, was lost on the Manicouagan Shoals, on Thursday night, the 24th Nov. The crew arrived at Cacoona in the long boat, and being worn out with hardship and cold, were saved by the exertions of the crew of the George Ramsay.

Halifax, Dec. 10, arrived—Schr. Defiance, Currie, from Miramichi, 12 days.

The ship Banffshire, Eady, 10 days from Quebec, for Cork, with a cargo of deals, was assisted into Port Hood, by Wm. Watts, and others, being water logged, and having lost jib boom, main and mizen topmasts, decks swept, and rudder chains broken. Besides her crew, she had a sergeant and four soldiers on board.

The brig Alfred, Capt. Richard Pearse, from Georgetown, P. E. Island, bound to Bristol, England, having on board a cargo of deals and timber, was totally wrecked on Cow Point, Cape Breton, on the morning of the 29th ult., during a heavy gale of wind from the Northwest. The captain, crew, and passengers were enabled to get on shore in safety after being exposed on the wreck a day and night, with the sea washing completely over them.

The brig Catherine Fraser, Fish, hence for Pictou, ashore near Canso about 24th ult.—vessel total loss—crew and materials saved.

The schr Edward & Samuel, McDaniell, of St. Mary's, was totally lost near Sydney, on the 1st inst, and every soul on board perished—7 in number, including some passengers.

The schr Isabella, Martin, from Miramichi for Halifax, in ballast, was totally lost at St. Peter's Island, P. E. I., on 29th ult—crew saved.

Boston, Dec. 3. Melancholy Shipwrecks.—The new barque Isadora, Captain Leander Foss, belonging to Kennebec, Me., sailed thence on Wednesday morning, 30th ult for New Orleans, and was totally lost in the E. S. E. gale, same night, on Maxwell's Beach, near Cape Neddock, York, Me. Every person on board, fourteen or fifteen in number, perished! They were all young men belonging to Kennebec. The vessel was 395 tons burthen, was owned by several shipmasters of Kennebec, including captain Foss, was valued at $22,500, and insured for $22,000 at one office in this city.

On the same night, the schr James Clark, Capt. Beck, of and from St. John, via Portland, for this port, went ashore on Rye Beach, N. H., and 6 passengers perished. Their names were Daniel Mahoney, Barry, a Lady, and her daughter five years old, a child of Mrs. Stewart, and a little girl named Peggy. The vessel is a total loss, with her cargo of potatoes, old iron, and laths. Captain Beck was confined to his bed at Portsmouth: three of the crew have arrived in the city, a free passage having been given them on the eastern railroad.

Great credit and praise is due to Mr. Yeaton and son, for their unwearied exertions in saving these people at the imminent risk of their lives; but for their aid, many more would have perished. His family, too, have done all that humanity could demand. Their house has been opened, and their clothing been freely distributed to the poor sufferers, who have now lost nearly everything they had, except the clothing they had on, and some were nearly naked,—they had really 'fed the hungry and clothed the naked.' Heaven will undoubtedly bless them, for such shall have their reward.

MARY HOWITT'S NEW WORK. NOW READY. THE NEIGHBORS; A TALE OF EVERY DAY LIFE. BY FREDERIKA BREMER. Translated from the Swedish, by Mary Howitt.

THIS is one of the most delightful works which we have ever read, and which we know will be received with pleasure by all our readers. It is the first of a series of four, which have been translated by Mary Howitt, entitled—The Neighbours; The House; The President's Daughters; and Nims. Speaking of these productions, the Translator says: "They are in my opinion, most admirable in their lessons of social wisdom; in their life of relation; in their playful humor; and in all those qualities which can make writings acceptable to the fire side circle of the good and refined. Frederika Bremer is indeed the Miss Austin of Sweden. Her father was an eminent merchant, and since the death of her parents, she has resided alternately in Stockholm and with a female friend in the South of Sweden. She has consequently seen much of the society and scenery of her native land, and no one can sketch these with more graphic truth and vivacity. Since the writings of their great poet Tegner, no productions have created such a sensation in Sweden; and abroad they have flown far and wide; have been read with avidity in various parts of the Continent, and in Germany alone three editions have appeared in rapid succession.

Terms—Single copies 18 cents; seven copies for $1, or $12 per hundred. It is published in a double number, octavo form.

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF NORTHUMBERLAND.

Notice. Whereas His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, by and with the advice and consent of Her Majesty's Executive Council, has thought fit to Dissolve the General Assembly of this Province, and to direct that a New writ be issued for the Election of Two of the most able and discreet Persons to Represent the Inhabitants of this County, in the next General Assembly. Notice is hereby given, that I have appointed TUESDAY, the 27th day of December, at NINE O'CLOCK in the forenoon, at the Court House, in Newcastle, for the Election of Two Members to Represent the Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland in the next General Assembly of this Province—of which all Persons interested will take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. J. M. JOHNSON, Sheriff of North'd. Sheriff's Office, Miramichi, } 12th December, 1842. }

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, Gentlemen,

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor having agreeably to the spirit and meaning of the Quadrennial Act, passed at the last Session of the Legislature, very judiciously and correctly, in my opinion, dissolved the late House of Assembly, and new Writs having in consequence been issued for a General Election throughout the Province, I now beg leave, most respectfully, again, for the fourth time, to offer myself to your notice, as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election. As my public, as well as private character, must be now pretty well known to the Constituency of this County, you have the best possible means. I should think, of forming a pretty correct estimate of my capacity to serve you, and as to how far your suffrages will be safe in my hands. Under these circumstances, Gentlemen, I do not think it necessary to put forth a great many promises, stating what I will do if I am returned, and shall therefore content myself with simply assuring you, that should I be so fortunate as to be again honored with your confidence, the same independence of mind, zeal for the interest of my constituents, and exertion for the general prosperity of the country at large, that have, I hope, ever characterized my public conduct since I have had the honor of being one of your Representatives, will be adhered to and pursued by me in future. My politics and principles are the same. I love my country and its constitution, and shall always feel it my duty to lend my humble efforts to maintain its principles unimpaired; and at the same time will yield to none in firmness and exertion to support and uphold the constitutional rights of my fellow subjects.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, with great respect, Your most obedient Servant, J. A. STREET. Miramichi, December 12, 1842.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, Gentlemen,

The late House of Assembly being now dissolved, I beg leave again to present myself to your consideration as a Candidate for your suffrages.

From having been one of your Representatives for the last Fifteen years, it will be unnecessary for me on the present occasion to make professions; suffice it therefore to say, by the past you must judge of the future,—by contrasting the internal improvements of this County with what they were in 1827, when I first became a Member of the Assembly, you can judge of the interest I have taken in its prosperity.

Soliciting your support at the approaching Election, I have only further to add, whether in or out of the House, I shall always take a lively interest in your welfare.

With great respect, Gentlemen, I have the honor to be Your very obedient Servant, ALEXANDER RANKIN. Miramichi, 12th Dec., 1842.
