DR. COTTON,
Sir,—Gratitude impels me not only to thank you, but also to request you to make my case Public, for the benefit of others.

I have been for eight years labouring under a complication of diseases. I had to go to bed every day with a sick head-ache and palpitation of the heart, also a debility of the whole frame, with great agitation of the nerves. I was subject to cramps, convulsions, and fits; my appe-Ject to cramps, convulsions, and fits; my appetite was impaired, my strength almost gone, and I suffered the most exeruciating torture imaginable. Also, in February last, I was attacked with a dropsical disease, and all my friends thought it was the last messenger. I had tried several doctors and their medicines, but all with no effect. I gave up every hope of finding any relief in this world.

My uncle, the Rev. John M. Madran, Priest of Little Rocher, advised me to try Dr. Cotton and his Cottonian Novator, which I did Now, thanks be to God, and the you, Sir, my dropsy is assuaged, my need is free of pain, my nerves are settled, my strength is restored, and the papitation cured.
