

New Brunswick, Northumberland, SS
To the Sheriff of the County of Northumberland, or any Constable within the said County, Greeting;

Whereas John Percival, Executor of the last Will and Testament of Thomas McCullum, late of Nelson, in the County of Northumberland, Farmer, deceased, hath represented to me that the Personal Estate of the said deceased is insufficient to pay the debts due by the said deceased, and hath prayed that Licence may issue to authorize him to sell such parts of the Real Estate of the said deceased as may be necessary for the payment of his debts.

You are therefore required to cite the heirs and devisees of the said deceased, to be and appear before me, at a Court of Probate, to be held at my office, in the Parish of Chatham, on Wednesday, the fourth day of January next, at the hour of eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to shew cause why Licence should not be granted to the said Executor to sell such parts of the Real Estate of the said deceased, as shall be necessary to pay the debts due. And you are further required to cite and require the said Executor, and all and every the creditors and other persons interested in the said Estate, personally to be and appear before me, at the time and place aforesaid, with their vouchers and papers, in order that I may then and there proceed to hear and examine the proofs of the said parties, or the validity or legality of the debts and demands alleged to be existing against the said Estate.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the said Court, this twenty sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand eight hundred and forty two.

(Signed) W. CARMAN, Surrogate,
Judge of Probates, &c.
(Signed) GEORGE KERR, Register of Probates for said County.

TO LET,

For One or more Years.
The STORES, WHARF and Dwelling HOUSE, lately occupied by Richard Blackstock, Esq. situate in the Town of Chatham. The DWELLING HOUSE is pleasantly situated—is well finished, and is capable of accommodating a large family—it would also answer well for a Boarding House. There is an excellent BARN and other OUTHOUSES near the House—which will be rented with, or distinct from the house.

The STORE is Four Stories high, fitted up very conveniently for carrying on an extensive Retail business.

The WHARF is now occupied as a Ship Yard—for which it has peculiar advantages. The Wharf, with the extensive Store standing thereon, will be let distinct from the other premises, if required.

The situation and advantages of this Property as a stand for Business, are too well known to require further description. For Terms and other particulars, apply to STREET & KERR.
Chatham, 30th August, 1841.

IN PREPARATION,
And will be published in a Double Extra New World,

JANUARY 17, 1843,
A SPLENDID PICTORIAL EDITION
OF THE
LIFE AND EXPLOITS OF THE
DUKE OF WELLINGTON,
Illustrated with
SIXTY MAGNIFICENT ENGRAVINGS,
AND A FINE
FULL LENGTH PORTRAIT OF THE DUKE.
Executed expressly for this work by the best artists in London.

The publisher of the New World feels a peculiar satisfaction in announcing the above work, which he is confident will meet the approval and give the greatest satisfaction to every intelligent reader in the United States or the British Provinces. Of the great events in which the Duke of Wellington bore a conspicuous part, both in India and on the continent of Europe it is needless here to speak. Suffice it to say, that they are portrayed with a vividness that transports the reader to the scenes of those memorable battles and sieges which have never been equalled since the days of Rome and Carthage. The present work gives a

COMPLETE
History of the Peninsular War,

In which Napoleon exerted the whole power of his Empire for the conquest of Spain, on the throne of which kingdom he had placed his brother Joseph—describing in the language of truth the various striking incidents of that memorable struggle, in which the armies of the two most powerful nations were marshalled and led on by the two greatest captains of the age—Wellington and Napoleon. It is illustrated by more than Sixty most Exquisite Engravings, of which it is impossible to speak in language at all commensurate with the talent and spirit with which they are executed. These are intended to illustrate the various battles, sieges, storming of towns and fortresses, engagements at sea, personal adventures and thrilling incidents, and are alone worth more than double the price asked for this EXTRA. If we do not find that this will have an immense sale both in the United States and British Provinces, then we shall mistake the temper of the people. The embellishments alone cost the publisher of the New World over

Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

The authorities consulted in the preparation of this work are—Life of Moore, by his brother; Hooke's Life of Sir David Baird; Col. Gurwood's Despatches of Wellington; Napier and Southey's Peninsular War; Londonderry's Narrative; Sachet and Sarazin's War in Spain; Sherer's Military Memoirs; Various Lives of the Duke of Wellington, by eminent authors; Scott's Napoleon; Life of Ney; and the information here given can be obtained only through the medium of these most expensive works.

TERMS—It will be issued in a Double Extra New World, on the 17th day of January, 1843—at 25 cents single, five copies for $1, eleven copies for $2, thirty copies for 5$—or $16 per hundred.

For the information of our friends in the Provinces, we say that the present is not an English copyright work, and may therefore be freely ordered and sold in all parts of British America. Address
