NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

The Publishers of The New York Daily Tribune respectfully announce to their readers and the public that they have made arrangements for the opening winter as follows:

At WASHINGTON—A careful report of the daily proceedings of Congress will be made up expressly for the Tribune, so as to appear in its columns at the earliest moment. This department will be in the hands of the said gentleman who has ably and satisfactorily filled it through the last two Sessions.

2. A gentleman well informed on all Political topics and of eminent standing in the Political circles of the Metropolis, will act as our Confidential Correspondent, furnishing early advices of all Political movements in contemplation, whether with reference to the Legislative action of Congress, the corrupt vagaries of Tylerism, or to the warning intrigues and manoeuvres of the partisans of the rival Loco-Foco aspirants to the Presidency.

At NEW-YORK—1. In addition to our usual departments, a most capable Assistant Editor will attend all the Lectures of the Winter which shall possess a general interest, to report them either in full or in substance, as their character and worth shall seem to require. In this department, The Tribune achieved an acknowledged supremacy last winter, it is our purpose to confirm it this season.

2. Another Assistant gives undivided attention to the Markets of our own and other Cities, taking accounts of Arrivals and Sales of Produce and Merchandise, with all operations in Goods, Stocks, Currency, Exchanges, &c. &c. which shall be worthy of record. In this department we endeavour to be more precise than any other paper.

3. Our Reviews and Intelligence we design to render fuller and earlier than those of most journals.

At BOSTON—We have an excellent Correspondent, who will transmit us from week to week brief summaries of the ablest and most striking Lectures, Discourses, &c. &c. with accounts of what its doing in every department of Moral and Intellectual effort.

At ALBANY.—We have completed arrangements for early and graphic advices of the manner in which Loco-Focoism shall dispende is newly acquired 'Spoils,' and carry out to completion its Slop-and-Tax policy.

At HOME and EVERYWHERE—though we hope for a season to have less occasion than hitherto for devoting our columns to Political Controversy—The Tribune will continue the ardent, unswerving, undaunted advocate of Whig Principles and Measures, and of the election of Henry Clay as President in 1844. Recent events, however discouraging in the view of the short-sighted, have but strengthened our confidence in the speedy triumph of those Principles, and our conviction that Henry Clay and he only can rally around him the now scattered hosts of the victors of 1840, and lead them on to a new triumph, as signs as glorious, but more enduring and beneficent.

The Weekly Tribune—just twice the size of the Daily—contains eight royal pages, or forty eight double folio columns, comprising all that appears in the Daily which is not of local or ephemeral interest, with a large amount of Literary matter—Tales, Poems, Reviews, Descriptive Letters, &c. All the Reports of Lectures, Abstracts of Congressional and Legislative Proceedings, Editorials, Foreign News, &c. &c., that appear in the Daily will be regularly transferred to the Weekly, which is made up every Thursday morning and forwarded by the afternoon mails of that day, so as to reach most of its Subscribers by or before Saturday night.

The Weekly Tribune is afforded for $2 per annum, six copies for $10, ten copies for $15, and any large number at the rate of $1.50 each per annum. Every practicable encouragement will be given to those who will aid in extending our circulation, but all our dealings are conducted strictly on the Cash principle, and every paper is stopped as soon as the advance payment has run out. Post Masters and others enclosing $10 free of postage to us shall receive two Dailies and one Weekly Tribune for one year. On the above terms, subscriptions are respectfully solicited by GREELY & McELRATH, 160 Nassau st., in front of the Park and opposite the City Hall.
