

The New World.

EDITED BY PARK BENJAMIN.

NEW SERIES—VOLUME I.

On and after the 7th day of January, 1843, The New World will appear in the shape of Royal Octavo instead of Quarto. This change will be made in accordance with the request of numerous agents and subscribers, who are very desirous to have our journal, with its collateral issues, in the form most convenient for binding. A new, clear, and beautiful type will be used, and there will be no diminution in the quantity of articles given—since there will be thirty two pages instead of sixteen as at present. Thus, there will be two beautiful semi-annual volumes, adapted to the shelves of modern book cases. The Extra Numbers, which we shall continue to publish, will form two or three separate handsome octavo Volumes. These will not consist chiefly of romances, but of really valuable historical, biographical, scientific and standard works. They may all be obtained regularly as they appear by all of our subscribers, if, in renewing their orders for the next year, they will each send $5 instead of $3—directing the overplus to be applied for the new works as they are successively issued.

Our materials for the regular edition of the New World are excellent and copious. They shall be used with no sparing hand. We shall give several admirable original stories and translations, in the course of the next Volume, by the most popular American writers, besides the richest selections from the periodical press of Great Britain. Our correspondence with the different parts of the world will be continued.

The interest of our paper will also be greatly enhanced by the travelling sketches, first impressions, and letters, which will be furnished from time to time by James Aldrich, Esq. the junior Editor, who sails for Europe on the 25th day of October. Mr Aldrich, being perfectly acquainted with the manner in which this journal is conducted, will be able to impart more entertainment than could any other correspondent. Mr Aldrich will complete our arrangements in England and France for the earliest possible transmission of every new publication.

The proprietors can safely promise, that the New World will be a much more valuable and interesting miscellany than it has hitherto been; although the united voice of the press has pronounced it the best newspaper of its kind in the country.
